Sting dazzles on tour in Paris!

HAVE YOU PICKED UP A COPY of our Insider’s Guide to Maine Adventure yet? It’s free and available across the state at every Maine Public Studio, Maine Turnpike Service Plaza, and Maine Office of Tourism Center. You can also download a digital copy off of Maine Public’s website, mainepublic.org, or request a copy by writing to us at 1450 Lisbon Street, Lewiston, Maine, 04240.

This handy guide is a jumping-off point to help you get to know some of the wonders of summer in Maine. Aside from suggestions on interesting places to visit across Maine culled from our audience, there’s a chance to win some compelling summer-themed prizes… a Maine Public Sea Bag and Beach Blanket combo or the grand prize of an L.L.Bean stand-up paddle board. Visit mainepublic.org and find the contest under our Community drop-down menu.

Shout out to the Maine Office of Tourism, Treehouse Toys of Portland and Portsmouth, L.L.Bean, and the Maine Turnpike Authority for partnering with us on the Guide this year!

News & Brews SUMMER/FALL 2023 Trivia Night Series is On!

FOLLOWING UP ON THE TREMENDOUS SUCCESS of our last News & Brews series, Maine Public Radio is once again taking our audience on in a series of fun trivia night events. Beginning this month, we’re launching a new season of News & Brews, a series of ten trivia nights designed for the public radio nerd in all of us. Partnering with some of Maine’s best brew pubs from Portland to Belfast to Bangor, audiences will have the chance to test their knowledge of news, current events, and more in a fun and friendly competition.

Each night, we’ll challenge attendees with questions from each of these five categories: Find Your Hidden Brain, Arthur was a WHAT?, Marketplace Musings, I see your TEN and Call your bluff!, and All Things Considered. To register a team, come up with a cool team name, let us know what event you will be attending, and the number of people on your team by emailing us at fun@mainepublic.org.

~ The 2023 News & Brews Schedule ~

WE ARE! Introducing Maine Public’s inaugural Paddle for Public Media fundraising event. We’ve decided to wrap everyone’s love for Maine Public, the pickleball craze, and some old fun together into a single day of drop-in play action. What could be more fun than meeting new pickleball players and hitting it around for your favorite station?

The action takes place on Saturday, August 19, at Foreside Fitness and Tennis on U.S. Route One in Falmouth. The event will run in two flights, from 9:00 a.m. to noon and then from noon to 3:00 p.m. As players drop in, we will arrange for play with like-skilled players and make sure that everyone gets in plenty of court time. On hand will be Glenn Jordan, a national champion, a certified instructor, and a current player on the Austin Ignite of the National Pickleball League, holding demos and offering individual tips and strategies throughout the day.

All attendees will score a Paddle for Public Media t-shirt to commemorate their experience. To register for this event, email fun@mainepublic.org and we will send you a registration form. The fee to participate is $100 per person with proceeds going to support all the programs you love on Maine Public Radio, Maine Public Classical, and Maine Public Television. We anticipate a lot of interest in this experience, so don’t delay!

September Book Club News

We hope you had a chance to catch our last All Books Considered Book Club meeting with author Bill Roorbach talking with host Bill Nemitz about his novel Lucky Turtle. If you didn’t, it’s archived on our website, mainepublic.org, under our Community drop-down menu. We now set our sights on Phasers on Stun! by Ryan Britt, a fascinating read that takes on the world of “Star Trek” and its preeminent place in pop culture. This book club meeting will take place in late September.

Have a question about this novel? Send us a note to fun@mainepublic.org and Bill will try to work it in. You can also email us a question or two during the event itself. You can always pick up a copy of any featured book club selection at one of the many Bull Moose locations or any of our other bookstore partners listed on our website. If you haven’t yet, please consider joining our club! It’s fun, free, and a great way to connect with your favorite authors! Thank you to Bull Moose and Coffee by Design for supporting this literacy showcase.

Sting: Live at the Olympia Paris
Friday, August 18, 10:30 pm

Grab a front-row seat at a performance reflecting the impulsive energy of Sting’s 57th & 9th album recording sessions. The concert captures the musician’s critically-acclaimed guitar-driven rock tour as it hit the French capital for a very special performance at the iconic venue in 2017. Sting is joined by a four-piece band including his longtime guitarist, Dominic Miller, Josh Freese (drums), Rufus Miller (guitar), and Percy Cardona (accordion) with backing vocals from Joe Sumner plus Diego Navaira and Jerry Fuentes of The Last Bandoleros.

The British singer-songwriter’s 57th & 9th World Tour celebrated his first rock/pop album in over a decade. Blistering performances of new songs, including the infectious “I Can’t Stop Thinking About You” and the anthemic “50,000,” alongside classics from The Police as well as Sting’s illustrious solo career, showcase the full range of his musical styles and songwriting influences. Bonita of Rockland for donating your Hyundai Tucson to Maine Public! Are you working remotely and finding that you no longer need a fleet of cars in your driveway? Please consider donating to Maine Public. It’s easy and there is no cost to you – call 877-672-6644 or visit mainepublic.org for all the details. Donated cars, trucks, and SUVs make it possible for us to do more here at your public radio and television station!

In the Spotlight!

Here is one show that is guaranteed to foster fun and learning! Hero Elementary is a school for budding superheroes, where kids learn to master their powers, like flying and teleportation, while exploring science along the way! The series aims to give children ages 4 to 7 the tools to solve problems by thinking and acting like scientists and sparking their natural curiosity and empathy.

All PBS Kids Programming on Maine Public is available for FREE over-the-air across Maine on both Maine Public Television and the PBS 24/7 Kids Channel and can be streamed online for FREE on mainepublic.org. The access to this important educational content is made possible by Maine Public’s membership and by the community-focused teams at the Maine WIC Nutrition Program and McSea Books. Thank you!
I Go to the Rock: The Gospel Music of Whitney Houston on Tuesday, August 15, at 8:00 p.m., explores the steadfast faith that accompanied Whitney to stardom, from her first-ever performance in front of an audience to her many breathtaking appearances performing gospel songs.

Judith of Oakland for donating your Crown Victoria to Maine Public! Do you have an unneeded car that shares a name with a captivating Masterpiece series? Please consider donating it to Maine Public. It’s easy and there is no cost to you – call 877-672-6644 or visit mainepublic.org for all the details. Donated cars, trucks, and SUVs – even ones that aren’t associated with royalty – make it possible for us to do more here at your public radio and television station!
Busy August for the Maine State Music Theatre!

Maine Public is a media sponsor for two musicals being brought to Maine by the Maine State Music Theatre this month. 9 to 5 The Musical, featuring a sparkling score by Dolly Parton and generally recognized as the quintessential feel-good show for the times, is ending its run on August 5 and will be followed up by Something Rotten! from August 9 to August 26.

If you are new to Something Rotten! this hilarious musical tells the story of the Bottom brothers, Nick and Nigel, who set out to write the world’s first musical in this hilarious mash-up of sixteenth-century Shakespeare and twenty-first-century Broadway. With several Best Musical nominations, the show has been hailed by Time Out New York as “the funniest musical comedy in at least 400 years.”

Visit Maine Public’s website, mainepublic.org, and click on the Community drop-down menu to watch some special “Behind the Curtain Previews” of both shows featuring Curt Dale Clark, Maine State Music Theatre’s Artistic Director. Performances take place at the Pickard Theater on the Bowdoin College Campus in Brunswick. Go to msmt.org to order your tickets to these wonderful shows. Both of these musicals are produced in partnership with The Fulton Theatre.

Special David Brancaccio Talk Slated for Rockland

Maine Public is the media sponsor of an upcoming special talk by David Brancaccio, host of American Public Media’s Marketplace Morning Report, at the Strand Theatre in Rockland.

“What Pirates, the Monopoly Game, and the Tesla Guy tell us about Inequality in America” will take place on Sunday, August 13, at 7:00 p.m. as a fundraiser for the Camden Conference. Brancaccio, who grew up in Waterville, has served as moderator of the annual Camden Conference for the past four years.

Brancaccio, who as we all know, reports daily on the ups and downs of the global economy, takes a special interest in economic inequality in America, how it got that way and what it means for the future. He emphasizes that economic inequality is much more than a statistic.

“One influential investor told me that if we don’t address inequality, we will collapse economically and politically,” said Brancaccio, adding “The co-founder of the biggest hedge fund in America is worried about inequality. The head of the biggest bank in the country is worried. So is this country’s most famous investor,” a reference to Warren Buffett.

Tickets will be sold on a pay-as-you-can basis, with a suggested donation of $25, and can be purchased at www.camdenconference.org. We hope to see you there!

Infrastructure work across Maine Public’s footprint continues

This summer, Maine Public is undertaking an extensive maintenance project on many of our transmitters and towers across the state. This is necessary work that needs to be completed and will result in stronger over-the-air television signals from Portland to Presque Isle. We are doing this work in as efficient a manner as possible and affecting communities in as short a timeframe as the work and weather allows. For the safety of our tower crew, transmitters need to be completely turned off while the work is underway and unfortunately this means that there are no over-the-air signals for all of Maine Public’s four television viewing options (Maine Public Television, the PBS Kids 24/7 Channel, Create, and the World) where the work is being done. These outages will also include viewing over Dish Network and Direct TV in each viewing area.

This month, our engineers will be working on WMEB (the Bangor/Orono area) through roughly August 6 and then WMEM (the Presque Isle area) from roughly August 7 to August 14. We apologize for the inconvenience and want to thank you in advance for your patience as this work is done. We will provide periodic updates on the progress of the project on our website, mainepublic.org. Please note that once these signals are again operational, you will need to rescan your television to find your favorite Maine Public television channels.

14  Experience August 2023
Once Upon a Time in Northern Ireland
Begins Monday, August 28, 9:00 pm

At the heart of every conflict are the people involved. A powerful five-part series gives voice to the people who lived through Northern Ireland’s violent past by sharing intimate, unheard testimonies from all sides of the conflict. Exploring the decades-long conflict known as “The Troubles,” the series tells the story through the accounts of ordinary men, women, and children who were drawn, both willingly and unwillingly, into the bitter clashes that rocked the nation and who are still struggling to hold on to a fragile peace today. After 25 years, the Belfast Agreement, a hard-won peace, endures. (Photo: AP/Robert Dear.)
