Black and Jewish America: An Interwoven History

Tuesday, February 3
9 p.m. on CPTV

A four-part series tracing the rich, complex relationship between Black and Jewish Americans — defined by solidarity and strained by division. Drawn together by racism and antisemitism, they forged civic and cultural bonds, especially during the civil rights era.

Nature: Parenthood

Wednesday, February 4
8 p.m. on CPTV

This five-part natural history series, narrated by David Attenborough, explores the extraordinary strategies and ingenious tricks that animal parents employ to give their young a head start in life. Parenthood is an adventure — and our cameras are there to capture every gripping moment.

NOVA: Can Dogs Talk?

Wednesday, February 4
9 p.m. on CPTV

Imagine a world where your furry best friend could tell you exactly what they're thinking. A growing number of dog owners claim this is already happening, thanks to innovative word buttons that seem to unlock a new realm of canine communication. But are these dogs truly understanding what we're saying — and talking back?

The Librarians

Premieres Monday, February 9 at 11 p.m.

When Texas lawmakers seek to review a list of books, librarians find themselves on the frontlines of a national battle. Drawing on historical context, The Librarians explores the broader implications for education in public life.
