Saturday, December 25 ~ 9:00am CT ~ “Cantigas de Santa Maria”
- Las Cantigas de Santa Maria explores the songs and poems dedicated to the Virgin Mary produced by Debra Bolton, former program director of HPPR. The musical journey focuses on the reign of King Alfonso X of 13th-century Castile-Leon, now Spain. Alfonso "The Wise" wrote more than 420 songs for performance in his court and across his kingdom, in order to teach morality and "secure his place in the kingdom of heaven."
- Bolton says she became interested in King Alfonso when she learned that he was a pluralist, honoring Christians, Jewish and Muslim on equitable footings because he was more interested in studying and learning from great thinkers than practicing exclusions of certain peoples living in his kingdom.
- "At its core, this show is a musical biography of King Alfonso X," Bolton said. "One can infer what points of concern that the good king was facing based on the stories of the musical poems."
- Bolton also posts her narrative, playlist, and photos on her blog.

Saturday, December 25 ~ 11:00am CT ~ “American Routes—Winter Holiday: Solstice, Hanukkah, Xmas & Kwanzaa”
- It’s that time of year, when the days are shorter and the nights are colder. Warm up to our sounds for the season. Classic songs to celebrate the winter holidays plus a visit to South Louisiana’s Christmas Eve bonfires lighting the way for Papa Noel along the Mississippi River.

Saturday, December 25 ~ 2:00pm CT ~ “A '40s Radio Christmas”
- Christmas programs on the radio in the 1940's ranged from variety shows, to dramas, to comedies... all of them, containing a generous portion of music, from swing, to sentimental, to religious. The decade of the 40's represents three distinct periods... continued recovery from the depression, America's entry into World War Two, and the beginning of the cold war. This was the last decade before the advent of television, and many radio performers of the 40's became household names to early television viewers. Produced by Wes Sims.

Saturday, December 25 ~ 3:00pm CT ~ “A Christmas Gift For You”
- The inside story behind this 1963 album featuring performances by The Ronettes, The Crystals, Darlene Love and Bob B. Soxx and the Blue Jeans that raised the bar for pop/rock arrangements of classic holiday songs. The All Music Guide says, “This is the Christmas album by which all later holiday releases had to be judged,” and Rolling Stone lists it as one of the best albums ever made. Includes interviews with singers Darlene Love and LaLa Brooks, musicians Nino Tempo, Don Randi and Hal Blaine.

Saturday, December 25 ~ 5:00pm CT ~ “A Mexican Baroque Christmas with the Rose Ensemble”
- This holiday program features over two centuries of festive Christmas dances and songs from the great cathedrals of Puebla and Mexico City. With rich instrumental and percussive accompaniment, solos and choruses burst forth in this program that's a far cry from the same old Christmas show. Expect a couple of surprises for the season in this one hour production. The music is all rhythmic and tuneful and totally appealing.
Saturday, December 25 ~ 6:00pm CT ~ “A Cowboy Christmas”
- A Cowboy Christmas celebrates the holiday with memories, music, and poetry of people who live and work in the isolation of America's outback. Some of the stories and songs are family traditions passed down through the generations while others are new works inspired by Christmas on the lonely range. This program features poets Baxter Black, Waddie Mitchell, and Native American singer and comedian Vincent Craig.

Saturday, December 25 ~ 7:00pm CT ~ “A Celtic Christmas”
- Tomáseen Foley's A Celtic Christmas recreates the joy and innocence of a night before Christmas in a farmhouse in the remote parish of Teampall an Ghleannain in the west of Ireland, when the neighbors gather around the fire to grace the long wintry night with the laughter of their stories, the joy of their music, and dances they always said they were much too old for.

Saturday, December 25 ~ 8:00pm CT ~ “Santa’s Greatest Hits”

Saturday, December 25 ~ 9:00pm CT ~ “Juke in the Back: R&B Christmas”
- The entire “Juke In The Back” is loaded with the greatest R&B Christmas records from the late 1940s and 1950s. It's the yuletide soul that came before rock n' roll. From the all-time classics by Clyde McPhatter & The Drifters and The Orioles to some rarer Christmas plattahs from Amos Milburn, JB Summers and The Five Keys. So grab some 'nog and get groovin'!
