to creating exceptional opportunities for the communities it serves to engage with critical issues, compelling stories, and quality entertainment. Formed in 1992, Maine Public is an independently owned and operated nonprofit organization. Maine Public has administrative offices and production facilities for television, radio and web services in Lewiston, Bangor, Augusta, and Portland. The station's transmitters and translators, located throughout the state, deliver programs to nearly all of Maine's citizens.

Form 990, Part III, Line 1, Description of Organization Mission:

Broadcasting Service (PBS), National Public Radio (NPR), and other independent producers.

Form 990, Part III, Line 2, New Program Services:

Maine Public launched seven new FM stations which extended Maine Public programming and Emergency Alert System (EAS) capacity to regions around Bethel, Millinocket, Moosehead Lake, and Aroostook and Washington Counties.

This FM expansion provides better EAS coverage to underserved areas of Maine and is another significant step in localizing EAS messages. One of Maine Public's long-term goals is to provide EAS messages at a more local level than the statewide blanketing as is done today.

A second goal in Maine Public's mission is to provide signals to places and people that we do not reach. We strive to deliver our signals to all Maine citizens, regardless of where they live and these new signals went a long way towards that goal.

Additionally, during this period, we added new local programming to Maine Public Classical, engaged communities across Maine with a news department "listening tour" to see what stories and issues are most relevant to Mainers in different areas of the state, and improved our Maine Public App with better, free access to all our content and services.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a, Program Service Accomplishments:

Public Outreach

Maine Public recognizes the need to engage the Maine community in both our content and mission and to ensure that we are meeting the needs and preferences of all Mainers. Maine Public connects with our viewers and listeners through a variety of mechanisms including Community Advisory Board (CAB) meetings that are open to the public, Board of Trustees meetings that include opportunities for public comment, community events that include state-wide free public screenings of national and Maine Public programs, a presence at fairs and festivals, and an active digital media presence with a continuously updated website (mainepublic.org) and active social media platforms including Facebook, Threads, Instagram, TikTok, Bluesky, and LinkedIn. Maine Public partners with non-profits across the state to promote their events and

Organizational Review

Maine Public has administrative offices and production facilities for television, radio and web services in Lewiston, Bangor, Augusta and Portland. The station's transmitters and translators, located throughout the state, deliver programs to nearly all of Maine's citizens. Maine public employs just under 115 full-time and part-time people. Maine Public is governed by a volunteer Board of Trustees which include the President of Maine Public, a gubernatorial appointee, a University System appointee and up to 24 Community Members from across the State. The Board meets a minimum of four times a year and all meetings are open to the public.

Maine Public has a volunteer community advisory board (CAB) with membership reflecting the diversity of the state and Maine Public's listeners, viewers, and supporters. The purpose of the CAB is to advise the Board of Trustees and Maine Public staff as to whether the programming and other policies of Maine Public meet the needs of the communities that the station serves. CAB meets twice a year, and its meetings are also open to the public.

Maine Public's revenues come from the voluntary contributions from over 60,000 households, as well as underwriting support from businesses and nonprofit organizations. Additional funding is received through an annual appropriation from the state of Maine and, through this year, from television & radio community service grants from the Corporation for Public Broadcasting. Maine Public serves as the backbone of Maine's Emergency Alert System.
