The American Buffalo

Monday-Tuesday, October 16-17, 8:00 pm

The biography of an improbable, shaggy beast that has found itself at the center of many of the country's most mythic and heartbreaking tales is found in a new series by Ken Burns. The American Buffalo takes viewers on a journey through more than 10,000 years of North American history tracing the mam-mal's evolution, its significance to the Great Plains, near demise, and, most importantly, its relationship to the Indigenous People of North America. The stories of Native people anchor the series, which includes interviews with leading Native American scholars, land experts and Tribal Nation members.

The series documents the startling swiftness of the species' near extinction in the late 19th century. Numbering an estimated 30 million in the early 1800s, by 1900, the American buffalo teetered on the brink of disappearing forever, and the Native people of the Plains entered one of the most traumatic moments of their existence. But the other, lesser-known part of this story, told in the film's second episode, is about the people who set out to save the species from extermination and how they did it. Book Club Final Stretch for 2023!

We are fast approaching our final two book selections for our 2023 season of the All Books Considered Book Club! We are definitely going out in style! Next up is our October selection It Goes. So. Fast. The Year of No Do-Overs by Mary Louise Kelly. About this title, Katie Couric observed that “Mary Louise Kelly has written an achingly honest memoir that reflects the joys, regrets, pitfalls and triumphs of the modern working mother. Humor, heart, and humanity bounce off every. single. page.” It is definitely a fascinating read. This book club event will be hosted by Bill Nemitz (pictured) and will be held on Thursday, October 12, at 7:00 p.m.

Following quickly behind is our November book club selection This Other Eden by Paul Harding. Of this title, The New York Times reported that “Not without complication, not without terror, ‘This Other Eden’ is ultimately a testament of love: love of kin, love of nature, love of art, love of self, love of home. Harding has written a novel out of poetry and sunlight, violent history and tender remembering. The humans he has created are, thankfully, not flattened into props and gimmicks, which sometimes happens when writers work across time and difference; instead they pulse with aliveness, dreamlike but tangible, so real it could make you weep.”

A very special THANK YOU to our two book club sponsors who make our events possible: Bull Moose and Coffee by Design. ■

In the Spotlight!

Ignite your child’s imagination with Pinkalicious & Peterrific from PBS Kids. Designed to encourage preschool-age children to explore the arts and develop their creativity, the animated series follows the adventures of Pinkalicious and her brother Peter as they imagine how the world looks through her artful eye. Each episode consists of two 11-minute stories, including a live-action segment and an original song.

All PBS Kids Programming on Maine Public is available for FREE over-the-air across Maine on both Maine Public Television and the PBS 24/7 Kids Channel and can be streamed online for FREE on mainepublic.org. The access to this important educational content is made possible by Maine Public’s membership and by the community-focused teams at the Maine WIC Nutrition Program and McSea Books. Thank you! ■

Maine Public’s Fa-BOO-lous Vehicle Donation Drive with LEE is Speeding Along!

People are often surprised what a difference a vehicle donated to Maine Public can make. It does! As a non-profit, we rely on the support of our members and oftentimes that support comes in the form of a vehicle that is no longer needed or a car or truck that has seen significantly better days! We take them all! This fall we are teaming up with the folks at Lee Auto Malls in a Halloween-themed vehicle drive that really isn’t all that scary... just a pretty good deal if you are looking to change vehicles and purchase a new or really good used car or truck.

By donating an unneeded vehicle to Maine Public this October, you’ll receive a $1,000 LEE Reward good toward the purchase of a new or used car or truck at ANY Lee Auto Malls location through the end of 2023! That’s a good deal! We’ll also tow your vehicle away for FREE and, as an extra perk, you may get a tax deduction in the process. Thanks to the team at Lee for supporting Maine Public in this way – if you are in the market to upgrade your wheels, this could be the best Halloween treat ever! ■

In Ancient Earth, beginning Wednesday, October 4, at 9:00 p.m., NOVA looks at the dramatic history of our planet, from its birth to the emergence of humanity. The series dives into the most dramatic events in Earth's 4.5-billion-year history, explaining how a hellscape of molten lava transformed into a lush, green, watery planet filled with life. Each of the five episodes explores long-lost worlds that ultimately led to the one we know today. ■

It's a Night of Season Premieres on Sunday, October 15!

Hotel Portofino – 8:00 pm | THIS GLAMOROUS PERIOD DRAMA is set in the beautiful Italian seaside town of Portofino. Season 2 begins in the summer of 1927 as Bella Ainsworth is still devoting all her energy into making Hotel Portofino a success. Having overcome earlier blackmailing threats from a local politician, the hotel is finally starting to prosper. Aside from her hotel duties, Bella is also concerned for her children – Lucian, whose marriage to Rose might be facing trouble, and Alice, who needs a break from her life at the hotel. With her husband Cecil's unannounced return to Portofino, the messy private lives of her children, and an imminent visit from a travel guide that could make or break the hotel's future, Bella has her work cut out to keep all the plates spinning.

World on Fire on Masterpiece – 9:00 pm | THE EPIC WWII DRAMA continues the emotionally gripping story that follows the intertwining fates of ordinary people in five countries as they grapple with the effects of the war on their everyday lives. In Season 2, RAF pilots are sent to destroy German bombers prowling the skies above Manchester while rescue operations are underway on the streets below. The story moves from Britain into occupied France, Nazi Germany, and to the sands of the North African desert. Returning cast members include Jonah Hauer-King as Harry, an idealistic British army officer; Zofia Wichlacz as Polish resistance fighter Kasia; Lesley Manville as Robina, a British fascist sympathizer who is sheltering a young refugee; and Helen Hunt as Nancy, an American broadcaster reporting from Warsaw and Berlin.

Annika on Masterpiece – 10:00 pm | NICOLA WALKER IS BACK as DI Annika Strandhed, the speedboat-driving head of Glasgow's Marine Homicide Unit. A police procedural with wit, Season 2 finds Annika and the team solving more murders that wash up from Scotland's waters. Juggling enigmatic cases while trying to raise her rebellious teenage daughter, Morgan, the detective drops literary references linking the crime at hand to plots in classic books. And, unlike other TV detectives who discuss the case exclusively with their team, Annika addresses viewers directly, "breaking the fourth wall" that separates the action from the audience. Also appearing are Jamie Sives as DS Michael McAndrews, and Paul McGann as Morgan's therapist Jake Strathearn, who develops into something of a soul mate for single mom Annika. ■
