9:00pm	Engineering Tragedy: The Ashtabula Train Disaster
	On December 29, 1876, the flawed Ashtabula Bridge collapsed during a raging blizzard and brought down train #5, the Pacific Express. The horrible crash and fire that killed 95 and injured 75 was the "Titanic" of its day and became the backdrop for a national debate between public safety and the relationship between big business, government, and the public.
