Dear Public Radio 90 Members,

Thank you for your continued support of WNNMU, Public Radio 90.

I want to take a moment to honor all of our members who have been giving through their IRA funds, creating a new legacy gift for Public Radio 90, or giving an additional gift of support. You recognize the value that Public Radio 90 brings to our communities every day and your gifts will help this station operate under the highest standards far into the future. Your incredibly thoughtful gifts to Public Radio 90 make you all Public Radio 90 heroes and we are very grateful for your lasting support.

If you haven't thought about planned gifts, bequests, or a lasting contribution to the Public Radio 90 endowment fund, and you have questions, please reach out to your financial planner, or attorney. Of course, Public Radio 90 and the NMU Foundation are always available to help guide you through the process if you should need assistance. Thanks to all who are considering a lasting legacy gift.

Our February on-air fundraising campaign, called Friendraiser 2024, is set for February 13-21 and we need your help to raise at least $45,000 to stay on track with program costs, which you many have heard, are rising each year. It doesn't matter how much you give, because every dollar makes a difference. A donation of $10 a month will help pay for one hour of programming during the year. It's easy to give using our secure online pledge site at wnmufm.org. Just click on the Pledge Now button at the top of the page. You can also drop a check in the mail to WNNMU-FM, 1401 Presque Isle Ave, Marquette, MI 49855, or call us at 800-227- 9668.

One final thought... be on the lookout for a Marq-Tran bus featuring one of our incredible Public Radio 90 on-air staff members. Nicole Walton, Hans Ahlstrom, Kurt Hauswirth, and Dan Truckey will all be featured on new signs that will be located on the backs of four Marq-Tran buses. Thank you to Marq-Tran for helping to make this possible through a trade of services. It is an incredible opportunity to have these four talented individuals featured!

Chapter-A-Day

on WNMU-FM

Monday-Friday at 9am

Monday, February 5 through Friday, February 16, Melvin Hinton reads The History and Uncertain Future of Handwriting by Anne Trubek. In the digital age of instant communication, handwriting is less necessary than ever before, and indeed fewer and fewer schoolchildren are being taught how to write in cursive. Signatures have become scrawls. Some argue it's a signal of a decline in civilization, but is it just the next stage in the natural evolution of communication?

Monday, February 19 through Friday, March 8, Karl Schmidt reads Let the Trumpet Sound: A Life of Martin Luther King, Jr. by Stephen Oates. By the acclaimed biographer of Abraham Lincoln, Nat Turner, and John Brown, Stephen B. Oates's prize winning Let the Trumpet Sound is the definitive one-volume life of Martin Luther King, Jr. This brilliant examination of the great civil rights icon and the movement he led provides a lasting portrait of a man whose dream shaped American history.
