Thank you for over 50 years!

As we announced in January, WOSU Public Media will end the printed version of Airfare this month. We hope that you enjoy this look back at Airfare. It is truly amazing how much the guide has changed, and our programming has evolved since 1971.

Everything we do at WOSU Public Media is a result of the financial support of our community. We cannot thank you enough for supporting the mission of Public Media in Columbus and central Ohio.

You will continue to receive access to WOSU Passport, our online library of on demand programming from WOSU and PBS. Airfare, for now, will be available electronically by email and on wosu.org. You can also stay up to date with programming through the WOSU app, both live and on demand.

Thank you for supporting WOSU Public Media.

All Sides Host Ann Fisher Retires

After more than four decades in daily journalism and 14 years on the air at WOSU, Ann Fisher will retire as host of All Sides with Ann Fisher at the end of May.

Ann joined WOSU in 2009 and since then has built a strong following through the daily public-affairs talk show designed to touch upon all sides of the issues and events that shape life in central Ohio.

“It’s a bittersweet moment for me as I’ve loved my time and my listeners,” Fisher said. “I am excited to see what’s ahead.”

Fisher worked 30 years in the newspaper business before joining WOSU. She has covered politics, public affairs, culture, media, and business over the course of her career.

“Ann believed in fair and balanced coverage and created a sense of community with her guests and listeners,” said Mike Thompson, WOSU’s chief content director for radio. “Our station and its listeners have been fortunate to have Ann as the face and voice of WOSU.”

All Sides with Ann Fisher is Central Ohio’s only daily radio news interview program attracting 65,000 listeners each week. It has helped lead WOSU’s coverage of landmark Supreme Court decisions, the COVID-19 pandemic, and the George Floyd racial justice protests. Ann and her guests have also helped listeners find a new restaurant, plant their gardens, and study the night sky.

“I hope I’m leaving the show in a better way than when I arrived.”

WOSU plans a celebration of Ann’s service to WOSU and Columbus on May 19th.
Metropolitan Opera

This month, the Toll Brothers Metropolitan Opera Radio Network brings us three perennial favorites and one blazing new premiere.

It’s Puccini’s La Bohème on May 6, Verdi’s Aida on May 13, and a new production of Mozart’s Don Giovanni on May 20.

Then on May 27, Terence Blanchard’s Champion, an operatic retelling of the dramatic story of boxer Emile Griffith in New York. Bass-baritone Ryan Speedo Green stars as the closeted young hatmaker-turned-prizefighter, who rises from obscurity to become world champion and, in one of the great tragedies in sports history, kills his homophobic archrival in the ring. Hear radio broadcasts from the Met on Saturdays at 1pm on Classical 101.

Columbus Symphony Orchestra

Conductor Rossen Milanov and the Columbus Symphony bring four more concerts to WOSU this month. On May 7, it’s Schubert’s Tragic Symphony and music from Florence Price’s Symphony No. 3. Clarinetist David Thomas plays the Brahms Clarinet Sonata. May 14 brings us Mahler’s Ninth Symphony. It’s Gershwin, Tchaikovsky and Ellington on May 21, and Berlioz’s Harold in Italy and the Bizet/Shchedrin Carmen Suite on May 28.

Join host Christopher Purdy and the CSO Sundays at 1pm on Classical 101.

Symphony Showcase

For the first time in more than 70 years, the British are crowning a new monarch. In recognition of the event, Symphony Showcase shares Brit Fest 1, the Coronation Edition. Highlights include music by Elgar, Britten, Vaughan Williams, Holst and Delius. Join host Kent Teeters for music both regal and romantic. Sundays at 6pm and Thursdays at 7pm.

The American Sound

Also take in Richard Danielpour’s pensive clarinet quintet Four Angels, William Grant Still’s wondrous Serenade and Caroline Shaw’s transcendent By and By. Join host Jennifer Hambrick for The American Sound, Saturdays at 6pm and Tuesdays at 7pm.
