Hear the future of music this May during the KPBX Kids' Concert, MusicFest Northwest. E.J. Iannelli will host a special broadcast of music by MusicFest Northwest performers.

Spokane Public Radio has a long tradition of presenting young performers on KPBX. This year, SPR will partner with MusicFest Northwest to bring some of our region's best young performers. Select musicians from this adjudicated music festival will visit the studio to showcase the talent the festival's youth has to offer.
