Venī, venī, Emanuel!
Captive Israel,
Qui gemit in exilio,
Privatus Dei filio.
Gaudē! gaudē! Emanuel nascetur pro te, Israel.

Come, O come, Emmanuel!
Redeem captive Israel,
who laments in exile,
deprived of the son of God.
Rejoice! rejoice! Emanuel shall be born to you, O Israel.

Venī, O Jesse Virgula!
Ex hostis tuos ungula,
De specu tuos tartari
Educ, et antro barathri.

Come, O Rod of Jesse!
From the enemy's claws,
from the pit of hell lead your people, and from the maw of the abyss.

Venī, venī, O Oriens!
Solare nos adveniens,
Noctis depelle nebulas,
Dirasque noctis tenebras.

Come, come, O Morning Star!
Console us with your coming,
dispel the gloom of night,
and pierce the nocturnal shadows.

Venī, Clavis Davidica!
Regna reclude celica,
Fac iter tutum superum,
Et claude vias inferum.

Come, Key of David!
Open wide the heavenly kingdom,
make safe the road above,
and bar the ways to hell.

Venī, venī, Adonaī,
Qui populo in Sinai
Legem dedisti vertice
In maiestate glorie.

Come, come, Adonai, who on the mount of Sinai gave your people the Law in glorious majesty.

Angelus ad virginem
subintrans in conclave, virginis formidinem
demulcens, inquit: —Ave!
Ave Regina Virginum!
Celi terreque Dominum
concipies, et paries intacta salutem hominum;
tu porta celi facta,
medela criminum.

The angel, coming secretly
to the Virgin, calming the Virgin's fear, said: —Hail!
hail, Queen of Virgins!
You shall conceive the Lord of Heaven and Earth and give birth, remaining a virgin, to the salvation of mankind;
you are made the gateway of heaven,
the cure for sin.
Gabriel, sent from the King of Heaven

to the sweet maiden, brought her happy news
and greeted her courteously:
—Hail be thou, full of grace indeed!
For God’s Son, this Light of Heaven, for love of man will become man and take human form from thee, fair Maiden, to free mankind from sin and the devil’s might.

The gentle maiden then answered him gently:
—in what manner should I bear
a child without a husband?
The angel said to her: —Fear nothing:
through the Holy Ghost shall be done
this very thing of which I bring news;
all mankind shall be redeemed through thy sweet childbearing and brought out of torment.

When the maiden understood and heard the angel’s words, gently, with gentle spirit
she answered the angel:
—I am indeed the bondmaid
of our Lord, who is above:
concerning me may thy words be fulfilled, that I, since it is His will,
may, as a maiden, outside natural law,
have the joy of motherhood.

Gabriel, sent from Heven-King

Sent to the maide sweete,
Broute his blisful tiding
And fair he gan hir greete:
—Heil be thu, ful of grace aright!
For Godes Son, this Heven-Light,
For mannes love will man become and take Fles of thee, Maide bright, Manken free for to make
Of sen and devles might.

Mildelich him gan andswersere
The milde maide thanne:
—Wichewise sold ich bere
A child withute manne?
Th’angel hir seid: —Ne dred tee nout:
Thurw th’Oligast sal ben iwrout
This ilche thing warof tiding ich bringe;
Al manken wurth ibout
Thurw thine sweet childinge
And ut of pine ibrount.

Wan the maiden understood
And th’angels wordes herde, Mildelich, with milde mood,
To th’angel hie andswersede:
—Ure Lords thewe maid iwis Ich am, that heer aboven is;
Anentis me fulfurthed be thi sawe,
That ich, sith his wil is,
A maid, withute lawe,
Of moder have the blis.
Angelus disparuit et statim puellaris uterus intumuit
vi partis salutaris.
Qui, circumdatus utero
novem mensium numero, hinc exiit et iniit conflictum affigens humero
crucem, qua dedit ictum hosti mortiferu.

Eya, Mater Domini,
que pacem reddidisti
angels et homini
cum Christum genuisti, tuum exora filium
ut se nobis propicium
exhibeat et deleat peccata, prestans auxilium
vita frui beata
post hoc exilium.

Latin by Philip the Chancellor? (d. 1236),
English version anonymous 13th century

Alma redemptoris mater, que pervia celi porta manens, et stella maris, succure cadenti
surgere qui curat populo, tu que genuisti, natura mirante,
tuum sanctum genitorem.
Virgo, prius ac posterius,
Gabrielis ab ore sumens illud ave,
peccatorum miserere.

Beneficent mother of the Savior,
who keeps the door of heaven always open,
and star of the sea: help those falling people who seek to rise up,
you who, while nature marvelled,
begot your holy creator.
Virgin before and afterwards,
from Gabriel’s mouth hearing that “Hail”:
have mercy on us sinners.
Ave Maria I say to that blessyd mayde
That modur ys wytout mannys mone.
The same word sothly the angel Gabriel sayde
To Marye, modur and may alone.

Ave Maria I have in mynde
Wereso y wende in wel or in wo.

Ave Maria, wol me defende,
That y ne scende for no maner fo.

Ave Maria I say …

Hayl Mary, ful of grace,
moder in virgynyte.

The Holi Goste is to the sent from the Fader omnipotent;
now is God withyn the went Whan the angel seide “Ave.”

Whan the angel “Ave” byganne, flesh and blode togedre ranne;
Mary bare bothe God and manne throw vertu and throw dyngnyte.

So seith the Gospel of Syn Johan:
God and man is made but one in flesch and blode, body and bone,
O God in personys thre.

Moche joye to us was graunt and in erthe peas yplaunte whan that born was this faunte in the londe of Galile.

Mary, graunte us the blys
ther thy Sonys wonyne ys;
of that we han ydone amys
pray for us, pur charite.

Ther is no rose of swych vertu
as is the rose that bare Jhesu.

Alleluya.

For in this rose conteynyd was Heven and erthe in lytyl space, res miranda.

Be that rose we may weel see that he is God in personys thre, pari forma.

The aungelys sungyn the shepherdes to:
“Gloria in excelsis Deo!”
Gaudeamus.

Ibo michi ad montem mirre et ad colles líbani, et loquar sponse mee: Tota speciosa es et macula non est in te. Veni de Libano; venies et transibimus ad montem Seir et Hermon, a cubilibus leonum et a montibus leopardorum. Alleluya.

Antiphon for the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary; Song of Songs 4:6-8

I will go into the mountain of myrrh and to the hills of Lebanon, and say to my bride: You are all beautiful, and there is no flaw in you. Come from Lebanon; you will come and we will cross to Mount Senir and Mount Hermon, from the dens of lions and the mountains of leopards. Alleluya.
Come, savior of the gentiles,
And manifest your birth to a virgin.
All the world shall marvel:
God decreed such a birth.

Not of man’s seed
But of the Holy Spirit
Is the word of God made flesh,
And the fruit of the womb flowers.

The womb of the virgin did swell,
Yet remained a cloister of chastity;
The banners of virtue shine forth:
God dwells in his temple.

He goes forth from his chamber,
A royal hall of purity,
A giant of twofold substance,
Eager to run his course.

Glory be to God the Father
And to his only Son,
With the Holy Spirit,
Now and forevermore. Amen.

St. Ambrose (c. 340-97)

seculorum. Amen.

The Lord said to me, Thou art my Son: this day have I begotten thee.

Why do the nations rage, and the people imagine a vain thing?

Glory to the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, and forever shall be, world without end. Amen.

This Yule the best advice I know is to be a merry man,
and leave care and put away strife:
thus I think to lead my life.
And him whom I may find angry,
I will leave his company
this Yule.

Thys yol askyt that eche man
Schal make the myrthe that he kan,
And so wol y with ryt god chere
To bygynning of this newe yere.

This Yule asks that each man make the mirth that he can,
and so will I, with right good cheer to begin this New Year.

Thys yol y yeve my lady bryt
My herte and love and al my myght
And pray yow to be yowre man
And servy yow ryth as y kan.

This Yule I give my lady bright my heart and love and all my might and pray that I may be your man and serve you as best as I can.

Hire child o slepe bringge;
The child thoght sche ded hem wrong
And bad his moder sengge.

Sing nou, moder, seide that child,
Wat me sal befalle
Hereafter wan I cum to eld,
So don modres alle.

Suete sone, seyde sche,
Weroffe suld I singge?
Wist I nevere yet more of the
But Gabrieles gretingge.

He grette me godli on is kne
And seide, Heil Marie, Ful of grace, God is with the:
Beren thou salt Messye.

I wondere michil in my thouth,
For man wold I rith none.
Marie, he seide, drede the nouth,
Lat God of hevene alone.

As I lay down on Yule night,
alone in my longing,
methought I saw a well fair sight,
a maiden rocking her child.

The maiden wished without a song to bring her child to sleep;
the child thought she did him wrong and bade his mother sing.

Sing now, mother, said the child,
what shall befall me
hereafter when I am of age:
so do mothers all.

Sweet son, said she,
whereof should I sing?
I never yet knew more of thee than Gabriel’s greeting.

He greeted me courteously on his knee,
and said, Hail Mary,
full of grace, God is with thee:
thou shalt bear Messiah.

I wondered much in my thoughts,
for I would have no man.
Mary, he said, dread thou not,
let God of Heaven work this alone.
Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi, miserere nobis.
Agnus Dei, who takes away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

He seide, Thou salt beren a king
He said, Thou shalt bear a king
In King Davits see:
in King David’s city:
In al Jacobs woning
in all the land of Jacob Ther king suld he be.
shall he be king.

I ansuerde blethely,
I answered gladly,
For his word me paiyede,
for his word pleased me,
Lo Godis servant her am I,
Behold, I am God’s servant,
Be et as thou me seyde.
be it as thou hast said.

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi, dona nobis pacem.
Lamb of God, who takes away the sins of the world, grant us peace.
Let us sing Noel, each and every one,
Now the King of Peace is come.

He is arisen in love and joy:
now Christ has prepared his grace for us and with his body redeemed us unto bliss,
each and every one.

From the fruit of the womb of radiant Mary both God and man alight in her:
from disease he rescued us,
each and every one.

A boy-child was sent to us,
redeemed us unto bliss, turned us aside from evil,
and else to woe we would have gone,
each and every one.

The light will shine with love and light;
in gentle Mary he raised his banner,
in her assumed humanity with manly boldness,
each and every one.

Glory to Thee always, and bliss:
may God guide us to his grace,
that we shall not lose the reward of heaven,
each and every one.
Nova, nova! Ave fit ex Eva

Gabriell off hye degre,
He cam down from Trinite
To Nazareth in Galile.

He met a maydn in a place,
He knelyd down afore hir face,
He seyd, Heile Mary, ful of grace!

When the maiden herd tell off this,
Sche was full sore abaschyd iwys,
And wened that sche had don amysse.

Then seid th’angell, Dred not thue,
Ye shall conceyve in all vertu.
A Chyld whose name shall be Jhesu.

It is not yit syx moneth agoon

Behold the handmaiden of the Lord
The medieval commemoration of Christ’s nativity was introduced by the preparatory and penitential season of Advent, beginning on the fourth Sunday before Christmas Day. After Christmas itself came a series of saints’ days, including those of St. Stephen, St. John the Apostle, and St. Thomas of Canterbury. Ritual observances reached another climax on the feast of the Circumcision on January 1, the Octave or eighth day of Christmas, which was the traditional first day of the New Year and, until the thirteenth century, also the feast day of the Virgin Mary. Celebrations continued through Epiphany on January 6, marking the revelation to the Gentiles and the Adoration of the Magi, and extended to Candlemas on February 2, the fortieth day after Christmas, when Christians observed both the feast of the Presentation of Christ in the Temple and the feast of the Purification of the Blessed Virgin.

Throughout the Christmas season, the liturgy of the Church was embellished and expanded with textual and musical tropes which added color and ceremony to the festivities while establishing a closer connection between the universality of ritual and the particularity of a specific sanctuary or congregation. Textual tropes included substitutes for items such as antiphons and versicles, or for parts of the Ordinary of the Mass. In England a troped Kyrie was the rule for all major feasts. A polyphonic setting of an item from the Ordinary such as the Gloria or Sanctus, replacing the plainchant, might be considered a purely musical trope. Fifteenth-century England also evolved its own unique repertoire of texts and music outside or alongside the liturgy, carols, of which some 130 survive. Carols are found mostly in manuscripts of church music and were the province of professional musicians and learned clerics, as witness their sophisticated musical notation and frequent use of Latin alongside the vernacular. If not exactly popular music in our sense, however, they were at least popular in character—cast in strophic form and set to simple and highly memorable tunes—and “popular in destination” (in the words of R. L. Greene, the preeminent twentieth-century student of their texts). They might have provided entertainment and edification to educated cleric and uneducated congregant alike, within, around, and outside of the liturgy, for processions and banquets and celebrations of all kinds.

This program offers a small selection of music for the Christmas season—plainchant, carols, and polyphonic antiphons and settings of the Mass—that might have been heard in England in the 1440s, when the most modern of the works on the program were composed. We begin with the familiar Advent hymn Veni, veni Emanuel. Probably French in origin, the hymn may have made its way to England as early as the thirteenth century, when Franciscan friars in France and England maintained extensive connections and an evangelizing member of the order might have carried such a song across the Channel. The text is a metrical version of five of the seven so-called O-antiphons which date back to the eighth century or earlier. One of the O-antiphons was sung before and after the Magnificat at Vespers on each of the seven days before Christmas Eve. They address the Messiah to come in his various attributes: O Sapientia (wisdom), O Adonai (Lord), O Radix Jesse (root of Jesse), O Clavis David (key of David), O Oriens (the morning star), O Rex (king), O Emanuel (“God with us”). The initial letters, after the O, spell out the promise of redemption in a reverse acrostic, SARCORE, ero cras: “Tomorrow I shall be there.” (Medieval English tradition added an eighth antiphon, “O virgo virginum,” making the acrostic vero cras: “Truly, tomorrow!”)

The Annunciation is formally commemorated nine months before Christmas, of course, but the miracle is remembered and celebrated at the Christmas season with retellings of the archangel Gabriel’s appearance to Mary, their conversation—brief, yet charged with import—and the divine conception. Our set of Annunciation music opens with one of the most famous songs of the English Middle Ages, Angelus ad virginem. The song figures in Chaucer’s Canterbury Tales, in the Miller’s Tale, where it is sung to a psaltery by a poor scholar at Oxford by the name of Nicholas:

And al above ther lay a gay sautrie,
On which he made a-nyghtes melodie
So swetely that al the chambre rong,
And Angelus ad virginem he song …

(In the tale, a notably rude one, Nicholas goes on to cuckold his landlord, an elderly carpenter with an eighteen-year-old wife named Alison. A medieval reader would presumably have relished the ironic reference to a song about a virgin conceiving a son in the absence of her husband, also a carpenter.) Christopher Page has shown that the text of Angelus ad virginem is probably by the poet and theologian Philippe (d. 1236), chancellor of Paris, nearly all of whose Latin lyrics survive with music. Text and tune probably came to England with travelling Franciscans in the thirteenth century, just as we have imagined happened with Veni, veni Emanuel. The song quickly became popular in England: all of the extant sources are British and there are two thirteenth-century versions in English verse, Gabriel fram Heven-King and The angel to the Vergyn said. We sing the former in a two-voice setting from the fourteenth century, inserted between verses of the monophonic Latin song.

The carols on the program are drawn from several manuscripts copied between around 1400 and the 1440s whose contents overlap somewhat. With the exception of the rather ambitiously contrapuntal Epiphany carol Ave rex angelorum, the carols are written in a robust popular style with graceful melody and simple harmonies and often take the form of a three-voice refrain with a two-voice verse. The rollicking Nowel! Owt of your slepe aryse inverts this pattern, with a brilliant three-voice verse and a refrain whose two parts roll from voice to voice. Both Lolay lolay and Nova nova are transmitted as unaccompanied melody; I have added two parts to the refrain and one to the verse of the latter, but we sing the lullaby Lolay lolay plain. Two of the earliest English songs on the program, Ave Maria I say and Thys Yol, both for two parts, are in a sort of virelai form, AbbA. We also play them as instrumental pieces with an added third part.

The decades between the 1410s and the 1440s saw striking changes in the compositional style of learned polyphony. In some instances we can hear the change in the works of a single composer. Listen to the craggy dissonances and bristly cross-rhythms of Leonel Power’s astonishing Gloria from the Old Hall manuscript of c. 1415, for two, four, and finally five voices—Christopher Page likens the effect to sticking your head into a beehive—and compare it to his Ibo michi ad montem mirre, transmitted in a continental manuscript from the 1440s. The latter work is fluid, tuneful, and almost entirely consonant—sweeter, a fifteenth-century musician would probably say, just as Hayl Mary and Ther is no rose are sweet. Power’s later music has lost none of its ability to dazzle with complex cross-rhythms, as the dancing Alleluia of Ibo michi demonstrates, but the effect is suave and sensuous rather than glittering and prickly.

The Gloria by Pycard (whoever he may have been), like Power’s, is a work from the Old Hall manuscript, and the rigid construction that underlies it is typical of the earlier aesthetic, less sweet than brilliant. Here two of the upper three voices sing in canon at the distance of five breves (or measures), as do the two tenors. The canons are complicated and partially obscured by a third upper voice moving at the same speed and in the same range as the other two. Towards the end, when the three upper voices trade hockets (the term, related to the English hiccup, describes a rapidfire back-and-forth exchange of single notes), the entire ensemble locks into a regular pattern of five measures, like waves rising and breaking on the shore.
The most modern of the works on our program are the Sanctus and Agnus dei from the Missa Veterem hominem. Composed in the 1440s by an anonymous English composer, this Mass was part of the great wave of English works that crashed onto the European continent in the mid-fifteenth century, inspiring a host of imitations by French and Flemish composers. Like Power's Ibo michi and indeed, most mid-century English music, it survives only in continental copies, the English originals having disappeared almost without exception. The Missa Veterem hominem takes as its cantus firmus an antiphon for Lauds at the Octave of the Epiphany ("The Savior comes to baptism, bringing renewal to old man"), and its Kyrie (not performed on this program) sets the trope Deus creator omnium, which was sung in the Sarum rite on all principal and major double feasts, including Christmas. These features make it a perfect choice for a festive Mass during the Christmas season, while its vigorous rhythms, dashing melodies, and clangorous harmonies offer an apt musical counterpart to the blazing candles, the bright colors of festal vestments, the flashing gold, silver, and jewels of the ceremonial vessels, the swirling smoke and intoxicating odor of frankincense, and all the rest of the liturgical drama of High Mass on one of the most glorious feast days of the Christian year.

Blue Heron has been acclaimed by The Boston Globe as “one of the Boston music community’s indispensables” and hailed by Alex Ross in The New Yorker for its “expressive intensity.” The ensemble ranges over a wide repertoire from plainchant to new music, with particular specialities in 15th-century Franco-Flemish polyphony and early 16th-century English sacred music, and is committed to vivid live performance informed by the study of original source materials and historical performance practices.

Founded in 1999, Blue Heron presents a concert series in Cambridge, Massachusetts, and has appeared at the Boston Early Music Festival; in New York City at Music Before 1800, The Cloisters (Metropolitan Museum of Art), and the 92nd Street Y; at the Library of Congress, the National Gallery of Art, and Dumbarton Oaks in Washington, D.C.; at the Berkeley Early Music Festival; at Yale University, the University of Chicago, and the University of California, Davis; in Cleveland, Kansas City, Milwaukee, Montreal, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Providence, St. Louis, San Luis Obispo, Seattle, and Vancouver; and in England, Germany, and Belgium. Blue Heron has been in residence at the Center for Early Music Studies at Boston University and at Boston College and has enjoyed collaborations with A Far Cry, Dark Horse Consort, Les Délices, Parthenia, Piffaro, and Ensemble Plus Ultra.

Blue Heron’s first CD, featuring music by Guillaume Du Fay, was released in 2007. Between 2010 and 2017 the ensemble issued a 5-CD series of Music from the Peterhouse Partbooks (available as a set entitled The Lost Music of Canterbury), including many world premiere recordings of works copied around 1540 for Canterbury Cathedral and restored by Nick Sandon; the fifth CD in the series was awarded the 2018 Gramophone Classical Music Award for Early Music. Jessie Ann Owens and Blue Heron won the 2015 Noah Greenberg Award from the American Musicological Society to support the world premiere recording of Cipriano de Rore’s I madrigali a cinque voci, released in 2019. In 2015 Blue Heron inaugurated Okeghem@600, a multi-season project to commemorate the circa-600th birthday of Johannes Okeghem (c. 1420-1497) by performing his complete works, finishing up in 2023. A parallel project to record all of Okeghem’s songs bore its first fruits in 2019 with the release of Johannes Ockeghem: Complete Songs, Volume I, which was named to the Bestenliste of the Preis der deutschen Schallplattenkritik; Volume 2 will follow this season. Blue Heron’s recordings also include a CD accompanying Thomas Forrest Kelly’s book Capturing Music: The Story of Notation, the live recording Christmas in Medieval England, a compilation of medieval songs entitled A 14th-Century Salmagundi, and (in collaboration with Les Délices) a live recording of a concert production of Guillaume de Machaut’s Remede de Fortune.
Michael Barrett is a Boston-based conductor, singer, multi-instrumentalist, and teacher. He serves as music director of The Boston Cecilia. Michael is also an Assistant Professor at the Berklee College of Music, where he teaches courses in conducting and European music history, and until recently served as Interim Director of the Five College Early Music Program. Michael has performed with many professional early music ensembles, including Blue Heron, the Boston Camerata, the Huelgas Ensemble, Vox Luminis, the Handel & Haydn Society, Nederlandse Bachvereniging (Netherlands Bach Society), Seven Times Salt, Schola Cantorum of Boston, and Nota Bene, and can be heard on the harmonia mundi, Blue Heron, Coro, and Toccata Classics record labels. He holds degrees in music (AB, Harvard University), voice (First Phase Diploma, Royal Conservatory in The Hague, The Netherlands), and choral conducting (MM, Indiana University; DMA, Boston University).

Bass-baritone Paul Guttry has performed throughout the USA and internationally with Sequentia, Chanticleer, the Boston Camerata, and New York’s Ensemble for Early Music. A founding member of Blue Heron, he has also appeared in and around Boston as soloist with Emmanuel Music, the Handel & Haydn Society, the Boston Early Music Festival, the Tanglewood Music Center, Cantata Singers, Boston Cecilia, Prism Opera, Boston Revels, Collage, the Boston Modern Orchestra Project, and Intermezzo. Paul can be heard on Blue Heron's recordings and on discs of medieval music by Sequentia.

Corey Dalton Hart is a Boston-based tenor and voice teacher, known for his musical versatility, engaging presence, and expressive textual interpretations. With a passion for American song, he is a regular recitalist along the east coast, having premiered new works in both New York City and Boston. As a chamber artist, Corey performs regularly with groups in Boston and across the U.S. including Blue Heron, the Boston Camerata, Zenith Ensemble, Boston Baroque, Renaissance Men, and the Ashmont Bach Project. In conjunction with his performance schedule, Corey maintains an active private voice studio and is a member of the voice faculty of the New England Conservatory Preparatory School. Corey holds a Doctorate of Musical Arts degree in Vocal Performance and Pedagogy from the New England Conservatory of Music, a MM from the Bard Conservatory Graduate Vocal Arts Program, and a BM from Furman University.
Laura Jeppesen, player of historical stringed instruments, earned a master’s degree from Yale University. She then studied at the Hamburg Hochschule and the Brussels Conservatory with Wieland Kuijken. She has been a Woodrow Wilson Designate, a Fulbright Scholar, and a fellow of the Bunting Institute at Harvard. A prominent member of Boston’s early music community, she has long associations with The Boston Museum Trio, Boston Baroque, The Handel and Haydn Society, the Boston Early Music Festival, and Aston Magna. She has been music director at the American Repertory Theater, creating music for Christopher Marlowe’s Dido, Queen of Carthage, for which she earned an IRNE nomination for best musical score. In 2015, she was part of the BEMF team that won a Grammy for best opera recording. She has performed as soloist with conductors Christopher Hogwood, Edo de Waart, Seiji Ozawa, Craig Smith, Martin Pearlman, Harry Christophers, Grant Llewellyn, and Bernard Haitink. She has an extensive discography of solo and chamber works, including the gamba sonatas of J. S. Bach and music of Marais, Buxtehude, Rameau, Telemann, and Clerambault. She teaches at Boston University, Wellesley College, and Harvard University, where in 2015 and 2019 she won awards of special distinction in teaching from the Derek Bok Center. She is a 2017 recipient of an Andrew W. Mellon Blended Learning Initiative Grant for innovative teaching at Wellesley College. Her recent essay, “Aesthetics of Performance in the Renaissance: Lessons from Noblewomen,” appears in Uncovering Music of Early European Women 1250-1750, edited by Claire Fontijn (Routledge Studies in Musical Genres, 2019).

Praised for her “rich, smooth mezzo soprano” (St. Louis Post), Kim Leeds has appeared as a soloist with Apollo’s Fire, Bach Akademie Charlotte, Back Bay Chorale, Les Délices, Handel Society of Dartmouth, Cantata Collective, Artek, Ad Astra Musical Festival, True Concord, Bach Society of St. Louis, Tafelmusik, and the Oregon Bach Festival. As a choral artist, Ms. Leeds has performed with the Weimar Bach Academy, the Junges Stuttgart Bach Ensemble, the Handel & Haydn Society, the Grammy-nominated ensembles Clarion Society and Seraphic Fire, and Grammy-award winning ensemble The Crossing. Ms. Leeds has garnered multiple accolades, including winning the Tafelmusik Vocal Competition in 2016, being selected as a Virginia Best Adams Fellow at the 2017 Carmel Bach Festival, working with Philippe Herreweghe as a Britten-Pears Young Artist in 2019, and being a semi-finalist in the New York Oratorio Competition in 2022. Last year Ms. Leeds co-founded Filigree, a New England-based early music ensemble. She can be heard on the 2017 Boston Modern Orchestra Project recording of Jeremy Gill’s Before the Wrestling Tides and on Blue Heron’s Johannes Ockeghem: Complete Songs, vol. 1.
Hailed for his “voice of seductive beauty” (Miami Herald), baritone David McFerrin has won critical acclaim in a variety of repertoire. His opera credits include Santa Fe Opera, Seattle Opera, Florida Grand Opera, the Rossini Festival in Germany, and numerous roles with Boston Lyric Opera and other local companies. As a concert soloist he has sung with the Cleveland Orchestra, the Israel Philharmonic, and the Handel & Haydn Society, and in recital at the Caramoor, Ravinia, and Marlboro festivals. Recent performance highlights have included the role of Thoas in Gluck’s Iphigénie en Tauride with Boston Baroque, Monteverdi’s dramatic scena Il Combattimento di Tancredici e Clorinda with American Bach Soloists, Bach’s Christmas Oratorio with Emmanuel Music, and the role of the Devil in Stravinsky’s A Soldier’s Tale with the Aston Magna Music Festival. David has been a member of Blue Heron since 2011. He lives in Natick, Massachusetts, with his wife Erin, an architectural historian and preservation planner, their daughter Fiona, and black lab Holly.

“Otherworldly” mezzo-soprano Clare McNamara’s ensemble affiliations have included Skylark, Emmanuel Music, Handel & Haydn, Lorelei Ensemble, The Washington Bach Consort, Tapestry, and The Boston Camerata. Clare’s “astonishing” voice is featured in Cut Circle’s “pathbreaking” 2020 release of the secular works of Johannes Ockeghem (Gramophone) and she has appeared with the group in concerts at numerous European festivals. MusicWeb International hailed her as “pure-toned” and “as good as they come” for her solo performance of music by Hildegard von Bingen on Skylark’s Seven (2018), one of the ensemble’s three Grammy-nominated albums. Her next album release is Skylark’s Clear Voices in the Dark (forthcoming in 2024), the first US recording of Francis Poulenc’s tour-de-force Figure humaine. She will join Emmanuel Music for Bachfest in Leipzig, Germany, in June 2024. Clare holds an A.B. in Music from Princeton University and an M.M. in Early Music Performance from the Longy School of Music of Bard College. She resides in the Greater Boston area with her husband, mother, and infant son.

Reviewers have praised Jason McStoots as having an “alluring tenor voice” (ArtsFuse) and as “the consummate artist, wielding not just a sweet tone but also incredible technique and impeccable pronunciation” (Cleveland Plain Dealer). In 2015 he won a Grammy award in Opera with the Boston Early Music Festival (BEMF) for their recording of works by Charpentier. His recent stage appearances in period-style baroque opera with BEMF include Le Jeu in Les plaisirs de Versailles by Charpentier, Apollo in Monteverdi’s Orfeo, and Eumete and Giove in Monteverdi’s Il ritorno d’Ulisse in patria. Other recent solo performances include Pedrillo in Mozart’s Abduction from the Seraglio, Bach’s Christmas Oratorio and St. Mark Passion with Emmanuel Music, and Monteverdi’s Vespers of 1610 with the Green Mountain Project. He has appeared with Boston Lyric Opera, Pacific MusicWorks, Boston Camerata, TENET, San Juan Symphony, The Bach Ensemble, Pablo Casals Festival, Early Music Guild of Seattle, Tragicomedia, and the Tanglewood Music Center. He is a core member of Blue Heron and can be heard on all their recordings. With BEMF, he appears on recordings of Lully’s Psyché (nominated for a Grammy), Handel’s Acis and Galatea (as Damon), John Blow’s Venus and Adonis (soloist), and Charpentier’s Actéon (as Orphée).

Scott Metcalfe is widely recognized as one of North America’s leading specialists in music from the fifteenth through seventeenth centuries and beyond. Musical and artistic director of Blue Heron since its founding in 1999, he was music director of New York City’s Green Mountain Project from 2010-19 and has been guest director of TENET (New York), the Handel & Haydn Society (Boston), Emmanuel Music (Boston), the Toronto Consort, The Tudor Choir and Seattle Baroque, Pacific Baroque Orchestra (Vancouver, BC), Quire Cleveland, and the Dryden Ensemble (Princeton, NJ), in music ranging from Machaut to Bach and Handel. He also enjoys a career as a baroque violinist, playing with Les Délices (dir. Debra Nagy), L’Harmonie des Saisons (dir. Eric Milnes), and other ensembles. Metcalfe’s scholarly work, centered on the historical performance practice of medieval and Renaissance vocal music, has been published in numerous program and recording notes, and he is the author of two essays in a long-forthcoming book on the Peterhouse partbooks and two articles (one published in 2022 and another forthcoming) in the Journal of the Alamire Foundation. He has edited music by Francisco de Peñalosa for Antico Edition (UK) and songs from the Leuven chansonnier for the Alamire Foundation (Belgium); other editions are in the works, including a new edition of the songs of Gilles Binchois (c. 1400-1460). He has taught at Boston University and Harvard University, served as director of the baroque orchestra at Oberlin Conservatory, and been a visiting member of the faculty of Music History at the New England Conservatory. He received a bachelor’s degree from Brown University (1985), where he majored in biology, and a master’s degree in historical performance practice from Harvard (2005).

Praised for her “warm, colorful mezzo” by Opera News, Sophie Michaux has become one of North America’s most versatile and compelling vocalists. Born in London and raised in the French Alps, Sophie’s unique background informs her artistic identity, making her feel at home in an eclectic span of repertoire ranging from grand opera to French cabaret songs. Recent solo engagements include the role of Alcina in Caccini’s La Liberation di Ruggiero dall’Isola d’Alcina (Haymarket Opera), Olofernes in Scarlatti’s La Giuditta (Haymarket Opera), a tour of Hawai’i with Les Délices, the alto solos in the Handel’s Dixit Domino (Upper Valley Baroque), and De Falla’s El Amor Brujo (Lowell Chamber Orchestra). She is thrilled to collaborate with Blue Heron, The Lorelei Ensemble, Les Délices, the Boston Early Music Festival, Roomful of Teeth, Bach Collegium San Diego, Palaver Strings, and others. Last season, she took part in Lorelei Ensemble’s US tour, premiering Her Story by Julia Wolfe with the Boston, Chicago, Nashville, and San Francisco Symphony Orchestras.
Praised for his “elegant style” (The Boston Globe), Sumner Thompson is highly sought after as both baritone and tenor. His appearances on the operatic stage have included roles in the Boston Early Music Festival’s productions of Conradi’s Ariadne (2003) and Lully’s Psyché (2007) and several European tours with Contemporary Opera Denmark as Orfeo in Monteverdi’s L’Orfeo. He has performed across North America as a soloist with the Handel & Haydn Society, Concerto Palatino, Tafelmusik, Apollo’s Fire, Les Boréades (Montreal), Les Voix Baroques, Pacific Baroque Orchestra, the King’s Noyse, TENET, Mercury Baroque, and the symphony orchestras of Charlotte, Memphis, and Phoenix. Highlights of the last several seasons include Monteverdi’s Vespers of 1610 and other programs with the Green Mountain Project (2010–20), a tour of Japan with Joshua Rifkin and Cambridge Concentus in the St. Matthew Passion, repeat appearances at the Carmel Bach Festival, a performance as a soloist in Britten’s War Requiem with the New England Philharmonic, and many programs with L’Harmonie des Saisons (Quebec).

Charles Weaver is on the faculty of the Juilliard School, where he teaches performance practice and historical music theory. He has been assistant conductor for Juilliard Opera and has participated in opera productions at the University of Maryland, the Cleveland Institute of Music, Princeton University, Yale University, and the Boston Early Music Festival. As a collaborative musician, he has performed with the Orchestra of St. Luke’s, the New York Philharmonic, the Philadelphia Orchestra, the Minnesota Orchestra, and the Virginia Symphony. In addition to being a regular member of the ensemble Quicksilver, his chamber-music projects have included engagements with Blue Heron, Piffaro, Chamber Music Society of Lincoln Center, the Folger Consort, Apollo’s Fire, the Newberry Consort, and Musica Pacifica. He is organist and choirmaster at St. Mary’s Church in Norwalk, Connecticut, where he specializes in the liturgical performance of medieval and renaissance music. He holds a PhD in music theory from the City University of New York. His research interests include the rhythm of Gregorian chant and the history of the theory of harmony.
25th Anniversary Campaign

SEPTEMBER 2021 – SEPTEMBER 2024
LAURA JEPPESSEN & DANIEL STEPNER, HONORARY CO-CHAIRS

Since its inception in 1999, Blue Heron has earned recognition as North America’s leading early music vocal ensemble. Now acclaimed internationally, having won the 2018 Gramophone Classical Music Award for Early Music and the 2020 Bestenliste (Quarterly Critics’ Choice) of the prestigious Preis der deutschen Schallplattenkritik (German Record Critics’ Award), Blue Heron looks to the future with confidence and excitement.

Buoyed by your generous support of our previous campaign, in 2021 we launched our 25th Anniversary Campaign. This campaign has a goal of $400,000 and reaffirms that Blue Heron’s mission and highest priority is live performance. With your support, we will build on our successes with the following goals:

Making our music more accessible to a wider and more diverse audience

Sharing the expertise we have acquired by training the next generation of musicians

Building upon our worldwide reach through our online presence and in international festivals and other prestigious venues and platforms

Maintaining a regular schedule of CD releases

Fortifying our financial and administrative position for the long term

Acknowledgments

BLUE HERON exists thanks to the devotion, hard work, and financial support of a large community of musicians, staff, board members, volunteers, donors, and concertgoers. We are grateful to everyone who joins us in creating, nurturing, and sustaining an organization dedicated to making vocal ensemble music live in the 21st century.

We are extraordinarily fortunate to work with a slate of talented and skilled designers, engineers, videographers, and photographers. Our concerts and CDs are recorded by Joel Gordon. Kathy Wittman (Ball Square Films) is our videographer. Our CDs are produced by Eric Milnes. Our programs, printed publicity materials, and CDs were designed by Melanie Germond until 2019 and by John Kramer from 2019-2023; our new designer is Aaron Haesaert. FlashPrint in Harvard Square prints our programs, as they have since 1999. Erik Bertrand built our website and keeps it functioning properly. Liz Linder is our photographer. Our debt to these wonderful people who have shaped our look and sound is impossible to overstate.

Many thanks to our board and to all our dedicated volunteers for their help in person, at this concert, and always.

We are honored and grateful to have so many generous donors. Thank you!

WE ARE a nonprofit climate solutions incubator with a mission to cut carbon emissions now by driving systems change.

OUR WORK:

• Catalyzing the transition from heating buildings with polluting natural gas to using geothermal energy to heat AND cool homes, without harmful emissions.

• Delivering equitable energy efficiency upgrades to low-income households.

• Mapping gas leaks and ensuring that gas utilities find and repair the most environmentally harmful leaks.

And so much more! Learn about our work and ways to support us at heet.org. HEET never accepts funding from the gas or geothermal industry.
