

News & Public Affairs Program Producer

The position is an independent contractor-based position.

WVIA Public Media, serving 22 counties in Northeastern and Central Pennsylvania, is seeking an experienced producer for our Keystone Edition public affairs television series. The candidate should have previous experience in producing news and public affairs content.

Applicants for this position can expect to do the following:

- Produce public affairs programs for broadcast and multimedia packages.
- Write broadcast scripts
- Schedule interviews
- Collaborate with WVIA News Team and on-air talent to choose content/stories for programs
- Research content to provide complete and accurate information
- Ensure that all content meets WVIA's Editorial Standards for journalistic integrity and production quality
- Liaise with Digital/Social Media Team to engage online audience

Requirements & Desired Skills:

- Bachelor's degree in Broadcast Journalism or a related field
- Experience preferred in investigative journalism covering issues such as diversity, immigration, inclusion, education, poverty, employment, and healthcare
- Fluency in English, the ability to speak Spanish is a plus
- Excellent oral and written communication skills
- Minimum of two years' experience in news reporting
- Ability to meet deadlines, prioritize work, and handle multiple tasks simultaneously
- Video editing preferred
- Ability to work independently
- Proficiency in current and emerging newsgathering and production technologies

Please email resume and link to demo reel to: careers@wvia.org

WVIA is an equal opportunity employer.