

KDNK Trivia Quiz

Please note: This quiz is posted at kdnk.org. Sometime after April 15, we will post the answers to these questions.

What will you find at the top of the totem pole in front of KDNK on 2nd St.?

Who said: "You're listening to my two favorite ladies, Katy and Kay?"
BONUS POINT: What was that DJ's radio name? EXTRA BONUS POINT: What was the name of his show?

Bill Wooley's show was called _____ .

Harlan Feder did a popular show in the 90s featuring music from the Caribbean. He called it _____ .

Before it was the Flash Cafe it was The _____ .

There has to be at least one place in a community radio station that you can turn up to 11 with no distortion, right? Who donated the Tannoy Speakers in the air studio and the production room to KDNK?
_____ .

Name as many Music Directors over the decades as you can.

Name as many Station Managers over the decades as you can.

Name as many News Reporters as you can.

Who is the Wholly Bozo?

Some weeks it's Women's Voices. Other weeks it's _____ .
_____ . After more than 30 years, who is still the DJ for that show?

Who does a special show every Martin Luther King Day? ____ .
BONUS POINT: What is the name of his show?

Who originated Celtic Thunder?

Who was the last Celtic Thunder DJ?

Art Ackerman does the _____ show.

The only _____.

Who says "turn me on, tune me in?"

Carolyn Cipperly is DJ _____. BONUS POINT: What did she call her show?

DJ Jero does a show on Friday night called _____.

Who is the Frog Princess?

What were KDNK's original frequencies?

Who are the co-pathetic cowboys? _____ & _____.
ey

What is the name of the show they do? _____
show.

Michael Francisco does a Sunday reggae show. His radio name is _____.

Dan Giese's radio name is _____.

Uncle Acid does a show called _____.

Cowboy Randy always finished his show with the song _____.
_____. BONUS POINT: Name the artists who did that song?

The show that was originally affiliated with the Stomparillaz is now called The _____.

The raunchiest show in KDNK's history was _____ show.
BONUS POINT: What was the last name (radio name) of those DJs?
Todd Hartley, aka The Commodore, used to do a show called _____.

When Kat Rich originated the Community Calendar she always signed off with: “ _____.”

For more than three decades Roy Rickus did a Sunday evening jazz show called _____.

Leslie Johnson calls her show _____. BONUS POINT: In the old days Leslie always played The _____ at 9:00,

The DJ name for Brandon Jones is _____.

Sister _____ and Brother _____ do a show called The _____.
BONUS POINT: They end every show with _____.

Sister _____.

The Manny & Maria But _____ show.

Who always signed on with: “ Hello boys and girls, cats & kitties out there in radio land?” BONUS POINT: What was the name of that show?

Who always signed off with “This is your old saddle buddy _____, demanding that you have yourself an absolutely mah-velous weekend. _____.”

What did Cowboy Randy call his show?

Amber Sparkles has a show called _____. BONUS POINT:
Amber's current DJ name is _____.

The first song ever played on KDNK on April 15, 1983 was _____ by The _____.

___ Patty.

For many years Jeff Britt did a Sunday night world music show called The ___ _____.

Eric Berry's show EB's Eclectic Mania always opens with a song by the Left Hand String Band called ___ _ _ _ _ _.

Pastor Mustard migrated downvalley to greener pastures here at KDNK just a few years ago. He did a shticky but fun professorial show called _____.

Jammin' Jim did a show called _____.

Gavin Dahl's show was called _____.

Bob Schwinger often told very off-the-wall stories that were so implausible they seemed real. He called his show _____.

Steve Cole hosted Morning Edition on KDNK for 14 years. But he also did a music show called ___ _____.

Jean Marie Hegarty used to do a show called ___ _____
_____.

Nancy Smith's show lasted for more than 25 years. What night was her show?

Paula Stepp was the _____.

Andrea Marsh is _____.

April Spaulding does a show every Friday morning called _____
_____. BONUS POINT: What is her radio name? _____.
EXTRA BONUS POINT: What song does she always sign off with?

Charlie Wertheim did a very obscure Scandinavian and Japanese punk show called _____.

Susie Strode was _____. Her show was called the _____ show.

Greg Benson's show was called _____. BONUS POINT: What did those three letters stand for? _____ EXTRA BONUS POINT: What was Greg's DJ name?

Mary Ferguson did a talk show for many years in the 80s and 90s called _____.

Nina Dropcho (nee Scnipper) did a bluegrass show on Saturday morning for many years. What did she call her show?

Doug Tucker was the DJ for the _____ show. BONUS POINT: What was the name of the theme song for that show?

Allen Scott did a Wednesday afternoon jazz show for a few years called _____.

The sign-on for a popular show on Saturday back in the 90s and early aughts was "Hello Americans, stand by for _____." BONUS POINT: Who was the DJ who said that?

A former station manager once did a jamband show called _____ BONUS POINT: What was this person's name?

Big Daddy always starts his Rock n' Blues show with _____.

Marc Grandbois did a show called _____.

Nancy Q did a show for 28 years, but it had at least 8 different names. How many can you remember?

The name of Steve Skinner's show in the 80s was _____. The name of his show in the aughts and teens was _____.

In the early 90s KDNK was the first radio station to carry a new syndicated program based in Boulder. What was the name of that show? _ _____. Does KDNK still run this show? ____

Mike Lemmer was ____ _____ .

Amy Kimberley, Kat Rich and Luke Nestler started an arts talk show in 2009 called _____. Is that program still running?

Name the two locations during its history where the KDNK studios were located.

Former All-American ____ _____.

After Cowboy Randy rode off into the sunset, the High Mountain Revue began. It was hosted by two guys whose radio names were _____ and _____.

Walter Gallacher has won awards for his KDNK public affairs show called _____.

In the early days, who was it that Rocked These Rockies every Tuesday, comfortably sandwiched between Crusty Twinkies and New Dimensions?

Will Evans has hosted a very thoughtful public affairs show called _____ for more than a decade.

_____ show, hosted by Jerome Osentowski, is the longest-tenured sustainability show on KDNK.

“Pull the batteries out of that smoke detector cuz we are cookin' in the kitchen, _____ that is.”

_____ Monster and Country _____.

For some time in the late 90s/early aughts there was a one-hour Broadway show tunes show called _____. Who did that show?

For at least a decade there was a children's story hour on Sunday evening. _____ did it the longest. She called it the _____ show. But she took that show over from _____.

Who was the DJ who often played music all night long? He was also responsible for digitizing a lot of sound effects and creating his own, as well as creating a bunch of really great, sound-dense, multi multi-track Ids and promos.

_____ plays only new music on Monday afternoons. He calls his show _____.

_____ has a Monday evening show called _____. You'll hear anything from hard bop to classic rock to gut bucket blues to Greenwich Village folk.

The original host for Geek Speak was _____. Soon thereafter he was joined by _____. Their radio names were _____ and _____. The current hosts are _____ and _____. What station manager was also a host for that show for a long time?

His German accent is perfect for a classical music show. His name is _____. But there have been at least six people who have done a classical show on KDNK. Name as many as you can.

Mark Wolfe did the _____ show.

Skip Naft did the _____ show. BONUS POINT: Why was Skip's nickname Dr. Skip Naft?

The _____ Experience.

Back in the mid-90s a comedy series aired on KDNK by a local comedy co-operative called _____. It lasted about 10 episodes and then dissolved away into memories, and it probably marked the first time something was rejected by KAJX and picked up by KDNK.

Missy Bowen-Ochs was the MD/PD in the late 80s/early 90s. What was the name of her show?

In the 90s, Rex Van Minnen did a spoken word/poetry/cool jazz show called the _____.

Before there was Art Ackerman and Swing Swing Swing, there was _____ doing a show called _____.

Just about every DJ will play the Grateful Dead once in a while, but there has always been at least one show that really focused on the Dead. The show that fits that bill these days is _____ and the radio name for that DJ is _____.

Goo-goo-ch-goob. _____ is the Walrus, and the name of his show is _____.

If it's acoustic, what we used to call ethnic, and the lyrics are in Spanish it's probably the _____ show with _____.

Jenell might be the bubbliest DJ on the air today. Her show is _____, and it's on _____.