Chapter 1: All About the American Revolution

The American Revolution was fought on what is now the East coast of the United States from 1775-1783.
The colonists fought against the British for their freedom. The colonists wanted to be their own country where they could have a say in government.

Chapter 2: The Tea Act

The Tea Act was when King George put a tax on tea so that he could get more money for himself. The colonists were not happy about this tax on tea.

Chapter 3:
The Sons of Liberty
The Sons of Liberty were colonists who didn’t like what the British were doing. The leader of the Sons of Liberty was Paul Revere. Paul Revere is famous for his adventure which is called “Paul Revere’s midnight ride.”
Chapter 4: The Boston Tea Party

The colonists were very mad about the Tea Act so the Sons of Liberty dressed up as Mohawk Indians so that the British soldiers wouldn't recognize them. Then they got a boat and went over to a ship filled with tea crates and dumped all the tea crates into the harbor. When King George found this out he was mad. Really mad!! He was so mad he even closed the Boston harbor. Also, he told all his British soldiers that they could go to any colonist's house and look in their stuff and eat all their food and much more.
This was called the Quartering Act. People lost a lot of the jobs they had. Like people who build ships and much more. This made the colonists very, very angry. That's when the Revolutionary War began.

Chapter 5: King George III

King George III was the ruler of Britain. He ruled for 59 years, 1760-1820.
He believed that Britain could tax the colonists. When the colonists started boycotting and rebelling, King George was outraged. Then he made the Coercive Acts. The colonists called them the Intolerable Acts.
