Super Dog

By Enzlet
One day a fiendish chicken was making a plan to take over New York City.

Not even super dog can stop me.
Meanwhile, super dog was just waking up. He brushed his teeth and made himself some cheerios.
New York city was waking up too.
When the chicken started attacking, everyone was out getting breakfast or going for a walk. Or making breakfast one their own.
Just after the evil chicken started smashing buildings, super dog comes along. They fight...
The people of New York City cheer for Super Dog.
Then super dog kicked the evil chicken. And he was never seen again.
