ABOUT US

Alaska Public Media harnesses the power of multiple media platforms to make a more informed and connected life possible for all Alaskans. We produce and present news and content that provides lifelong learning opportunities in public affairs, health and leisure, science and nature, economic and social development, civic engagement and world events.

Located in Southcentral Alaska, we are comprised of KSKA radio, KAKM-TV, Create TV, PBS KIDS, and alaskapublic.org. Alaska Public Media also operates the Statewide News and a shared television service with KTOO in Juneau and KYUK in Bethel. Alaska Public Media and its affiliates deliver content that reaches 97% of the population of Alaska.

WELCOME

Welcome to the December 2025 edition of the Alaska Public Media Program Guide! Here are this month's featured programs, news and announcements.

STATION NEWS — FINAL PRINT EDITION

THE PROGRAM GUIDE IS GOING DIGITAL

Here's what that means for you.

As Alaska Public Media continues to face ongoing federal funding cuts and rising costs, we're taking a close look at how we use every dollar. One important step we're making beginning in January is transitioning the Program Guide to an all-digital format.

Printing and mailing the guide is one of our most significant recurring expenses. By moving online, we'll save thousands of dollars each year — funds that can be redirected toward what matters most: producing trusted news, educational programs, and Alaskan stories that connect and inspire our community.

We know many of you love receiving the printed guide each month, and this change may take some getting used to. We want the transition to be as smooth as possible and to ensure everyone can still easily find their favorite shows.

Here's How You Can Stay Connected

- This Week on Alaska Public Media: The weekly newsletter that brings you the best news, events and program highlights from Alaska Public Media. Head to alaskapublic.org/newsletters to sign up.
- Monthly Email Guide: Members receive program highlights and links to what's coming up each month.
- Online Schedule: Visit alaskapublic.org/watch anytime for the most current listings.
- Printable PDF: Download or print our Monthly Program Guide right from alaskapublic.org/watch.

Your Feedback Helped Shape This Change

In our recent survey, nearly 80% of members said they use the guide mainly for highlights or already view it online, and many encouraged us to put resources toward programming rather than printing and mailing costs. By moving to an all-digital guide, we can focus more of our budget on the shows, journalism, and community services you value most.

Thank You for Your Support

Your understanding — and your ongoing membership — make it possible for Alaska Public Media to continue serving the entire state with quality programming, news, and education. We're deeply grateful for your partnership and your trust as we evolve to meet new challenges while keeping our mission strong.

CAN'T MISS TV

EVERY FAMILY HAS A STORY

A powerful look at the roots that shape today's most recognizable figures.

Finding Your Roots returns in January with an all new season, offering a front-row seat to emotional detective work—part historical adventure, part personal revelation. In each episode, well-known cultural figures sit across from host Henry Louis Gates Jr., opening the pages of a carefully assembled “book of life” that documents their ancestry through records, photographs, and DNA analysis. Viewers witness discoveries that are intimate, unexpected, and often astonishing, as guests confront mysteries and myths that have lingered in their families for generations.

For more than a decade, Gates—a celebrated scholar, author, and storyteller—has used genealogy to spark a national conversation about identity and belonging. With warmth, humor, and intellectual curiosity, he guides guests through history with remarkable empathy, showing how individual stories connect to the broader American experience. The series has become known not just for its revelations, but for how it encourages people to see themselves as part of something larger.

This twelfth season continues that tradition with an exciting and eclectic lineup, including America Ferrera, Lizzo, Spike Lee, Kristin Chenoweth, Brittney Griner, Darren Criss, Sanaa Lathan, Delroy Lindo, and others. The journeys uncovered stretch across continents and centuries—immigration and displacement, perseverance and reinvention, family secrets and newfound connections.

Finding Your Roots illuminates stories of resilience, courage, and transformation. No matter how famous the guests may be, the discoveries remind viewers that our histories are interwoven in surprising ways.

Thoughtful, moving, and filled with remarkable storytelling, this new season once again reveals the power of knowing where we come from—and how the past shapes who we are today.

Tune in for the Season Premiere January 6, 2026 at 8 p.m. on Alaska Public Media TV or stream it on PBS.org after the broadcast premiere.

CAN'T MISS TV

NEARLY A CENTURY OF LAUGHTER

Celebrating the timeless charm and unstoppable spirit of Dick Van Dyke.

A legendary entertainer steps into the spotlight once more in this intimate documentary tracing a remarkable life in show business in American Masters Starring Dick Van Dyke. The film opens with quiet reflection: a performer in his late nineties, still curious, playful, and amazed that his career has lasted more than seventy years. His signature mix of physical comedy, heartfelt sincerity, and optimism helped define American entertainment, yet his approach to fame remains humble.

Through candid interviews, rare archival footage, and personal home movies, viewers follow his journey from small-town beginnings to national stardom. Friends and collaborators recall a man who learned by doing—whether tripping over an ottoman, breaking into song, or mastering live television. His breakthrough in Mary Poppins launched him from TV favorite to international celebrity, while later hits like Chitty Chitty Bang Bang revealed his versatility and enduring appeal.

It's a portrait of an artist whose joy, humility, and boundless energy have inspired generations. Nearing 100, he remains as buoyant as ever—a living reminder that laughter, curiosity, and creativity truly have no age limit.

Tune in Friday, December 12 at 8 p.m. on Alaska Public Media TV or stream it on PBS.org after the broadcast premiere.

A Special Thank You

BEHIND EVERY ISSUE — A PARTNER IN PRINT

A heartfelt thank-you to the team that helped bring this guide to life.

For more than two decades, Royal Printing has played a critical role in producing the Alaska Public Media Program Guide. From the first issue to this final printed edition, Royal Printing has been a trusted local partner — providing exceptional craftsmanship, consistent quality, and outstanding customer service.

Their team has printed every guide with attention to detail and pride in their work. They have helped us meet tight deadlines, adjust to changes in content, and keep the guide looking beautiful month after month. They have been a behind-the-scenes part of how we serve our members, ensuring this publication reached thousands of Alaskans across the state.

As we transition to a digital-only format, we extend our sincere gratitude to Royal Printing for their years of partnership and their support of public media in Alaska.

To everyone at Royal Printing — thank you.
We couldn't have done it without you.

EVERY LITTLE BIT: CELEBRATING ALASKA'S QUIET HEROES

Short stories with a big impact — uplifting the people strengthening our communities.

To continue telling the inspiring stories of our fellow Alaskans, Alaska Public Media launched a new series called Every Little Bit earlier this year. The team behind our Emmy Award-winning web series Indie Alaska brings the same storytelling spirit to this new project, which recognizes people who go above and beyond to strengthen our community in Anchorage and Southcentral Alaska.

This new series was created in response to our audience's want for more "good news" in a regular feature and to show "doing good" as civic engagement. Good civic engagement can reduce polarization and bridge divides - all key to a healthy community.

Every Little Bit unfolds in three parts within its first season, with five short stories in each. Part 1 premiered this summer, Part 2 aired this fall, and Part 3 will debut in spring 2026. Though each story is under three minutes long, their impact will stick with you long after you press play. Part 2 episodes include:

Larry Monsma, Team Orange

Larry Monsma and his team of volunteers help remove thousands of pounds of trash from Anchorage's waterways every year.

Derrick Moore, Hardaway Learning

Derrick Moore has been using his recovery to help teens and youth navigate coming into adulthood by offering presentations and encouragement to seek help when they need it.

Katy Arvidson, Ms. Wheelchair Alaska USA

Katy Arvidson uses her title as Ms. Wheelchair Alaska USA to provide mental health advocacy for people with disabilities.

Debbie Sis, The Listening Post

As a volunteer with The Listening Post, Debbie Sis offers a compassionate, non-judgmental ear for anyone to share their stories.

Saleh Soddy, youth advocate

High-school student Saleh Soddy helps organize events that educate, uplift, and unite local youth while balancing the demands of school and everyday life.

You can watch Every Little Bit stories on the Alaska Public Media YouTube channel (youtube.com/@alaskapublic), our website at alaskapublic.org/littlebit, the PBS app or over broadcast on KAKM and KSKA.

Do you know someone who goes above and beyond to strengthen our community in Anchorage and Southeast Alaska? Nominate them at alaskapublic.org/littlebit—because every little bit truly makes a difference.
