Pride Month

June | 9AM-3PM | 90.5 FM

June marks Pride Month, an important one for many in the LGBTQ community as it can provide an opportunity to reconnect with celebrating this affirmation of self, which many times throughout history has been viewed of as 'less-than.' During Pride Month on 90.5 Classical, hear stories from across the centuries of LGBTQ composers and musicians.

Featured are Jean-Baptiste Lully, who was fired from the court of Louis the 14th when he took a very devout wife; or composer Dame Ethyl Smyth who was jailed for her suffragette activities but conducted a choir of her fellow activists with a toothbrush through the bars of her jail cell; or composer Angela Morley, who in the 1970's was the first openly trans Academy Award nominee.

Also included is WKAR's own classical host Jamie Paisley who took solace in learning about gay composer Samuel Barber, who grew up just a few towns away from his rural Pennsylvania home. We hope to shine a light on these stories of LGBTQ.
