IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF ARIZONA
IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF MARICOPA

THE STATE OF ARIZONA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

LUIS RICARDO VASQUEZ, JR,
aka LUIS R VASQUEZ, JR
aka LUIS VASQUEZ
aka LUIS RICARDO VASQUEZ

Defendant.

CR2026-132642-002

STATE'S RESPONSE TO DEFENDANT'S
MOTION TO REDETERMINE CONDITIONS OF RELEASE

(Assigned to the Honorable Sigmund G Popko, Div. CMC06)

The State of Arizona, through undersigned counsel, opposes Defendant's motion to modify defendant's conditions of release. All three victims in this case object to allowing defendant Vasquez to travel to California. Because of this defendant's actions, the victims are constantly in fear for their safety. The victims have suffered from nightmares and anxiety. Every time they see a police vehicle, they are afraid. The victims have expressed that if something happens to them, they don't know what to do anymore because they are afraid to call the police for help. Furthermore, the defendant's pretrial monitor, Avangelina Rogut, with the Adult Probation Department has indicated that although they can monitor a person if they leave the State, there is nothing they can do if the person doesn't comply with any of the conditions of their probation.

Allowing this defendant to leave the State would cause the victims even more anxiety and fear for their safety since they will not know where he is and what he is doing. In essence, allowing the defendant to travel outside of AZ is akin to removing his Electronic Monitoring since PTS would have no ability to enforce any of the terms of release.

For all of these reasons, the State opposes Defendant's release and requests that the court deny the motion.
