Nicole Dillon was born in Montana, raised in Sheridan, Wy, and currently resides in Laramie. She is a sophomore at the University of Wyoming, majoring in Digital Media Arts and Sciences. After graduating this spring, Nicole hopes to teach English abroad before attending graduate school. She has written feature stories for the Sheridan Press in the past, and is eager to broaden her journalism and communication skills at WPM.

Nicole Dillon attended the Jackson Nordic Reihe on February 3rd. The Reihe returned this year after a two-year hiatus, featuring events in the Greater Teton area of Wyoming and Idaho. The Reihe brings together some of the most talented Nordic skiers in the world, while raising money for Teton Valley youth ski programs. The Reihe included a Nordic classic race, ski races for kids, and nightly streaming events.
