Finding a Kitten

It was a hot summer day and I was playing outside with my friends. Then, all of a sudden, my dad came home with a kitten. It was orange, dirty, and skinny, but it was still cute. "Look what I found!" said my dad.

My friends, sisters, and I played with the kitten in the garage. My dad was going to take it to the Humane Society, but they were closed. So we let it spend the night in our basement.

The next morning my sisters and I begged our parents to let us keep the kitten. Our parents talked about it. They said YES! Now our kitten needed a bath and a name. We agreed to call him Charlie.

That afternoon my took Charlie to the vet. When the vet appointment was over, my dad called my mom. "Guess what," my dad said.
"Charlie is a GIRL!

Now Charlie is named Annie and she has been in our family for 3 years."
Finding A Kitten

1. A tree with a large mushroom cloud, signifying a nuclear explosion.
2. A family in a room, with a cat sitting on the floor. "Please!"
3. A bathtub with a cat inside, and a footprint outside. "Please!
4. A girl holding a cat. "It's a girl!"

Additional drawings of a person holding a cat and a person drawing a picture of a cat.