VISION: Ideastream Public Media is indispensable and highly valued for its unique ability to enrich our community.

MISSION: Ideastream Public Media is a trustworthy and dynamic multimedia source for illuminating the world around us.

LOCAL VALUE: Ideastream Public Media serves Northeast Ohioans by listening, understanding and fostering dialogues across the region. As Ohio’s largest independent, publicly supported media organization, it provides free programs and services to 3.6 million people in 22 counties across radio, TV and digital platforms. Our increased focus on digital content delivery ensures we are meeting the communities where they are, and when they need us. Ideastream is recognized locally and nationally as an innovative model for public media, distinguishing itself from other media entities through a deep and abiding dedication to community partnerships, civic engagement and innovative use of media. Through multimedia experiences, Ideastream engages with the community and tells local stories focused on news and information, arts and entertainment, classical and jazz music and education.

KEY SERVICES: Ideastream Public Media is Northeast Ohio’s multimedia source for trustworthy local journalism, inspiring stories and quality entertainment. We are the home of Northeast Ohio’s PBS, NPR and classical music public broadcasting stations: WVIZ, WKSU and WCLV. Ideastream manages The Ohio Channel, The Ohio Newsroom and the Ohio Public Radio and Television Statehouse News Bureau on behalf of all of Ohio’s public broadcasting stations. In addition, Ideastream is accessible online at ideastream.org, through HD-equipped radios, the Ideastream Public Media app, the NPR One app, the PBS app and on major social media and digital content platforms.
In Fiscal Year 2023, Ideastream Public Media ventured into the vibrant communities of our expanded 22-county service area. In the first year of our new strategic plan, Ideastream made great strides toward key goals: providing trustworthy news and information, spotlighting local arts and entertainment, catalyzing the appreciation of classical and jazz music and serving families with educational programming. As we explore the region via our radio, television and digital platforms, WE TAKE YOU THERE.

Our motivation? Our audience. We were dedicated to fostering a community built on fairness and understanding through diverse content and services. To do this, Ideastream expanded its community engagement efforts. We tapped into our members’ passion and partnered with local food banks and book banks to maximize the impact their support.

Ideastream’s Engaged Journalism team embodied the collaborative approach to news gathering. The team launched the award-winning podcast Living for We, where Black women discussed their experiences and more. Another engaged journalism initiative, Sound of Us, shared multimedia stories with people rather than just about people.

Our Sound of Ideas team hosted a lively panel discussion, convening hundreds of people at our community tour. Ideastream Education presented Be My Neighbor Day, complete with Daniel Tiger and Katerina Kity Cat. Likewise, our educators put on Family and Community Learning workshops, teaching caregivers how to support learning at home.

We engaged with audiences at cultural events throughout the region: Antiques Roadshow at Stan Hywet Hall and Gardens, PorchROKR in Akron and One World Day in Cleveland’s Cultural Gardens. We also shared statewide news and narratives with Today from The Ohio Newsroom, which takes listeners all over the state through in-depth, context-rich stories.

Whether we are reporting on local stories with regional relevance, featuring Northeast Ohio talent in Applause Performances, playing classical and jazz music or serving families through educational programming, Ideasteam makes this promise to you:

WE TAKE YOU THERE.

Kevin E. Martin
President and CEO

Sandra Kiely Kolb
Board Chair
When a Norfolk Southern train derailed in East Palestine, Ideastream reporters went to the site to deliver coverage of the disaster to residents and listeners in our 22-county service area. In the aftermath of the event, Ideastream reporters have continued reporting on the many impacts of this catastrophe.

A story examining rail safety in the aftermath of the derailment received over 16,000 PAGEVIEWS.

When I went to vote, after I turned my ticket in, I just felt different. I really just voiced my own opinion.

– Akron resident
EXPLORED HEALTH INEQUITY

In 2020, cityLAB of Pittsburgh released a study that ranked Cleveland dead last in terms of livability for Black women. The Living For We podcast featured Black women across education, the healthcare system, the workplace and more. The podcast explored the question: Is Cleveland really as bad as they say it is for Black women?

The entire series received over 130,000 DOWNLOADS.

EXAMINED FATAL POLICE SHOOTING

From the initial shooting death of 25-year-old Jayland Walker to public protests before and after the acquittal of officers involved in Walker’s death, Ideastream reporters logged many hours talking to community members, police officers, gun violence advocates and politicians as the story’s impact continued to unfold.

We’re ready to put pressure on the right people. We need answers.

— Akron resident
EXPANDED STATEWIDE NEWS

A window to the underreported, the unexplored and the meaningful accounts that make us all Ohioans, Today from The Ohio Newsroom shared stories that deepen our connections. These daily segments, which aired on public radio stations across Ohio, took listeners all over the state with the in-depth, context-rich news they deserve.

“
Well done, informative and fun to listen to. It is really nice to hear the local (to Ohio) pieces.
– Columbus resident

INVESTIGATED OHIO COLD CASE

The two sisters of college sweethearts Mary Petry and Bill Sproat never stopped hoping for answers in the couple’s 1970 double-homicide cold case. The Mary and Bill podcast investigated the case alongside the victims’ sisters and tried to piece together the night of the murders.

The series received over 162,000 DOWNLOADS.
ENGAGED JOURNALISM STORYTELLING BY OHIOANS

Identifying as a neurodivergent Black woman. Bonding over chair volleyball at a senior center. Resettling in Akron as a Congolese refugee. These are just some of the local experiences explored by our engaged journalism series, Sound of Us. Instead of telling stories about people, Sound of Us helped people tell their own stories.

Touched by this self-exploration.
– Instagram user

CONVENED COMMUNITY CONVERSATIONS

The Sound of Ideas hosted a community tour, which featured a panel discussion of Issue 1 on the ballot of the August 2023 special election. Experts and residents examined whether the threshold for citizens to amend the state constitution should be 60% of the vote rather than the current simple majority.

The free event reached full registration, filling a 400-SEAT auditorium.
The sold-out Antiques Roadshow event was attended by approximately 4,500 PEOPLE.

In June 2023, Antiques Roadshow and Ideastream Public Media filmed three episodes at the beautiful Stan Hywet Hall and Gardens in Akron. Fans traveled from all over the country with their treasures to get their items appraised. One fantastic find was valued up to $375,000! The episodes will premiere on WVIZ in spring 2024.

ELEVATED NORTHEAST OHIO MUSICIANS

Shuffle served as a backstage pass to our local independent music scene through interviews with artists who live and make music in Ohio. Fresh episodes were posted twice each month, and the interviews were shared with listeners on WKSU.

“
The show was edited so beautifully. You guys rock!
– Facebook user
SHARED LOCAL ART AND MUSIC

Applause featured arts and cultural offerings throughout Northeast Ohio. From concerts at The Cleveland Orchestra to new art exhibits Applause highlighted them all. And, Applause Performances invited audiences to participate in intimate performances and interviews by some of the region’s most talented musicians.

I’m grateful for the support. Thank you for a fantastic interview experience!

— Ngina Fayola, musician

SHOWCASED AKRON MUSIC EVENT

This year, Ideastream was delighted to partner with PorchROKR in Akron’s Highland Square neighborhood. Ideastream hosts introduced bands to the main stage and provided activities for the whole family. Our participation reiterated Ideastream’s focused involvement in the community.

The popular music event was attended by approximately 25,000 people.
WE TAKE YOU TO: Timeless classical & jazz

CELEBRATED 60 YEARS ON-AIR

Though many other classical music stations have left the airwaves, WCLV has maintained its format and flavor since 1962. Co-founded and guided over the decades by Robert Conrad, WCLV has consistently brought listeners engaging classical programming from local, national and international musicians and institutions.

Congratulations on 60 years. You are the diamond in the Cleveland radio landscape.

– Facebook user

FEATURED YOUNG ARTISTS

The Cleveland International Piano Competition for Young Artists presented classical piano performances from Cleveland youth as well as competitors from around the world. Only the best emerging pianists were selected to compete for a chance to play with The Cleveland Orchestra and win a cash prize.

The competition featured 32 CONTESTANTS selected from 217 APPLICANTS.
SHOWCASED LOCAL MUSICIANS

Ovations showcased the breadth and depth of musical talent in Northeast Ohio through weekly Wednesday night broadcasts that featured performances by musicians who live and work in our community. The WCLV-produced program’s diverse repertoire ranged from early music to contemporary classical and jazz.

The most popular episode presented Storms and Tempests by Apollo’s Fire.

CELEBRATED WOMEN IN MUSIC

Though perhaps overshadowed by famous brothers, husbands or fathers, Fanny Mendelssohn, Clara Schumann and Mary Rodgers were talented composers in their own right. WCLV highlighted diversity on Women’s Equality Day and throughout the year, bucking the narrative that all composers are old, white and male.

39 PIECES of music by women were broadcast on Women’s Equality Day.
Season 53 of NewsDepth received over 97,000 STREAMS.

Children are naturally curious about the world, but navigating current events can present a challenge when many young people report trouble differentiating fake news stories from real ones. NewsDepth aimed to create a safe space for child-friendly news around current events to teach Ohio history, science, civic engagement and career exploration.

Enriching education

Resources

CONNECTED YOUTH WITH IN-DEMAND JOBS

Ideastream was awarded a grant to participate in American Graduate: Jobs Explained. Through TikTok and Instagram, Ideastream focused on shipping jobs with career advancement opportunities, hands-on training and livable wages.

Ideastream’s American Graduate TikTok account, @shippingjobs_explained, received approximately 27,000 VIEWS.
ACCELERATED STUDENT LEARNING

The Ohio Learns 360 initiative was developed to address disruptions in learning caused by the COVID-19 pandemic. Ideastream worked to leverage PBS KIDS resources to develop a suite of Ohio standards-aligned tools families could use outside of school to help promote learning.

55 EDUCATORS completed Camp-in-a-Box training and received a Camp-in-a-Box kit.

HOSTED LEARNING OPPORTUNITIES

When a child engages with PBS KIDS content alongside a parent or caregiver, their learning gains increase. The Family and Community Learning workshops offered at two Akron Public Library branches equipped families with the tools and confidence to build early literacy and STEM skills through PBS KIDS content.

Thank you for your hard work. Kids love everything from the story, craft, apps and games.
