Spokane Public Radio Giving

Have you considered supporting SPR as a Sustainer? Sustainers are an essential part of our organization. Please give us a call at 1-800-328-5729 to learn more about our membership levels and how you can support SPR.

For more information please contact Mike Grabicki, our interim general manager, at 1-800-328-5729.

Thank you for listening. If you're interested in supporting SPR's regional news, stories throughout the week at SpokanePublicRadio.org.

Doubling Down on Local News
Owen Henderson has replaced me as the permanent host of Morning Edition. Owen's presence doesn't mean I'm disappearing. He now rises in the wee hours and reads news and weather during "Morning Edition" on KPBX and KSFQ.

Monetía's presence doesn't mean I'm disappearing. She currently writes for a newspaper in Twin Falls, Idaho, specializing in stories about Hispanic life and affairs. She is a University of Idaho graduate in journalism and Spanish. She has also written for the Moscow-Pullman Daily News and Wood River Weekly in the Star Valley area.

We're excited to welcome Owen and Monetía to our airwaves and hope you'll enjoy their new program, "Doubling Down on Local News."

To learn how our audience fits your marketing goals, call (509) 328-5729 or visit the Business Support page on www.SpokanePublicRadio.org.

Monthly "sustained" giving is quick, convenient and provides a predictable source of income for SPR. Already a monthly donor? Thank you!

Types of Gifts/Pledges
- Check: Mail to: Spokane Public Radio, 1229 N. Monroe St., Spokane, WA 99201
- Credit/Debit card (see below) or Auto Bill Pay from your bank
- EFT - for Sustaining monthly
- Direct Deposit
- Electronic Funds Transfer
- Stock transfer
- Pledge securely on-line: spokanepublicradio.org

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT

Spokane Public Radio Underwriting

Annual Business Supporters

To learn more about our Underwriting sponsors, please visit www.SpokanePublicRadio.org.

The Spokane Public Radio news team is busy and expanding as it heads into the summer of 2024.

Owen Henderson has replaced me as the permanent host of Morning Edition. Owen's presence doesn't mean I'm disappearing. He now rises in the wee hours and reads news and weather during "Morning Edition" on KPBX and KSFQ. Owen has also immersed himself in the Inland Northwest community. A local theater troupe recently cast him for a lead role in an upcoming production.

Owen's presence doesn't mean I'm disappearing from the airwaves. I’ll continue to produce news stories on our regional news, underwriting and programming.

We will also soon be joined by another colleague, Monica Carillo-Cone. She is currently working as a news writer in Twin Falls, Idaho. She is a University of Idaho graduate in journalism and Spanish. She has also written for the Moscow-Pullman Daily News and Wood River Weekly in the Star Valley area.

We are excited to welcome Owen and Monica to our airwaves and hope you’ll enjoy their new program, "Doubling Down on Local News."

To learn more about our Underwriting sponsors, please visit www.SpokanePublicRadio.org.

The Spokane Public Radio news team is busy and expanding as it heads into the summer of 2024.

Owen Henderson has replaced me as the permanent host of Morning Edition. Owen's presence doesn't mean I'm disappearing. He now rises in the wee hours and reads news and weather during "Morning Edition" on KPBX and KSFQ. Owen has also immersed himself in the Inland Northwest community. A local theater troupe recently cast him for a lead role in an upcoming production.

Owen's presence doesn't mean I'm disappearing from the airwaves. I’ll continue to produce news stories on our regional news, underwriting and programming.

We will also soon be joined by another colleague, Monica Carillo-Cone. She is currently working as a news writer in Twin Falls, Idaho. She is a University of Idaho graduate in journalism and Spanish. She has also written for the Moscow-Pullman Daily News and Wood River Weekly in the Star Valley area.

We are excited to welcome Owen and Monica to our airwaves and hope you’ll enjoy their new program, "Doubling Down on Local News."

To learn more about our Underwriting sponsors, please visit www.SpokanePublicRadio.org.
Program Highlights

WoodSongs Kids

Sundays from 2 pm - 3 pm on KPXB

Nacho Celtic Hour

An on-screen history. In his place we are broadcasting WoodSongs Kids, a live audience broadcast just for kids and about kids... think "Mr. Rogers meets the Grand Ole Opry..." recorded at the historic Lyric Theatre in Lexington, Kentucky.

The family show is a combination of performances and conversation featuring amazing young artists from across America.

BBC Proms Concerts from SymphonyCast

Mondays 7 pm - 9 pm on KPXB

Concert of the Week has finished for the season. In its place, we will air long-form programs leading up to August 5, when we will begin airing BBC Proms Concerts from SymphonyCast. BBC Proms are an eight-week summer season of daily orchestral classical music concerts and other events held annually, predominantly in the Royal Albert Hall in central London.

Vox Humana

Mondays 7 pm - 8 pm, through July 29, on KPXB

Jim Tessman provides a look at lesser heard vocal music with Vox Humana, A Celebration of the Human Singing Voice. It covers the gamut of choral music — old and new, sacred and secular, for ensemble small and large.

Fiesta!

Mondays 8 pm - 9 pm, through July 29, on KPXB

It is a musical potpourri devoted to Latin American music, and brings artistically significant compositions from Latin America, Brazil, and Latin America, Spain and Portugal. The acclaimed composer, music, and brings artistically significant compositions from Latin America.

Fiesta!

Mondays 7 pm - 8 pm, through July 29, on KPXB

This is an acapella production devoted to Latin American music, and brings artistically significant compositions from Latin America, Brazil, and Latin America, Spain and Portugal. The acclaimed composer, music, and brings artistically significant compositions from Latin America.

LA Philharmonic

Wednesdays 8 pm - 10 pm on KPXB

Starting July 6, we’ll bring you the LA Philharmonic, redefining what an orchestra can be, as vibrant as Los Angeles, one of the world’s most open and dynamic cities. Led by Music & Artistic Director Gustavo Dudamel, this internationally renowned orchestra harnesses the transformational power of live music to build community, foster intellectual and artistic growth, and nurture the creative spirit.

Possible

Saturdays 7 am - 8 am on KSFC

Possible envision a future where everything goes right for humanity. Instead of the fragility that we see. It’s an optimistic, hopeful, scenario-based technology and collective action. Possible explores how we might achieve an ideal world.

KSFC / July - September 2024

Meet Us at the Market — Free

July-September at Farmers’ Markets Across the INW

Meet SP at a farmer’s market near you this summer! Spokane Public Radio staff, volunteers, and on-air folk will be in our community every week in farmers’ markets from July 1 to September 19. Visit SpokanePublicRadio.org for a list of farmer’s market dates and locations.

SPR Booth at Art on the Green — Free

August 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6, North Idaho College

Art on the Green will bring together artists and performers for three days of free entertainment, handcrafted works of art for sale, a community garden, food court, an outdoor juried art show, and a children’s arts garden. The 36th year of this celebration will take place at Spokane’s North Idaho College, 6000 W. Garden Ave, Cour, Order #5, ID.

September KPXB Kids’ Concert — Free

Saturday, September 21, 1 pm - 2 pm

In the River Park Square Amphitheater.

Spokane Public Radio brings music to Riverpark Square at our September Kids’ Concert. Hop by the downtown mall for music, dancing, and a whole lot of fun. Watch SpokanePublicRadio.org for more information coming soon.

SPR Media Partner Events

Meet Us at the Market — Free

July-September at Farmers’ Markets Across the INW

Meet SP at a farmer’s market near you this summer! Spokane Public Radio staff, volunteers, and on-air folk will be in our community every week in farmers’ markets from July 1 to September 19. Visit SpokanePublicRadio.org for a list of farmer’s market dates and locations.

SPR Booth at Art on the Green — Free

August 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6, North Idaho College

Art on the Green will bring together artists and performers for three days of free entertainment, handcrafted works of art for sale, a community garden, food court, an outdoor juried art show, and a children’s arts garden. The 36th year of this celebration will take place at Spokane’s North Idaho College, 6000 W. Garden Ave, Cour, Order #5, ID.

September KPXB Kids’ Concert — Free

Saturday, September 21, 1 pm - 2 pm

In the River Park Square Amphitheater.

Spokane Public Radio brings music to Riverpark Square at our September Kids’ Concert. Hop by the downtown mall for music, dancing, and a whole lot of fun. Watch SpokanePublicRadio.org for more information coming soon.

Want to Hear Your Event on The Arts Calendar?

If you would like to have your event considered for the on-air Arts Calendar be sure to submit it to our online Community Calendar found at SpokanePublicRadio.org.

The Arts Calendar is curated from hundreds of thousands of events that come into our office every year. We curate these events by hand, and it takes a lot of time and energy. We’re excited to bring you our best picks each week. If you have an event you think we might be interested in, please fill out our online submission form. It’s simple and fast. We do our best to mention as many events as possible, but due to constraints of space and time, we may not be able to include every event.

SPPR Media Partner Events

SPPR Media Partner: An Evening with Jess Walter and the Spokane Symphony

Saturday, September 21 at the Fox Theatre

SPPR is a media partner for local author Jess Walter and the Spokane Symphony’s feast of words and music. Jess’ wide range of writing styles will take you from the warmth of Italy to the gritty streets of 1940s Spokane as the Symphony sets the backdrop to his storytelling.

Meet Us at the Market — Free

July-September at Farmers’ Markets Across the INW

Meet SP at a farmer’s market near you this summer! Spokane Public Radio staff, volunteers, and on-air folk will be in our community every week in farmers’ markets from July 1 to September 19. Visit SpokanePublicRadio.org for a list of farmer’s market dates and locations.

SPPR Booth at Art on the Green — Free

August 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6, North Idaho College

Art on the Green will bring together artists and performers for three days of free entertainment, handcrafted works of art for sale, a community garden, food court, an outdoor juried art show, and a children’s arts garden. The 36th year of this celebration will take place at Spokane’s North Idaho College, 6000 W. Garden Ave, Cour, Order #5, ID.

September KPXB Kids’ Concert — Free

Saturday, September 21, 1 pm - 2 pm

In the River Park Square Amphitheater.

Spokane Public Radio brings music to Riverpark Square at our September Kids’ Concert. Hop by the downtown mall for music, dancing, and a whole lot of fun. Watch SpokanePublicRadio.org for more information coming soon.

SPPR Media Partner Events

SPPR Media Partner: An Evening with Jess Walter and the Spokane Symphony

Saturday, September 21 at the Fox Theatre

SPPR is a media partner for local author Jess Walter and the Spokane Symphony’s feast of words and music. Jess’ wide range of writing styles will take you from the warmth of Italy to the gritty streets of 1940s Spokane as the Symphony sets the backdrop to his storytelling.

Want to Hear Your Event on The Arts Calendar?

If you would like to have your event considered for the on-air Arts Calendar be sure to submit it to our online Community Calendar found at SpokanePublicRadio.org.

The Arts Calendar is curated from hundreds of thousands of events that come into our office every year. We curate these events by hand, and it takes a lot of time and energy. We’re excited to bring you our best picks each week. If you have an event you think we might be interested in, please fill out our online submission form. It’s simple and fast. We do our best to mention as many events as possible, but due to constraints of space and time, we may not be able to include every event.