We're Engaged!

If you've stumbled upon this newsletter and found it awesome, we'd love your support.

- NHPR's effort to reach Spanish-speaking communities. An article on June 8 featured sixWrap Radio's effort to reach Spanish-speaking audiences. The station's Spanish-speaking colleagues, including reporter Aguirre Torres, who will be joining us from Ecuador.

- Our webinar on New Hampshire Public Radio's effort to reach Spanish-speaking communities. NHPR's efforts to reach Spanish speaking communities and non-Latino listeners.

- Today at 1 p.m. ET, 12 p.m. CT, 10 a.m. PT. Our webinar will present a session on fostering a trauma-aware newsroom.

- Is your newsroom trauma-aware? We're using this space to share resources on newsroom safety and trauma.

- Our engagement efforts around public media.

- Did you stumble upon this newsletter and find it awesome? If you want to learn more about any of the above or want to share your efforts with us, please engage.

- What does self-care for journalists look like and how do you recognize you need it? Here's an article from The Washington Post.

- Did you hear or broadcast our national talk show, “Life, Journalism and Other Disasters,” last week? We'd love to hear about it.

- American Amplified is supported by a grant from the Corporation for Public Broadcasting.

More on us social!

Facebook

Twitter

Instagram

LinkedIn

Get more of us on social!

America Amplified

sign up to our email list.