KRWG Public Media On The Air

This month we meet new All Things Considered host, Scott Brocato to learn more about what he does behind the microphone.

What is your role at KRWG Public Media?

I am an anchor/reporter and host of All Things Considered.

You spent your entire career in commercial radio, what made you decide to work in non-commercial media?

It was an opportunity to grow both professionally and personally after so many years in commercial radio, especially working in a news-based format instead of a music format.

What are you looking forward to the most about working at KRWG Public Media?

The continued challenge to learn and grow professionally as an anchor/reporter.

Outside of work, what are some of your hobbies?

I play the bass guitar in a local rock band, Flat Blak (which is two bands, if you count our side project as a ZZ Top tribute band, EZ Topp). I also enjoy acting, having acted in several local community theatre plays; traveling; and movies.
INGREDIENTS

CRUST:
• 1 ½ cup flour
• 1 stick cold butter (¼ lb)
• 4 Tbsp ice cold water

FILLING:
• Around 8 good pie apples
• ½ cup cane sugar
• 1 tsp. ground cinnamon
• ½ tsp. ground nutmeg
• ¼ tsp. ground cloves

DIRECTIONS

1. In a large bowl, press the cold butter into the flour using your hands, until the flour is sandy and the butter well incorporated. (You can also use a food processor for this). Add the water and mix until the dough just comes into a ball. Shape into a ball, place it in a sealed plastic bag and let it rest in the fridge for a minimum of one, ideally two hours.

2. Cut the apples into slices to fill your pie plate. You can either peel the skins or leave them on, as you prefer. (John usually leaves them on because a good pie apple generally doesn't have a tough skin).

3. Once your apple slices make a nice rounded mound in your pie plate, you'll know you have enough. Transfer your sliced apples into a bowl and add 1/3 cup sugar as well as your spices. Mix it well with a spoon so the apples are uniformly coated in sugar & spices.

4. Remove the dough ball from the fridge and cut it in half. Use a little flour on your counter top and rolling pin so the dough doesn't stick and roll out half the dough for the bottom crust.

5. Lay the crust bottom into your pie pan. Place the apple mixture into the crust. Roll out the remaining dough for the top crust. Lay the top crust onto the apple slices. Crimp together the edge of the crusts. Prick holes into the crust with a fork. Decorate the crust to taste!

6. Bake at 375 F for 15 minutes and then reduce the temperature to 350 F and bake for another 45 minutes. Enjoy!
