WVIZ

BROKENWOOD MYSTERIES

Sunday, August 23 at 6:30 p.m. on WVIZ

This quirky New Zealand mystery follows DI Mike Shepherd, who arrives to the seemingly peaceful town of Brokenwood with a classic car, a country music collection, and an indeterminate number of ex-wives. His assistant, DC Kristin Sims, is a by-the-book investigator younger than her boss's car. Shepherd soon discovers that Brokenwood is full of secrets and suspicions.

The series continues Sundays at 6:30 p.m.

WKSU

THE COPPERHEAD CONSPIRACY

Tuesday, August 18 at 8 p.m. on WKSU

Explore a forgotten story from America's Civil War— one with roots in the Northeast and Midwest—where “copperheads” opposed to Abraham Lincoln's presidency plotted terrorist attacks in the North. A group of Northerners conspired with Confederates to plan an armed insurrection intended to topple the governments of several Midwestern states and free tens of thousands of Confederate prisoners from Union prisons—and it nearly worked.

WCLV

WOMEN'S EQUALITY DAY

Wednesday, August 26 on WCLV

In 1920, the 19th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution became law, guaranteeing women the right to vote. More than fifty years later, at the urging of New York Congresswoman Bella Abzug, August 26 was designated as Women's Equality Day to commemorate that milestone. WCLV celebrates the occasion with performances by composers, soloists, and conductors who all happen to be women.

Beth Stelling on Creative Courage

In this episode of the six-part series host Kelly Corrigan interviews Beth Stelling (writer, HBO's Crashing). She talks about the family that shaped her, the speech and debate program that first put her on a stage, the years it took to finally sound like herself in front of a crowd, and what she's learned from helping younger comedians find their way.

The series continues Tuesday, August 11 at 8 p.m. with:

Jonathan Bijur on Creative Freedom

In this episode hear an educator make the case for the most counter-cultural idea in education right now: that children learn more when adults get out of the way.

Milk, Microplastics and the Puzzle of Public Health

Public health measures that have been around for generations are being questioned and rolled back by the very agencies that once imposed them. At the same time, consumers are contending with new health threats that we still don't totally understand: forever chemicals, ultra-processed foods, and microplastics. This special looks at the debates around two health-related topics — raw milk and microplastics — where concerns about how to live a healthy life are leading to unusual, and in some cases, controversial choices.

DOG DAYS OF SUMMER

Friday, August 14

The Dog Days have more to do with astronomy than man's best friend. They commence in early July with the ascendance of Sirius, the Dog Star in the constellation Canis major, and they encompass the hottest days of the season, and run up to August 11. WCLV salutes this steamy occasion with selections that celebrate not only dogs (think: The Whistler and His Dog, and The Incredible Flutist, with its obligato part for a barking dog), but also cats, birds, snakes and all manner of creatures great and small. Snuggle up with your favorite critter and enjoy the daylong festivities!

BBC PROMS 2026

Begins Saturday, August 15 at 8 p.m.

It's that time of year again, when the biggest music festival is held in London. The BBC Proms began in 1895, founded as simply "The Proms" by Robert Newman. In 1927 they became the BBC Proms when Britain's biggest broadcaster began organizing and airing the festivities. Listeners to WCLV will be able to hear eight of the concerts as part of SymphonyCast.

SULTRY SUMMER JAZZ

Let's face it; we've seen some intensely sultry days this summer, and the month of August promises more of the same. That has us thinking about some legendary performances of sultry jazz pieces. Here are some of our favorites:

- Chet Baker – "My Funny Valentine"
- Miles Davis – "Round Midnight"
- Diana Krall – "The Look of Love"
- John Coltrane & Johnny Hartman – "My One and Only Love"
- Sarah Vaughan [pictured] – "Misty"
- Madeliene Peyroux – "Dance Me to the End of Love"
- Coleman Hawkins – "Body and Soul"
- Vanessa Rubin – "In a Sentimental Mood"
- Kurt Elling – "Moonlight Serenade"
- Melody Gardot – "Baby I'm a Fool"
- Chris Burge – "Cleveland Nights"

Our suggestion for adding a little "cool" to a steamy summer evening? Go out to your deck, patio or porch, pour a tall refreshing glass of whatever tickles your tastebuds, picture yourself in a hazy, intimate club on a hot summer night, turn on JazzNEO, and allow yourself to be seduced by an oh-so-satisfying summer serenade.

IDEASTREAM LEARNING

Ideastream Learning harnesses the power of public media to provide educational resources and services that help children, parents and educators develop and flourish.

Ideastream works with a wide range of community-based partners to provide children and their families with opportunities, resources, and experiences that support the development of foundational literacy and mathematics skills.

PBS KIDS resources are the perfect at-home learning companion to help children prepare and flourish in kindergarten and beyond

PBS KIDS SCHEDULE CHANGES

As kids are increasingly consuming their favorite shows through digital channels, we, along with most PBS stations across the country, are making a shift to better serve our audiences. WVIZ has updated our main channel programming on weekday afternoons.

To access children's programming on-demand, we invite you to use the PBS Kids Livestream (ideastream.org/kidsTV) and download the free PBS Kids Video App and PBS Kids Game App. Our commitment to kids remains strong and we will continue to broadcast programming fully dedicated to kids with the 24/7 PBS Kids channel at 25.5.
