WQLN Great TV Auction
May 16-19, 7-11 p.m.

It’s May, and you know what that means – it’s WQLN Auction time! For the 56th consecutive year, we’ll offer something for everyone – from great trips, hotel stays, and camping items to artwork, restaurant gift cards, and lots of wine! It’s time to dust off your Bid Express number, bid high and often, and get great items at fabulous prices while supporting your local public media station. No Bid Express number? No problem! Visit www.WQLN.org/Auction to secure yours before the first bid. If you’ve had one previously, watch your mailbox for a reminder postcard. While browsing our website, check out the list of items that grows daily. That’s also where you can livestream the TV feed if you find yourself away from home that weekend. If you’d like to make a tax-deductible donation, please contact Becky (BAnderson@WQLN.org) or Kathy (KAlessi@WQLN.org) to find out how your donation turns into free, educational TV and radio for our entire community!

Repairing the World
Film & Teaching Resources

After the deadliest antisemitic attack in U.S. history, the resilience of a vibrant city became evident. Through the voices of survivors, family members, diverse Pittsburgh residents, and community leaders, “Repairing the World: Stories from the Tree of Life” documents a community working to become stronger than hate, following the deadly shooting at the Tree of Life Synagogue in Pittsburgh’s Squirrel Hill neighborhood in October 2018. The film returns to WQLN PBS on Thursday, May 9, at 8 p.m. and Sunday, May 12, at 2 p.m. WQLN Members can watch any time on WQLN PBS Passport. Teachers, find educational resources for grades 6-12 under the Educators tab on WQLN.org/Learning-Resources. Presented in partnership with Temple Anshe Hesed.

Celebrate with “Classics with Brian Hannah”

This Mother’s Day, join us for a heartwarming celebration of mothers, with a special program curated just for moms! Throughout the program, we’ll weave a musical tapestry of tender melodies and evocative pieces that capture the enduring love between mother and child.

On Memorial Day, Monday, May 27, we’ll share a special program honoring America’s fallen heroes through the power of classical music. We’ll open with Aaron Copland’s stirring “Fanfare for the Common Man,” a tribute to the American spirit. Samuel Barber’s “Adagio for Strings” offers a poignant meditation on loss. Uplifting works by John Williams and Leonard Bernstein remind us of the strength and hope that endures.
Remake Learning Days Is an Adventure

Remake Learning Days celebrates innovative youth learning nationwide, featuring STEM activities, art workshops, and community initiatives fostering collaboration. WQLN PBS NPR joins Remake Learning Days in Northwestern PA. Grab your exclusive STREAM kit at WQLN PBS NPR from May 2 to May 22 while supplies last. Dive into weather wonders with tools sparking curiosity and observation skills. Let the learning adventure begin! For more information, call (814) 217-6001.

Special Thanks to YOU!

Last month, WQLN NPR asked our listeners for support, and as always, our members showed up! Every spring, we fundraise to pay for the programs you love, like “Morning Edition,” “Fresh Air,” “Marketplace,” and many more. WQLN NPR listeners know that their backing is vital to keeping these shows on the air, and we heard from hundreds of listeners who gave a total of over $70,000 in pledges. THANK YOU from the bottom of our hearts!

Mental Health Awareness Month

On Fridays, watch shows such as “Unconditional,” “Facing Suicide,” and “Hiding in Plain Sight.” May 13 at 9 p.m. “Possible Selves” follows two teenagers in foster care. “Resilience” on May 20 at 9 p.m. explores adverse childhood experiences and how they affect us in adulthood. “Going to War” on May 27 at 10 p.m. reveals the soldier’s experiences in battle. “Made in America” on May 28 at 9 p.m. explores the trauma of war. If you or a loved one have questions about mental health, visit www.NAMIerie.org.

It’s a Member Celebration!

Our members are the reason we exist at WQLN PBS NPR, and we can’t wait to thank each of you in person! We hope you’ll join us on Wednesday, May 1, at WQLN PBS NPR (8425 Peach Street) for our member celebration! Mingle with other members while you enjoy light refreshments, good times, Q-swag, and public radio fellowship. The fun begins at 5:30 p.m. See you there! Kindly RSVP by Friday, April 26, online at WQLN.org or (814) 217-6040.

Battle of the Buckets

It’s the third annual WQLN PBS Buckethead KIDZ program! Music teachers from various districts bring the beat to their classrooms, inspiring fifth graders to pursue music education beyond elementary school. This summer, along with local musicians, hundreds of students will gather for a battle of the buckets on the campus of WQLN PBS NPR on May 8 at 11 a.m. For more information, call (814) 217-6001. The rain date is May 9.
