Thank you, thank you, thank you!

Our All Cars Considered Vehicle Donation Campaign Powered by Lee! rounded the final turn and came across the finish line in style! While we are still collecting the final numbers of this September and October vehicle donation push, it’s clear that the response from our audience has been exceptional. Our listeners and viewers have been super generous by donating nearly 200 cars and trucks to Maine Public during the campaign. And... we’ve also seen a really interesting first! We received a 1973 Blue Bird school bus! (If it has four wheels, we’ll gladly take it!)

We do accept vehicle donations year-round, so if you happen to have a 1973 Blue Bird school bus lying about your property or something smaller that you just don’t need anymore, consider donating it to Maine Public. EVERY car and truck we receive helps support the programming we broadcast across the state every day.

A big THANK YOU to the team at Lee Auto Mall for helping support Maine Public in this unique way. And remember, if you have a Lee $500 Reward, you must use it in this calendar year. Go to mainepublic.org for any vehicle donation questions you might have. Thank you!

Jenniffer from Bristol for donating your 2008 Toyota Prius to Maine Public! Do you have a Prius or hybrid vehicle that you can’t use, but still has plenty of life in it? Please consider donating to Maine Public. It’s easy and there is no cost to you – just call 877-672-6644 to learn more. Donated cars make it possible for us to do more here at your station!

2021 marks the 50th anniversary of unforgettable Masterpiece programs airing on Maine Public Television, and we want to hear from you! What is your favorite Masterpiece program of all time?

“\textit{I have enjoyed so many Masterpiece Theatre presentations that it is difficult to choose just one. From Upstairs Downstairs and The Flame Trees of Thika to The Forsyte Saga, Poldark and Victoria,} Sunday night has been my stay at home, do not disturb evening with PBS. Inspector Lynley, Inspector Morse, and Miss Marple have kept me on the edge of my seat, as has the talented Helen Mirren as Jane Tennison. However, Downton Abbey was my ultimate Masterpiece series. Set in one of history’s most interesting times and England’s beautiful location this period drama was pure joy with a butler’s wisdom, a housekeeper’s common sense along with spurts of dowager wit and colorful characters who evolved as the series continued. Loved it!”

Maine Jewish Film Festival is Virtual this Month!

The Maine Jewish Film Festival is holding its first virtual festival from November 7th through the 22nd and Maine Public is very pleased to be a media sponsor. Featuring 16 feature and documentary films and related programs, the 2021 virtual MJFF will provide Maine audiences with a high-quality entertainment experience without leaving the comfort of their homes.

Now in its 23rd year, the Festival’s vision is that great films unite us in increasing communication and understanding. MJFF films offer fresh perspectives on familiar icons and illuminate the lives of hidden heroes. Maine Public Members receive a discount to the festival. Go to mainepublic.org for all the details!

All Books Considered Book Club Notes

Did you have a chance to attend our Landslide book club meeting with author Susan Conley and Maine Public’s Jennifer Rooks in September? It turned out to be one of our liveliest book club meetings to date with some really insightful questions from club members! We’ve archived it on our website, mainepublic.org, along with our previous book club events.

Next up is The Lowering Days by Gregory Brown, a debut novel the Boston Globe called “graceful and compassionate” and “a flashlight into the heart of a small Maine community perched on the precipice of the Penobscot River, its future and its past.” This book club event will take place in late November and will be hosted by Cindy Han.

Need a copy of The Lowering Days? Consider picking one up at a Sherman’s Coast Book Shops location, BookStacks in Bucksport, Print in Portland, Left Bank Books in Belfast, DDG Booksellers in Farmington, and any Bull Moose location. They are ready to help.

Thanks goes out to Bull Moose and Birchbrook for their ongoing support of our book club!

Happy reading!

Help Us Tell Maine’s Story!

Maine Public is celebrating 60 years of telling Maine’s story and you are invited to join the celebration! On November 16, Maine Public’s 60th Anniversary Membership Drive begins. This is your opportunity to celebrate 60 years of service by investing in the next 60 years of fact-based news and accessible education for Maine. You can make your donation early by visiting MainePublic.org/donate. Thank you!

Elvis and the USS Arizona airs Thursday, November 11, at 9:00 p.m. In 1961, Elvis Presley, just out of the U. S. Army, put on a concert in Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, to help raise funds to build the memorial to the USS Arizona and the 1,177 men who perished with it.
MAINE PUBLIC IS PROUD TO BE MAINE’S storyteller, amplifying the stories and voices of Maine for the last 60 years. It’s essential work that we are proud to do because we know how important it is for you to be connected with your community, Maine, and the world around us.

When this service launched in 1961, the goal was to bring a new kind of broadcasting service to Maine – one that was as innovative as it was trustworthy, a service that would inform, inspire, and educate our communities. Now six decades later, Maine Public is leading the charge to share Maine’s stories in new and revitalized ways.

Starting this month, we are going to celebrate Maine Public’s 60 years of storytelling and service and you are our partner in this. We’ll be sharing stories from our past and look to our future on radio, television, and online for an entire year. We intend to have some fun and provide you with some 60th Anniversary surprises along the way!

What’s in store for you?

- Maine Public Rewind: 60 Years of Telling Maine’s Story. A special documentary on Maine Public showcasing our last 60 years of storytelling and service. You’ll see some of the programs you loved way back when, how Maine Public evolved from its early beginnings, and how telling Maine’s story today is more important than ever. This special program will air on November 11 and November 16 at 8:00 p.m., and November 12 at 2:30 p.m. on Maine Public Television.

- From the Vault Television Series. From “Made in Maine” to “Woods and Waters,” Down East humor to traditional music, Maine Public Television has brought you the stories, people, places, history and arts of our region for the past 60 years. Each week, we will delve into the archives and bring out a selection of old favorites or long forgotten gems. From the Vault will air Sunday evenings at 7:00 each week starting this month and will also be rebroadcasted at 9:00 p.m. on Thursdays.

- My Maine Public Story. We want to know what stories you’ve heard on Maine Public Radio or watched on Maine Public Television that have stuck with you. Was the story or show impactful? Did it make you laugh or cry? Did you learn something new? Tell us why your “Maine Public story” was memorable. Your response may be used in an upcoming story, on-air or online, and a producer may contact you to follow up on your response. Share your thoughts with us on our website, mainepublic.org, by emailing us at mainepublic60th@mainepublic.org, or by writing to us at Maine Public’s 60th, Maine Public, 1450 Lisbon Street, Lewiston, Maine, 04240.

- 60 for 60. Over the course of our celebration, we will share here in the pages of Experience magazine and online some little known, but fascinating facts about Maine Public… Did you know that in 1962 the newly formed Maine Educational Television (Maine ETV) replaced the athletic equipment in Alumni Hall Women’s Gym on the campus of the University of Maine with television cameras and microphones to create our first actual studio? Or that Maine Public’s WMEA FM antenna is located on a 1,300-foot-tall tower in Sebago, Maine? That’s higher than the Eiffel Tower which comes in at a whopping 1,063 feet from its base to the very top.

This is a team effort. Our celebration is yours! We’re here for you today because you’ve been there for Maine Public for 60 years, watching, listening, and enjoying the stories that we have shared. Happy 60th to the Maine Public Community!
The Timer Is Still Ticking in our Dash of Maine Cooking Challenge!

We’ve had a lot of fun this past month with our Dash of Maine “Masterpiece” Cooking Challenge with some wonderful submitted recipes (Creamed Spinach with Maine Sea Scallops, Black Bean Brownies, and Lobster Sauce for Eggs Benedict) and some really inventive stories connecting the recipes with Masterpiece characters. For example, Carolyne Sauda submitted an exceptional Gnocchi Aubergine recipe. Our culinary judge Chef Stephen Corry, pictured, called it “Brilliant! The epitome of Italian cuisine. Love the use of local ingredients as well. Nicely done!” And her Masterpiece story was, according to Susan Tran, our Director of Content and Programming Operations, exceptional. Carolyne wrote, “I made up this particular recipe to serve Mrs. Alison Wilson (from the wonderful Masterpiece series, ‘Mrs. Wilson’). As a comforting bowl of goodness, this will help remind her of the joy of family meals and comfort her throughout her trials and tribulations.”

Do you have a killer recipe that you’d like to share and a Masterpiece character in mind who might particularly enjoy it? There is still time to enter! Go to mainepublic.org for all the details on our Dash of Maine “Masterpiece” Cooking Challenge.

HUGE THANKS to the Maine Department of Agriculture, Conservation and Forestry, HM Payson, The Park Danforth and Southern Maine Community College for their support of this very special culinary contest.

Maine Public Passport

Since 2015, Maine Public Passport has extended access to your favorite public media shows. With many high quality, informative, and entertaining programs, Passport offers a great alternative or addition to other on-demand viewing services.

And NEW this fall… Passport is now doubling the number of shows available to stream!

Over the next year, more of the best lifestyle, public affairs, history, and drama programs will be released. Don’t miss fan favorites like America’s Test Kitchen from Cook’s Illustrated, Pati’s Mexican Table, and Rick Steves’ Europe Awaits as well as Muhammad Ali, a new documentary series from Ken Burns. Fans of drama and mystery will enjoy brilliant all-new seasons of Call the Midwife, Masterpiece’s Grantchester, and Frankie Drake Mysteries.

All these and more are available now on Maine Public Passport – whenever and wherever you want to watch! Activate your Passport subscription at mainepublic.org/passport for just $5/month or $60/year. If you already donate and have yet to activate your subscription, visit the Questions section of mainepublic.org/passport or call Member Services at 1-800-884-1717 ext. 1201. Where will you take your Maine Public Passport this winter?

Maine’s Changing Climate: A 16-County Deep Dive by the Maine Public News Team

Beginning this November, Maine Public reporters will travel to each of Maine’s sixteen counties and explore how residents are preparing, responding, and reckoning with the rapid transformational shifts of climate change. This year-long project will begin in York County and continue around the state, ending in Cumberland County by November of 2022.

Our coverage will include climate-focused news stories, special climate change programming on Maine Calling, a dedicated landing page on mainepublic.org to store all our Deep Dive stories, and an intentional push of all of our Deep Dive reporting over Maine Public’s social media platforms and digital and print properties. This is an important and exciting endeavor, and we hope that you have the opportunity to follow these special news segments as we learn together how Maine is adapting to our changing climate.

Painting Programs
Weekdays at 7:30 am & 1:30 pm
The popular how-to channel Create, has something for everyone: food, travel, home and garden, and arts and crafts. Artists, and those who aspire to be, will find inspiration with a variety of painting programs twice a day, weekdays. Viewers can pick up a brush and follow Paint This with Jerry Yarnell (Mondays and Fridays), and Painting and Travel with Roger and Sarah Bansemer (Tuesdays) (pictured), as the couple travels across the U.S., the Caribbean and Mexico to paint in natural surroundings while teaching the basics of putting brush to canvas using oils or acrylics. Painting with Wilson Bickford airs on Wednesdays, and Painting with Paulson on Thursdays.

Connected: A Search for Unity
November 23, 24, 25 at 2:00 & 3:00 pm
Over six episodes, a unique series demonstrates the importance of looking at the world through a different lens. In Connected: A Search for Unity on the World channel, Monty Moran, CEO of Chipotle Mexican Grill, travels across the country and into Canada to speak with and share the stories of a range of individuals. He gathers new perspectives on life, culture, the environment and more. On November 25, he visits Port Clyde, Maine (pictured). Despite being difficult and often thankless work, for over a century the residents of this idyllic fishing village have followed their ancestors footsteps and answered the call of the sea.
