

Brain Battles: WQLN PBS's Annual Scholastic Scrimmage

Dive into the excitement of intellectual prowess as WQLN PBS presents its annual Scholastic Scrimmage, where high school students showcase their collaborative skills and engage in friendly competition. This quiz bowl series goes beyond the surface, fostering essential skills such as critical thinking, quick problem-solving, and effective teamwork. Participants not only compete but also build a foundation for lifelong learning.

Immerse yourself in the world of knowledge as your favorite local high school teams demonstrate their remarkable depth of understanding, creating an exhilarating viewing experience for audiences young and old. Make a date with WQLN PBS every Thursday, from February 1-22, at 8:30 pm. You can catch the additional games airing from March 14 to April 18 on WQLN PBS.

Contact Kathy at (814) 217-6001 for the full schedule and additional details. Don't miss the opportunity to support and be a part of this educational and entertaining event that celebrates the brilliance of young minds.

Celebrate Black History Month On WQLN PBS

On Feb. 2, we will air "Birthing Justice" at 3 p.m. and explore the challenges black women face when pregnant. At 9 p.m. "American Masters" presents an encore of "Little Richard: The King & Queen of Rock & Roll". On Feb. 5 at 9 p.m. "Pullman and the Railroad Rebellion" tells a story that connects race, class, and politics that helped define the labor movement. On Feb. 6, we will be showing "American Masters: How It Feels to Be Free" at 9 p.m. Friday, Feb. 9 at 9 p.m. is the premiere of "Gospel Live!" with Henry Louis Gates Jr., honoring the legacy of Gospel music in America. And on Feb. 12-13, "Gospel" digs deep into the origin story of Black spirituality through sermon and song.

Local Artist Reveals Film-Inspired Original Art

"We Hold These Truths" is a film exploring the promise and enduring influence of America's Declaration of Independence, both at home and around the world. This promissory note for liberty inspired over 100 nations seeking their independence. In our own area, it influenced original art designed by well-known local artist, Antonio Howard. At our Liberty Reexamined event in partnership with Gannon University in January, Antonio revealed his interpretation of the themes explored in the film. Howard is a self-taught, successful, and valued artist in our community, winning multiple awards, and participating in the creation of numerous murals throughout Erie County. Find out more about Antonio at www.AntonioHoward.com, and watch the film at www.WQLN.org.

Soulful Sermons: "Gospel" Explores the Roots of Black Gospel Music

9 p.m. February 12-13 on WQLN PBS

Singers preach, preachers sing, and gospel music comes from deep in the soul. This two-part series from Henry Louis Gates, Jr., explores Black spirituality in sermons and songs, digging deep into the origin story of Black gospel music. Learn how gospel – a constant source of strength, courage, and wisdom – came out of slavery, blended with the blues, soared high during the Great Migration, and became a soundtrack of healing for those at the front lines of protest and change.

Imagination Unleashed: WQLN PBS KIDS Writers Contest Inspires!

The WQLN PBS KIDS Writers Contest nurtures young storytellers in grades K-5, promoting creativity and literacy. This annual contest encourages self-expression, celebrating imagination and the joy of storytelling. Participants embark on a literary adventure and have a chance to win prizes and be recognized at the WQLN PBS winners' reception! For contest details, call (814) 217-6015. Submissions are due by March 28, 2024.

Show Your Artistic Flair: WQLN PBS Art Show & Contest

Calling all artists in grades six through twelve! We're accepting painting submissions for the WQLN PBS Art Show and Contest until 5 p.m. on March 15, 2024. First, second, and third place ribbons will be awarded in grade-level categories: 6-8, 9-10, and 11-12. Find the rules and entry form at www.WQLN.org/ArtShow, or contact Jennifer at (814) 217-6015 or JAllen@WQLN.org. This program is supported in part by the Pennsylvania Council on the Arts by a grant administered locally by Erie Arts & Culture.

Be Amazed!

Wednesdays on WQLN PBS

Nature and NOVA come face to face with fantastic creatures and magnificent achievements. On February 7, thousands of shorebirds traverse massive ancient Flyways, and decades of engineering innovation culminate in Paris's sky-high Eiffel Tower. February 14, Sir David Attenborough investigates the prehistoric "Tyrannosaurus rex of the seas," and NOVA explores the REAL story of Easter Island. And February 21, a filmmaker and a sperm whale attempt communication, and gene hunters begin sequencing DNA from before the Ice Age. Our world is endlessly amazing. Don't miss a minute!

At times programs may change without notice. More detailed information and up-to-date schedules for WQLN PBS 54.1, Create 54.2, World 54.3, and 24/7 Kids 54.4 are available at www.WQLN.org.

Celebrating Love's Joyful Melodies

Shakespeare may have said it best in Act 1 of A Midsummer Night's Dream when the character Lysander states, "The course of true love never did run smooth." Good old William obviously had a way with words, but this February on "Classics with Brian Hannah," we let our hearts speak, not to the struggles of love but to the joys, frivolities, and moments that make our hearts sing. I'd love for you to join me for a month of beautiful music curated to make hearts flutter!

Love,
Brian Hannah

Dear Beloved,

As we approach the most romantic season of the year, I'd be remiss if I didn't acknowledge a very special group of family that holds a large piece of our hearts – sustaining members!

My heart swells with gratitude, knowing that we can rely on a steady flow of income to provide programs like "Morning Edition," "Masterpiece," and the STREAM Machine to EVERYONE in our community. In every triumph and challenge, your support guides WQLN PBS NPR through the storms and celebrates the victories.

Your trust is the cornerstone upon which our relationship flourishes. Your unwavering support ignites the spark that drives us to exceed expectations. We promise to always serve you in a way that makes you proud.

With love and gratitude,
Shannon Ferrare
