Maine Public Classical Celebrates Its 5th Year Anniversary!
Five Years of Exceptional Classical Programming on Maine Public Classical!

Five years ago this May, Maine Public launched an entirely new radio service called Maine Public Classical with the expectation of sharpening Maine Public’s cultural focus and providing our audience with the robust classical programming that our listeners and members had requested for years. Envisioned also as the home for opera, jazz, and specialty musical programs and performances, the new radio service initially launched over just a few signals and today is broadcast over seven frequencies across much of Maine and streamed online from Maine Public’s website.

Reaching this significant milestone would not have been possible without individuals, foundations, and businesses across Maine recognizing the value of the arts and how important access to cultural programming can be. One such individual is John Wasileski and his team at OceanView at Falmouth who continue to support Maine Public’s efforts in the arts as the Premier Sponsor of Maine Public Classical.

We are celebrating this anniversary all this month on both Maine Public Classical and Maine Public Radio by airing short messages from our staff and some of our long-time listeners sharing what Maine Public Classical has meant to them. We want to hear from you, too!

What has Maine Public Classical meant to you?
What is your Maine Public Classical MOMENT?

Send us a brief note to music@mainepublic.org or write to us at Music, Maine Public, 1450 Lisbon Street, Lewiston, Maine 04240 and share a story or two of why classical music is an important fixture in your life. We will share many of the submissions with our audience in a variety of ways over the course of May.

Thank you to everyone who has made Maine Public Classical possible, supported the service, and tune in each week. The future remains very bright for Maine Public Classical, the home for classical music in Maine.

Uncle Vanya
Friday, May 7, 9:00 pm

Tony Award nominee Conor McPherson breathes new life into Anton Chekhov’s masterpiece with his acclaimed adaptation of Uncle Vanya. The drama portrays life at the turn of the 20th century filled with tumultuous frustration, dark humor and hidden passions. It was recorded in August 2020 and stars Toby Jones in the title role and Richard Armitage as Astrov. The cast also features Rosalind Eleazar as Yelena and Roger Allam as Serebryakov. The story begins as Sonya and her Uncle Vanya throw their lives into maintaining the crumbling family estate occasionally visited by the radical and inspiring local doctor Astrov. However, when Sonya’s father, Professor Serebryakov, suddenly returns with his restless, alluring new wife, Yelena, long-hidden truths begin to emerge. (Photo: Johan Persson.)

2021 marks the 50th anniversary of unforgettable Masterpiece programs airing on Maine Public Television, and we want to hear from you! What is your favorite Masterpiece program of all time?

“Being a detective story addictive, it is so difficult to choose between Prime Suspect and Inspector Morse. Then I have to choose between Helen Mirren and John Thaw. Oh, dear! What a choice! But Helen gets the nod by a bare shake of my head for my favourite Masterpiece series. Thank you for all the pleasure I get from many Maine PBS programs I watch in my home in Nova Scotia as well as Masterpiece, such as NewsHour every night.”

— Mel Parsons

When I was in high school, I watched The Six Wives of Henry the Eighth, religiously with my Mom. Those shows were the catalyst to my love of English and European history. I wish I could watch it again. It would bring my Mom back to me for a while. We would talk about what happened for a week until the next episode.

— Claire Preece

My all time favorite program was Cadfael starring Derek Jacobi back in the ‘90s. There was something about the knowledge of the world and understanding of humankind of this soldier turned monk that resonated deeply for me. Plus, I greatly enjoy history, especially the Medieval period. I find it fascinating to get a sense of what life was like back in that time, and I know I can count on PBS to do the research to make its programming as authentic as possible.

— Don Osier
