WAMC/Northeast Public Radio completed its October Fund Drive on October 21, 2022, raising over $1,000,000 to support the station's award-winning news and cultural programming. WAMC board and staff thank its listeners for their generosity and devotion to the station. In total, the on-air portion of the drive took less than 12 hours over the week. This is the third and final drive of 2022 for WAMC.

Continuing to be mindful of the health and safety of volunteers and staff, WAMC’s Locked Box and Fund Drive were completed with the help of fewer volunteers than in the past and were supplemented with WAMC staff fielding calls and online donations.

WAMC was honored to partner with American National Insurance to contribute to The Food Pantries For The Capital District which helped to feed over 600 families this fall and winter.

WAMC President and CEO Alan Chartock says, "We are truly in love with our WAMC family. All the people that did something to help our Fund Drive, we can’t say thank you enough!"

Joe Donahue, the host of The Roundtable, adds, "We are forever grateful to the WAMC family for meeting us for two hours every day and making a lot of money in a very short time. We're thrilled to be back to regular programming and it's because of the love of our audience. Thank you, all."

WAMC is a listener-supported station that relies on contributions to stay alive. Its Fund Drives occur three times a year: February, June, and October. Each drive has a $1 million goal to support the general operations of WAMC/Northeast Public Radio. We broadcast the highest quality programs from NPR, American Public Media, BBC World Service, and our station as well as a wide range of award-winning local programming.

If you’re interested in finding out more about our Fund Drives, or donating or volunteering, please contact Amber Sickles at 1-800-323-9262 ext. 133.
The end of 2022 is slowly approaching. This year graced us with lots of travel, social gatherings and hope for the future, and November may hold more of the same. This month, as we celebrate being with one another, we’ll hear the traditional airing of “Turkey Confidential” and “Alice’s Restaurant.” We’ll also honor Veterans Day, hear about dark matter from the world of academia and learn how trees are getting bigger.

SPECIAL PROGRAMMING:

After a year of primaries and then early voting, the big night is nearly upon us. Results of the midterm elections will begin to come in November 8. Will Congress stay under Democratic Party control or will the Republicans take the majority? Join us at 8 p.m. for live special coverage.

In honor of Veterans Day November 11, we’ll hear stories about one woman’s struggle to get help for her PTSD, how Shakespeare is helping veterans transition back to civilian life, and some of the health effects that come with combat. Airing at 11 a.m.

On Thursday, November 24 we will hear the traditional airing of “Turkey Confidential” from “The Splendid Table” at 9 a.m. Tune in as host Francis Lam talks all things food with author Claire Saffitz, author and podcast host Rick Martinez, and host and editor Jesse Sparks. At 12 p.m. we’ll hear the traditional “Alice’s Restaurant” during Midday Magazine.

At 2 p.m. we’ll feature back-to-back episodes of “A New York Minute in History” with “Live from the Association of Public Historians of New York State,” beginning at 2 p.m., followed by “Discovering the Nation’s Founding Fossils” at 2:30 p.m.

On Friday, November 25 “Reel Music” will take us to the movies with “Americana in Film” featuring the Phoenix symphony, The London Symphony Orchestra, the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra, and scores that remind us of our favorite films. Airing at 2 p.m.

REGULAR PROGRAMMING

This month “The Academic Minute” is thankful for all the amazing research the professors share with us and our audience. We will feature three theme weeks this month. First up will be New York University, whose professors will tell us about dark matter, bias in A.I., and nursing staffing in disadvantaged communities. Next will be North Kentucky University, whose professors will determine with original understandings of the 4th Amendment, teaching a classic novel when new information comes to light, and creating compelling visual representations of literature. Finally, faculty from the University of New England will examine reintroducing chestnut trees, learning by living, and models for discovering methods to reduce chronic pain. We’ll also have special segments during Thanksgiving week. Join us each weekday at 7:30 a.m. and 3:56 p.m. on WAMC or anytime online at academicminute.org.

On “Person Place Thing,” Dr. Freeman Hrabowski tells us about his journey to bring legions of Black students to STEM professions at University of Maryland, Baltimore County on November 4. And on November 11 poet Ross Gay tells us about his mother, Seger Park, and pawpaws. “Person Place Thing” airs Fridays at 10:30 p.m. and Saturdays at 7:30 a.m.

On “Earth Wise” we’ll hear how trees are growing bigger, learn about the carbon inequality issue within countries, and discuss a study found that in many instances, the negative economic impact of creating a single Bitcoin is more than what the resultant coin is worth. “Earth Wise” airs weekdays at 11:10 a.m. and 4:04 p.m.

On “Live at the Linda,” we’ll start the month with “518 Jazz” featuring Wayne Hawkins Quartet 2022, Colleen Pratt & Peg Delany Trio 2022, Lee Shaw 2007, and Keith Pray’s Big Soul Ensemble 2008 on November 2 and 6; and “10 Years Ago This Month” featuring Christine Lavin, Don White, and Greg Anderson 2012 on November 9 and 13. Please check the schedule for updates https://www.wamc.org/show/live-at-the-linda. “Live at the Linda” airs Wednesdays and Sundays at 8 p.m.

What is underwriting you might ask? As a public radio station, we don’t carry conventional advertisements. Instead, we offer sponsorship opportunities in the form of underwriting. Underwriting consists of brief radio announcements, or “credits,” that inform our listeners about what products, services, or events a business or organization offers. The objective, unbiased approach of underwriting strips away the clutter and loaded language of other advertising.

We are extremely grateful to work with hundreds of businesses throughout our listening area. These organizations opt to use their marketing and advertising dollars to share their message with our listeners, all while supporting the station at the same time. We truly appreciate their support and ask you take a moment to support them! View our Underwriting Directory highlighting all of our underwriters from various industries.

Interested in becoming an underwriter?
It’s quick and simple! Visit wamcunderwriting.org/contact-us to get the ball rolling and we’ll take it from there.
