

Live at the Bopshop Norside Organ Trio

Sunday, November 9 at 3 pm & Monday, November 10 at 11 pm

Mixing jazz, blues and funk with a healthy dose of the Hammond B3, the Pittsburgh based Norside produces a sound best described as Rust Belt Funk. For this performance, they're joined by pre-eminent Northeast Ohio trumpeter Tommy Lehman. By this point in the program, Tommy needs no introduction but he travels extensively both as a member of Alla Boara and The Admirables and as the leader of multiple groups under his own name.

Conversations with Veterans

Tuesday, November 11 at 3 pm

For many, the military gave them a sense of shared purpose, a strong connection to their comrades. But that community often disappears when they get out of the service, leaving many feeling alone, or misunderstood. On this episode, we talk to veterans about what they experienced, and what they want other people to know. We hear stories about one woman's struggle to get help for her PTSD, how Shakespeare is helping veterans transition back to civilian life, and some of the health effects that come with combat.

Feeding the Family

Friday, November 21 at 3 pm

For many people gathering around the table this holiday season, things feel... a little different. Maybe it's the cost of ingredients that's on your mind. Or new SNAP paperwork requirements.

Maybe you're a farmer - struggling after the USDA cut grant and loan forgiveness programs. This holiday season, Marketplace brings listeners a collection of stories about the economics and business of food - with a touch of history.

The Club McKenzie: Your 1920s Speakeasy Horn with Heart

Sunday, November 23 at 3 pm & Monday, November 24 at 11 pm

Welcome to a journey into a corner of early jazz. The late 1920s was a pivotal moment. Louis Armstrong's cornet influence was expanding quickly. It was, somewhat surprisingly, reshaping the entire landscape of jazz trumpet playing.

Wind & Rhythm Family & Friends

Wednesday, November 26 at 10 am

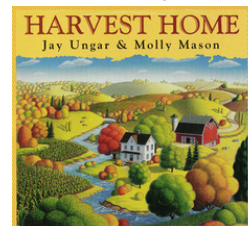

On this episode of Wind & Rhythm, we focus on music from friends and family, such as William Alwyn's "Swiss Family Robinson Suite", Dan Welcher's 4th Symphony, "American Visionary", and much more, right here at the gathering place for people who love band music.

Hearing Voices Let's Eat

Wednesday, November 26 at 11 am

On this Hearing Voices we binge on fattening stories, then purge with a documentary on refusing food. Scott Carrier tours a "Turkey Ranch," following the gobbler from farmyard to frozen food. Joe Frank describes a typically twisted family "Thanksgiving Dinner" (from "Pilgrim"). And more on Hearing Voices.

Harvest Home

Wednesday, November 26 at 3 pm

Festive, thoughtful and fun, HARVEST HOME is an hour of music hosted by renowned folk duo Jay Ungar & Molly Mason, celebrates Thanksgiving, Autumn and the Harvest Season with a spicy offering of American Roots Music simmered to perfection.

Dear Public Radio 90 Members,

Thank you! I can't adequately express how deeply grateful all of us at Public Radio 90 are to every single new member, every new sustaining member, and to current sustaining members and all of the members who continue to give additional gifts – all to support a station dedicated to enhancing our communities through a diverse group of voices and programming. We exceeded our goal because of YOU, which gives us a lot of hope as we manage our federal funding losses.

I also need to acknowledge the incredible volunteers that came in early in the morning, late in the afternoon, and even on the weekend to answer the phone calls. Your volunteer support allows us the time to focus on our on-air messages. Thank you to Tom Ruprecht, Lesley Addison, Ginny Davis, Louise Anderson, Sarah Mittlefehldt, Carolyn Myers, Ryan Stock, Evelyn Massaro, Brian Wallen, and Tyler Dettloff for your dedication to Public Radio 90 – we appreciate you!

Please remember to thank our Food Sponsors, as well: KFC of Marquette, Huron Mountain Bakery, Main Street Pizza, and Fiera's at NMU. The yummy donuts, bagels, pizza, quesadillas, and chicken all helped to sustain us during this fast-paced pledge drive!

We do have another goal to reach 800 sustaining members. With 686 members to date, we need 114 more people to help us build a foundation of long-term support for Public Radio 90. This reliable backing is crucial for our annual budgeting. It provides predictable revenue, helping us plan for the future and navigate potential shortfalls.

Thank you for all that you do on behalf of Public Radio 90. Together, we can keep this valuable asset available to all and secure for future generations.

With sincere thanks,

Tammy Wixtrom Johnson
