Celebrating a Golden Anniversary with WQLN NPR

January 7 at Warner Theatre

WQLN NPR Board of Directors, Staff, and Supporters look forward to celebrating the 50th Anniversary of Public Radio in Erie, Pennsylvania. Join us as we celebrate all the wonderful programs and services that we’ve provided to the community over the past 50 years!

We will celebrate with a cocktail and hors d’oeuvres hour beginning at 6pm in the rarely seen rehearsal hall at the newly renovated Warner Theatre. Prepare to be wowed by this charming space. This delightful opportunity to eat, drink, and mingle with some of your favorite music hosts will be followed by messages and presentations from WQLN’s President, Tom New, and our Guest Speakers from NPR - Scott Horsley, Chief Economics Correspondent and Jack Speer, News Anchor. The Erie Philharmonic will play as we celebrate everything WQLN NPR.

We hope you’ll join us! Seating is limited for this special occasion. So, please reserve yours right now. Tickets can be purchased at WQLN.org/Radio50. All proceeds help to ensure the programs you love on WQLN NPR continue for another half a century and beyond!

The Perfect Gift is One Size Fits All!

This year WQLN has many milestones to celebrate: the launch of our new mobile learning vehicle - the STREAM Machine, the release of our Erie-centric docuseries - Chronicles, and the honor of being named Nonprofit of the Year by the Nonprofit Partnership. These achievements coincide with our day-to-day work of providing the very best in TV and radio programming anywhere! WQLN NPR creates a more informed public with a deeper understanding of events from all corners of the world, while WQLN PBS entertains and inspires us like no other. This important work is offered freely to everyone in our community, but only because our members power this vital service. So please, while you’re making your lists and checking them twice, make sure WQLN is checked off too. Please consider an end-of-year donation now online at WQLN.org or by phone at (814) 866-5454.

Students to Compete in Scholastic Scrimmage

There’s quite a bit of excitement in the air as WQLN PBS prepares for its second annual Scholastic Scrimmage, a high school quiz bowl game where local schools compete for a trophy and various school scholarships. WQLN PBS has increased participation to 16 schools from 11 districts in our market area, including several private schools.

Each team consists of four high school students who will answer questions in the areas of math, history, science, and literature. Players must buzz in before the time expires, and the first team with the correct answer earns points with a chance to answer a bonus question.

The first-place winning school is awarded a scholarship of $4,000 and a trophy. Mark your calendars in January when the tournament airs on WQLN PBS.
A Chronicles Christmas Carol
WQLN PBS Presents A Chronicles Christmas Carol
Explore the history of carols and their origins, with music from Erie Philharmonic as WQLN PBS presents A Chronicles Christmas Carol. This holiday special is sure to teach you a little something about the music you cherish. It’s also a chance to spread a little cheer and get you in the mood for the most magical time of the year. Watch A Chronicles Christmas Carol Thursday, December 22 at 8pm on WQLN PBS or stream the series anytime on Passport.

Seeking Entries for KIDS Writers Contest
Due March 31 at 5pm
Our WQLN PBS KIDS Writers Contest is designed to promote the advancement of children’s literacy skills through hands-on, active learning. Kids in kindergarten through fifth grades are invited to experience the process of developing their own stories and illustrations, which builds language skills such as reading, grammar and syntax, and encourages creativity. Entries will be accepted January 1 through March 31. Visit WQLN.org/Writers for the rules and entry form, or contact Jennifer at 814-217-6015 or JAllen@wqln.org.

A Season of Light
on WQLN PBS
Embrace the holidays, with music, stories, and delightful destinations on WQLN PBS! On December 5, Mannheim Steamroller revisits musical holiday magic. 1967’s Dean Martin and Frank Sinatra Family Christmas Show returns on December 10. Christmas with the Tabernacle Choir will warm your heart, December 13. Mary Berry visits Yorkshire’s Harewood House December 17, as it prepares for Christmas. Uncover the origins of some Christmas traditions with Lucy Worsley, December 20. Sing along with the Erie Philharmonic Christmas Holiday Concert, December 22. On the 23rd the real story of the Nutcracker and the Mouse King returns by popular demand. Call The Midwife Holiday Special is 9pm Christmas Day, as part of all-day holiday programming December 24 and 25. And ring in the new year with United in Song. Here’s wishing you a joyous, bright, and beautiful holiday season!

In A Different Key
December 13 at 9pm
In a new documentary film, a mother tracks down the first person diagnosed with autism, now an elderly man living in rural Mississippi, to learn if his life story holds promise for her own autistic son. She documents a startling record of cruelty and kindness, framed by forces like race, money, and privilege. But in exploring what acceptance means, she also finds hope, as more communities are learning to have the backs of those who are different.

Chronicles Marathon
December 15 from 8-10pm

Get ready to binge watch a new, immersive docuseries exploring the history of the Lake Erie region. Watch and learn as local history comes to life with engaging storytelling and powerful videography during Chronicles on WQLN PBS. You can sit back, relax, and watch a mini marathon broadcast of Chronicles beginning at 8pm Thursday, December 15. Expect to learn more about prohibition and rum running, houses of worship, the redevelopment of West 6th Street, the legacy of Charlotte Elizabeth Battles, and where the name Erie originated. And remember, you can stream the series anytime on WQLN PBS Passport.

Engineering Tragedy Film Screening
Join us in celebration of The Ashtabula Foundation’s 100th Anniversary to screen Engineering Tragedy: The Ashtabula Train Disaster, a documentary film featuring the history of the Great American Train Tragedy in Ashtabula on December 29, 1876. The film will air on WQLN PBS December 29 at 8pm. You also can catch a FREE sneak peek on December 11 at Lakeside High School in Ashtabula. Scan the QR code to reserve your ticket today! A 21’ replica of the bridge and train, along with artifacts, will be on display at the screening. Presented in collaboration with WQLN PBS and Beacon Productions, LLC.
