Baby Boomer Yearbook

When Grease director Randal Kleiser was co-editor of his high school yearbook in 1964, he wrote about each of his classmates. He later returned to his high school in ten-year increments to interview his classmates, focusing on their yearbook photos.

Baby Boomer Yearbook explores the typical high school archetypes: The Prom Queen, the Cheerleader, the Jock, the Nerd, the Class Clown, the Stud, and the Girl Next Door, all based on his high school classmates and the characters from Grease.

The Great Chicago Fire

On October 10, 1871, Chicagoans awoke to an unrecognizable landscape. Forty-eight hours earlier, there had been a vibrant city of ornate civic buildings, grand hotels, and cultural institutions. Now, there was nothing but a smoking pile of rubble stretching for miles on end. Many wondered if the city could recover. And how did tensions between the city's elite and the immigrant poor lead to the wrong person being accused of starting the blaze?

The Great Chicago Fire: American Stories tells the dramatic story of a defining moment in Chicago history – "the Great Fire of 1871," when the city faced destruction, rebuilt, and laid the groundwork for a thriving future.

The Broken Promise

Father and his two children flee the ISIS genocide of the Yazidi people.

After World War II, humanity declared that genocide would never be allowed to happen again. But "never again" has become "again and again," from Cambodia to Bosnia to Rwanda to Darfur to China to Ukraine. The Broken Promise asks, why? What makes people dehumanize one another? Why does it keep happening? And what can we do to make "never again" a reality?

The film examines the characteristics of those who perpetrate crimes against humanity—their self-serving goals, their destruction of democratic institutions, and their utter disregard for the slaughter that follows.

Thu 18th 7pm (3-2)

Fri 5th 9pm (3-1)

INDEPENDENT LENS

Beyond Utopia

Independent Lens premieres the winner of the U.S. Documentary Audience Award at the 2023 Sundance Film Festival, "Beyond Utopia." The heralded and harrowing two-hour documentary is a suspenseful depiction of a long and dangerous journey to freedom, following a courageous pastor who has saved over a thousand defectors as he works tirelessly to guide families attempting to flee oppression in North Korea.

This film offers a riveting portrait of the lengths people will go to in order to gain freedom.

NATURE

Big Little Journeys

Dive into the worlds of six tiny animals on the greatest adventures of their lives. In this 3-part series, six heroic, tiny travelers risk it all to complete big journeys against the odds.

A baby turtle in Canada and a young bushbaby in South Africa search for a safe new home. A Taiwanese pangolin and a Brazilian lion tamarin family travel to a strange new world. A Madagascar chameleon and a Scottish water vole travel to secure their bloodlines.

Wed 7pm begins 10th (3-2)

Sat 11pm begins 13th (3-2)

Wed 9pm begins 10th (3-1)

Thu 2pm begins 11th (3-1)

Sat 4pm begins 13th (3-1)

Gorilla

Gabon's Loango National Park is home to a group of western lowland gorillas that have become accustomed to biologists who have studied them for almost 20 years.

"Gorilla" presents an intimate look at a silverback and his family, and features a newborn baby gorilla, brave researchers, forest elephants, buffalos and the last remaining wild coastline in the African tropics.

We Are All Plastic People Now

Actor and ocean preservationist Ted Danson introduces We Are All Plastic People Now, a look at the chilling reality of how pervasive plastic pollution is in our lives. Plastic is everywhere from the air we breathe to the water we drink. Plastics have been found inside our bodies— in our colons, our brains, in developing embryos and even breast milk. How much evidence do we need before we decide to take action?

Benjamin Franklin

Benjamin Franklin, a four-hour documentary by Ken Burns, returns to PBS. The series explores the life and work of one of the most consequential figures in American history—a prolific writer and publisher, a groundbreaking scientist and inventor, a world-renowned diplomat and a signer of both the Declaration of Independence and the United States Constitution.

Franklin, whose life has been celebrated as a quintessential American story, was anything but typical. His 84 years spanned nearly the entirety of the 18th century, an epoch of revolutionary change in science, technology, literature, politics and government—change that Franklin himself helped to advance.

He launched the first public library in America, organized a volunteer fire company, and founded an academy that eventually became the University of Pennsylvania. His annual publication, "Poor Richard's Almanack," set a model for future humorists such as Mark Twain and contained maxims that are still part of our shared lexicon.

Senator Stuart Ingle Recipient of First Annual 2023 Duane Ryan New Mexico Public Media Award

On Monday, December 4th, station leaders from KENW, KNME and KRWG presented retired Senator Stuart Ingle with the inaugural 2023 Duane Ryan New Mexico Public Media Award. Established in honor of KENW's longtime Director of Broadcasting, the award is given to an individual who has made outstanding contributions to public media in New Mexico.

Senator Ingle has strongly supported public media throughout his 38 years at the Roundhouse in Santa Fe. He has consistently advocated for public media funding and helped pass legislation that has greatly benefited public media stations across the state.

"Senator Ingle is a true champion of public media," said Adrian Velarde, general manager of KRWG. "He has always recognized the importance of public media in providing citizens with information and education."

"Senator Ingle is a role model for all public media supporters," said Porfirio "Pilo" Delgado, KENW's Director of Broadcasting. "He is an inspiration to all of us."

"We are so grateful for Senator Ingle's support," said Franz Joachim, General Manager and CEO of KNME. "He has helped to make public media a stronger and more vital resource for all New Mexicans."

MASTERPIECE™

Miss Scarlet and The Duke

It's time to travel back to Victorian England for Season 4 and six exciting new episodes of "Miss Scarlet and The Duke" on Masterpiece.

Some major moments shook things up in the Season 3 finale—notably, when Eliza made the shocking decision to finally accept Nash's job offer. But at the start of Season 4, we find that things are not going entirely smoothly over at Nash & Sons for Eliza.

Meanwhile, outside of work, Eliza's relationship with William is heading toward a looming decision that will shape both their lives.

The series begins with Eliza teaming up with the Duke to investigate a burglary in a high-end brothel whose clients include important members of the British government.

All Creatures Great and Small

Returning to the beautiful Yorkshire Dales, Season 4 of "All Creatures Great and Small" on Masterpiece continues with timeless tales and heart-warming stories in seven new episodes. It's springtime of 1940 and change is on the horizon for everyone in Skeldale House.

James and Helen wonder whether the time is right to start a family, not knowing if James will be called to serve in the Royal Air Force. Tristan is off to war and his absence is felt by all, but no one more than Siegfried who attempts to hold the growing household, and himself, together. Mrs. Hall and Helen's friendship blossoms as they look to the future, and new trainee veterinary student Richard Carmody arrives, causing complications.

MASTERS

Hopper: An American Love Story

American Masters begins its 10th season with a profile of artist Edward Hopper, known as the supreme American realist of the 20th century.

Born in 1882, Hopper trained as an illustrator and devoted much of his early career to advertising and etchings. Influenced by the Ashcan School and taking up residence in New York City, Hopper began to paint the commonplaces of urban life with still, anonymous figures, and compositions that evoke a sense of loneliness. His most iconic and recognizable work is probably "The Nighthawks" from 1942.
