ACTIVITY

MAKE A KIDS CALENDAR

Using a blank calendar grid help your child create their own calendar. Then, invite your child to decorate the day squares using art supplies. TIP: Encourage your child to draw pictures for every month and tape the pictures onto the calendar.

BAKE SPICED OATMEAL MUFFINS

Sharing food is one way family and friends show that they care for each other. This easy recipe is a great way to introduce your kids to following directions.
TIP: Muffins make a great after school snack!

PLAY PRETEND

Playing pretend helps children develop compassion towards others. Playing pretend with a stuffed animal or baby doll helps them practice taking care of others.

PLAY OUTDOOR I SPY USING YOUR SENSES

Take the classic game of "I Spy" outdoors and encourage your child to spot things using only their senses. TIP: Heighten their senses by blindfolding them and touching objects found in nature.

FAMILY TIME

DIY FUN TIME SPINNERS

Combat boredom with these easy spinners! Think of different family activities and create a DIY spinner using paper plates and art supplies to have a great family night.

CREATURE POWER BACKYARD GAMES

Balance on a broomstick, jump over a bucket, crawl under some chairs, and imagine you're a turtle using a laundry basket as your shell, these are some easy ways to create a backyard obstacle course.

PLAY THE GOOD SPORT GAME

Role play by having your child comfort a stuffy because they feed bad, Then play a game where everyone in the family tosses a bean bag to each other. When someone drops the bean bag, encourage your child to compliment them.

HOST A FAMILY NATURE SCAVENGER HUNT

Send your family into the backyard to search for textures and items found in nature.
