A LETTER FROM KEVIN MARTIN, PRESIDENT AND CEO

KEVIN E. MARTIN
President and CEO
Ideastream Public Media

Greetings Friend,

As we turn the page to a New Year, we are grateful to have ended 2025 standing strong, thanks to our amazing Northeast Ohio community. Despite the unprecedented rescission of our federal funds and amidst the uncertainty of the future of Public Media, your advocacy and support carried us through historic pledge campaigns and strengthened public media across the region. For this, we are deeply appreciative.

January launches a new season of exciting WVIZ premieres. Antiques Roadshow returns with its celebratory 30th season, followed by new installments of beloved PBS programs—Finding Your Roots, Miss Scarlet and All Creatures Great and Small. You'll also see new NOVA and Secrets of the Dead, plus re-airs of Ken Burns' latest, The American Revolution. Please refer to this guide for detailed broadcast times.

As we look to the future, there is an abundance of programming to appreciate in the coming year—trusted news on WKSU, classical music on WCLV and 24/7 JazzNEO on WCSB. Wherever you tune in, I hope you're reminded that your support made the difference.

Together, we will build the bridge to a thriving 2026 and beyond. Thank you for being the foundation upon which we build tomorrow.

Warm regards,

METROPOLITAN OPERA HOUSE JAM SESSION

Eighty-two years ago this month, the Metropolitan Opera House in New York City hosted its first-ever jazz concert to raise money for the World War II effort.

The concert, later dubbed the Metropolitan Opera House Jam Session, featured solo and group performances by many of the day's top jazz musicians — among them, Louis Armstrong, Roy Eldridge, Oscar Pettiford, Art Tatum, Coleman Hawkins, Lionel Hampton, Jack Teagarden, Billie Holiday, Mildred Bailey, and others.

Benny Goodman [pictured] participated via remote broadcast from Hollywood. In fact, the entire show was broadcast around the globe on Armed Forces Radio.

A newspaper reviewer remarked, “The surprised ghosts of Caruso and others must have rattled their bones as the sound waves of this modern music beat on their eardrums in the other world.”

Regardless of how Caruso’s ghost reacted, the concert was an undeniable success. An estimated 3,400 people attended the concert, raising $650,000 in war bonds sales — the equivalent of about $12,000,000 today.

Click on the photos to the left of this section to step back in time and listen to the concert in its entirety.

IDEASTREAM LEARNING

Ideastream Learning harnesses the power of public media to provide educational resources and services that help children, parents and educators develop and flourish.

Ideastream works with a wide range of community-based partners to provide children and their families with opportunities, resources, and experiences that support the development of foundational literacy and mathematics skills.

PBS KIDS resources are the perfect at-home learning companion to help children prepare and flourish in kindergarten and beyond.

PBS KIDS SCHEDULE CHANGES

As kids are increasingly consuming their favorite shows through digital channels, we, along with most PBS stations across the country, are making a shift to better serve our audiences. WVIZ has updated our main channel programming on weekday afternoons.

To access children's programming on-demand, we invite you to use the PBS Kids Livestream (ideastream.org/kidsTV) and download the free PBS Kids Video App and PBS Kids Game App. Our commitment to kids remains strong and we will continue to broadcast programming fully dedicated to kids with the 24/7 PBS Kids channel at 25.5.
