ON THE COVER

CRIME AND PUNISHMENT IN AMERICA

Monday, November 16 @ 7 p.m.

How did America's justice system take shape, and what do we expect punishment to accomplish? Historical accounts and personal testimony reveal how decisions about crime and incarceration continue to shape lives across the United States. Tune in November 16–19 at 7 p.m. nightly on Alaska Public Media TV.

VOTE 2026: PBS NEWS ELECTION SPECIAL LIVE

Tuesday, November 3 @ 4 p.m.

Follow the midterm election returns with co-anchors Amna Nawaz and Geoff Bennett. PBS News brings together its national reporting team and public media journalists across the country for live results and analysis, helping viewers understand the outcomes as races unfold and the national picture takes shape. Tune in for live coverage Tuesday, November 3 at 4 p.m. on Alaska Public Media TV.

WE CHOSE TO GO TO THE MOON

Tuesday, November 10 @ 7 p.m.

America's race to the Moon comes to life onstage at Carnegie Hall. Historian John Monsky joins Broadway performers and a live orchestra to tell the stories of people who made the journey possible. Music from the 1960s and '70s accompanies rare archival imagery in this blend of history and performance. Tune in Tuesday, November 10 at 7 p.m. on Alaska Public Media TV.

ABOUT US

ALASKA PUBLIC MEDIA
TV | RADIO | NEWS

Alaska Public Media harnesses the power of multiple media platforms to make a more informed and connected life possible for all Alaskans. We produce and present news and content that provides lifelong learning opportunities in public affairs, health and leisure, science and nature, economic and social development, civic engagement and world events.

Located in Southcentral Alaska, we are comprised of KSKA radio, KAKM-TV, Create TV, PBS KIDS, and alaskapublic.org. Alaska Public Media also operates the Statewide News and a shared television service with KTOO in Juneau and KYUK in Bethel. Alaska Public Media and its affiliates deliver content that reaches 97% of the population of Alaska.

WELCOME

Welcome to the November 2026 Alaska Public Media Program Guide, featuring this month's programs, news and announcements.

STATION NEWS

FOLLOW THE ELECTION WITH ALASKA PUBLIC MEDIA

Hear from the candidates, prepare to vote and follow the results with reporting from Alaska and across the country.

From candidate interviews to live election results, Alaska Public Media is bringing together the reporting and resources you need to make informed choices in the 2026 general election and to follow what happens next.

Before Election Day: Get informed

Before you cast your ballot, hear directly from the candidates and explore the issues shaping Alaska's future at alaskapublic.org/elections.

The Alaska Voter Guide, produced with Alaska Beacon, KTOO and the Anchorage Daily News, lets you compare candidates' responses to questions about Alaska's priorities. You can also watch recordings of this year's Debate for the State featuring candidates for governor, U.S. House and U.S. Senate, and hear the extended conversations with candidates for governor on Talk of Alaska.

On Election Day: Listen and watch live

Tune in to national coverage

NPR's live coverage begins Tuesday, Nov. 3, at 4 p.m. with Mary Louise Kelly and Ailsa Chang, followed by Juana Summers and Scott Detrow at 6 p.m. Listen on KSKA FM 91.1 Anchorage or 91.9 FM Girdwood.

Also beginning at 4 p.m., watch Vote 2026: PBS News Election Special on Alaska Public Media TV. Co-anchors Amna Nawaz and Geoff Bennett will lead coverage featuring live results and analysis from journalists across the country.

Track Alaska's election results

At 9 p.m., join Alaska Public Media's Lori Townsend and Casey Grove for two hours of live election coverage. They'll talk with analysts and reporters across the state as votes are tallied and results come in. Listen on KSKA or watch the livestream at alaskapublic.org, on YouTube or on Facebook.

Public media reporters will also be out talking with voters and candidates throughout Election Night. Find their reporting on air and online at alaskapublic.org/elections.

After Election Night: Follow what happens next

Our reporting continues in the days and weeks that follow, tracking the vote count and examining what the results mean for Alaska's communities. Find our latest reporting on air, online and across our social media channels.

COMMUNITY NEWS

WHERE CURIOSITY TAKES YOU

From Costa Rica's lush rainforests to the historic cities of Europe, new adventures are on the horizon with the Alaska Public Media Travel Club.

Inspired by the success of similar programs at other public media stations, we're bringing curious travelers together for shared experiences around the world.

In partnership with experienced travel company Collette, the Alaska Public Media Travel Club offers thoughtfully planned group journeys that make it easier to explore meaningful destinations and connect with fellow travelers. Collette handles travel arrangements and logistics, while a portion of trip proceeds supports Alaska Public Media's work here at home.

Dreaming of warm sunshine, sandy beaches or unforgettable wildlife encounters? Our first featured trip takes travelers to Costa Rica, departing October 25, 2027, with future destinations including Austria, Germany, Spain and Scotland.

Curious about where the Travel Club could take you? Join us for an upcoming information session with Collette representative Toni Ray-Ingram. Learn about destinations, itineraries, special excursions and what travelers can expect, with plenty of opportunities to ask questions.

November 5 - Leadership Circle presentation and Q&A Session — An exclusive first look at upcoming trips and a more personal conversation for Leadership Circle members.

November 6 - Open to All presentation and Q&A Session — An open invitation for anyone interested in learning more about the club and upcoming destinations.

Both sessions begin at 6 p.m. at the Alaska Public Media Broadcast Studio. No commitment to travel is necessary.

Learn more about the Travel Club, explore upcoming trips and RSVP to attend an upcoming presentation and Q & A session at alaskapublic.org/travel.

COMMUNITY NEWS

CELEBRATE THE SEASON WITH CELTIC WOMAN

Experience the magic live in Anchorage while supporting Alaska Public Media.

There's something special about hearing holiday music performed live—the familiar songs, the shared anticipation and a night out in the middle of a busy season. This December, Celtic Woman brings its Silver Bells Christmas Tour to Anchorage.

The internationally acclaimed ensemble takes the stage Friday, Dec. 11 at 7:30 p.m. at the Atwood Concert Hall. Presented by the Anchorage Concert Association, Silver Bells pairs Celtic Woman's signature harmonies and Irish influences with a live symphony orchestra. The program includes holiday favorites such as "Silver Bells," "O Holy Night" and "Carol of the Bells."

Before the group arrives in Anchorage, you can also see Celtic Woman on Alaska Public Media TV. Tune in Sunday, Nov. 29 at 5:30 p.m. for Celtic Woman: 20th Anniversary Concert, celebrating two decades of the group's music with a performance featuring longtime favorites.

Alaska Public Media supporters can join us for the Dec. 11 performance with special ticket packages offered as a thank-you for their support. A VIP option includes an exclusive meet and greet with Celtic Woman talent on show day.

Reserve your package at alaskapublic.org/events or call (907) 550-8484. Availability is limited.

GROW YOUR LEGACY: TAX-SMART GIVING WITH IRAS, DAFS AND QCDS

Learn how thoughtful charitable giving can support the causes you care about while helping you plan for the future.

Giving to the organizations you care about can make a lasting difference. But how you give can be just as important as how much. With thoughtful planning, charitable giving can support your financial goals while potentially offering valuable tax benefits.

Alaska Public Media invites you to explore these opportunities at Grow Your Legacy: Tax-Smart Giving with IRAs, DAFs and QCDs, a free educational seminar on Thursday, November 12, at 6 p.m. in the Salmon Room at the Z.J. Loussac Library.

Led by Marietta "Ed" Hall, a Certified Financial Planner™ with more than 30 years of experience, the seminar will explore strategies for making charitable giving more effective. Topics include Qualified Charitable Distributions (QCDs), giving directly from an IRA, donor-advised funds (DAFs), charitable gift bunching and ways to give beyond cash.

Space is limited. Reserve your seat at akpub.io/legacy or call 907-550-8400.

CAN'T MISS TV

WHAT WE CARRY FORWARD

Four documentaries explore the bonds between generations and the determination to shape what comes next.

In Kotzebue, the Goodwin family's story unfolds across generations. Over four years, Almost an Island follows this Iñupiaq family's daily lives, offering a close portrait of relationships and the ways culture carries forward in a changing Arctic.

Director Jonathan VanBallenberghe gives the family's experiences room to unfold, with each generation bringing its own perspective. Their relationships ground larger questions about the Arctic's future in the everyday work of raising a family and passing knowledge along. Tune in Wednesday, November 4 at 10 p.m. on Alaska Public Media TV or stream it on PBS.org after the broadcast.

Other films this month follow people working to reclaim what was taken and create opportunities for the next generation.

In Coming Home: From Shadowland to Spiritworld, the Kashia Band of Pomo Indians works to regain ancestral lands on California's Sonoma Coast after 170 years of displacement. Elders and younger tribal members guide a return that strengthens cultural connections disrupted by colonization. The film follows their negotiations and the deeper meaning of returning to a place their community never stopped calling home. Tune in Monday, November 2 at 9 p.m. on Alaska Public Media TV.

Later that evening, She Cried That Day follows Christine's search for justice after her sister Dione's death. Director Amanda Erickson examines the Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Relatives crisis through a family's refusal to let their loved one be forgotten—and the institutional barriers they confront while seeking answers. Tune in Monday, November 2 at 10:30 p.m. on Alaska Public Media TV.

In Medicine Ball, Native student-athletes Lexus Redthunder and Leroy Staples-Fairbanks IV navigate basketball and college life at the University of Minnesota Morris, on the site of a former Native boarding school. Their experiences reveal how the sport has become a source of connection and cultural pride, even as that history remains present. Tune in Monday, November 9 at 9 p.m. on Alaska Public Media TV.

Airing during Native American Heritage Month, these films share Alaska Native and American Indian stories through the experiences of individuals and families.
