ON THE COVER

Pati's Mexican Table, Season 15

PATI'S MEXICAN TABLE Season 15 takes viewers to Coahuila, a state in northern Mexico to explore its rich culture. It is a land of dramatic contrasts – vast cattle ranches where charros still ride with pride and ancient gypsum dunes that shimmer white against the desert sky. This season, Pati visits the Americas' first winery, Casa Madero, where vineyards have thrived for over four centuries in an oasis surrounded by desert. Viewers are then introduced to the women who climb Viesca's towering date palms – a tradition that stretches back nearly 300 years. Along her journey, Pati also tries pink pine nuts gathered from the Sierra, breads sweetened with piloncillo, and meats grilled over open flames the way nortenos have cooked for generations. This is a place where history runs deep, where vaquero traditions gave birth to cowboy culture, and where the food tells the story of a resilient, generous people.

UNDERWRITER
SPOTLIGHT

"Underwriting with KRWG Public Media has been a great investment for our business. The pricing fit our budget, and KRWG's listener demographics and broad broadcast range helped us reach the right audience throughout the region. Most importantly, we have gained new clients as a direct result of underwriting with KRWG. We appreciate their ability to provide effective, affordable exposure for our business."

- Monica Kekuewa
