C. [No permit shall be issued to a bicycle tour business, unless the bicycle tour business:] All permits are subject to the following conditions:

[1. Obtains, pays for, and keeps in force throughout the term of the bicycle tour business permit, comprehensive liability insurance issued (1) by an insurance company authorized to do business in the State of Hawaii (“admitted carrier”), or (2) through a general insurance agent or broker licensed in the State of Hawaii, if the company is not authorized to do business in the State of Hawaii (“non-admitted carrier”). The insurance carrier shall be rated no less than “A-” as established by “AM Best” or “Standard & Poor” ratings. The insurance policy, as evidenced by issuance of a policy endorsement, shall name the County, its officers, employees, and agents, as an additional insured. The insurance policy shall contain the following minimum requirements:

a. No less than a combined single limit (“CSL”) of liability coverage of $3,000,000;

b. No erosion of limit by payment of defense costs;

c. An annual aggregate limit of not less than $3,000,000;

d. A duty to defend the County, its officers, employees, and agents, against any loss, liability, claims, and demands for injury or damage, including, but not limited to, claims for property damage, personal injury, or wrongful death, arising out of, or in connection with, in whole or in part, the activities of the bicycle tour business, the design and maintenance of roadways, and the County's permit review and approval process; and

e. The insurance policy naming the County, its officers, employees, and agents, as an additional insured shall be on a primary basis and not excess of any other insurance policy furnished or available to the County.]

1. The permit holder must procure and maintain during the term of the permit a commercial general liability policy with the following minimum limits and coverages placed with an insurance carrier authorized to do business in the State of Hawai'i with a minimum AM Best rating of A-VII.

a. The commercial general liability policy must be written on an occurrence form. Defense costs must be outside the limits of liability, must not erode or dilute the required limits of liability provided by the policy, and must provide the following coverages:

i. Bodily injury and property damage on a combined single limit.

ii. Independent contractors.

iii. Blanket contractual liability.

iv. Personal injury.

v. Employees named as additional insureds.

vi. Severability of interest.

b. The commercial general liability policy must have the following limits of liability:

i. A primary commercial general liability policy with $1,000,000 per occurrence and $1,000,000 annual aggregate. Insurance must include a duty to defend the County if the County is sued as a result of the bicycle tour business's operations.

ii. An umbrella policy written on a "following form" basis with $2,000,000 per occurrence and $2,000,000 annual aggregate.

c. The bicycle tour business's policies must be endorsed to respond on a primary basis, and any policies procured by the County must be noncontributory and excess of the bicycle tour business's insurance policies.

d. The County and its officers and employees must be named as an additional insured under the bicycle tour business with a duty to defend the County from any claims arising from bicycle tour operations.

e. The permit effective date may be nonconcurrent with the bicycle tour business insurance policy's effective date. If the required insurance coverage expires during the permit term, then the permit holder must immediately deliver a renewed certificate of insurance evidencing the required coverage and limits are still in full force and effect. Any insurance coverage procured by the permit holder that is not renewed or allowed to lapse will be deemed a material breach of the terms of the permit. The permit holder must immediately provide written notice to the County if any of the required policies are canceled, nonrenewed, or terminated. The [bicycle tour company shall] permit holder must furnish the County with a [copy of the insurance policy] certificate of insurance and the required endorsements verifying such insurance coverage upon the issuance of the bicycle tour business permit. [If the scheduled expiration date of a current insurance policy is earlier than the expiration of the bicycle tour business permit, the bicycle tour business shall, upon renewal of the insurance policy, provide the County with a copy of the renewed insurance policy certificate and required endorsements. The insurance policy shall expressly state that the coverage provided under such policy shall not be canceled or terminated, unless the carrier has first given the County at least thirty calendar days prior written notice of the intended cancellation or termination.] The bicycle tour business is prohibited from conducting bicycle tours on County property during any period in which the required insurance is not in effect.

2. [Executes] The permit holder must execute an indemnification agreement with the County requiring the [bicycle tour business] permit holder to indemnify, defend, and hold the County, its officers, employees, and agents, harmless against any and all damages, claims, actions, demands, and proceedings for property damage, personal injury, or wrongful death arising, [loss sustained,] in whole or in part, [as the result of] from the activities of the bicycle tour business over and above those losses covered by the bicycle tour [business'] business's general liability insurance coverage, including claims regarding design and maintenance of roadways and the County's permit review and approval process.

D. [Review of Application.] Within [three] five business days [(excluding weekends or holidays) upon] of [a] receipt of [an] a complete application, the director [shall] must submit a copy of the application to the department of police. Within twenty [working] business days from the receipt [thereof], the department of police [shall] must indicate whether the applicant has received any citations within the past year and submit to the director a written report with any recommendations or special conditions [which] that may be necessary or desirable. If the department of police does not submit a report within twenty business days, it is deemed to have submitted a report with no comments on the application. Upon request from the department of police, the director may grant the department additional time to review the application. [An application shall be approved or denied within thirty working days from the receipt thereof.]

E. [Issuance or Denial of Permit—Appeal.] The director [shall issue the permit, upon payment of any required fee, with or without special conditions or requirements as may be appropriate. If the director refuses to issue the permit the director shall notify the applicant in writing of the director's decision.] may issue the permit, upon payment of any required fee, with or without special conditions or requirements in accordance with this chapter or administrative rules. The director must issue or deny the permit within thirty business days of the director's receipt of the department of police's report. If the director denies the permit, the director must notify the applicant in writing of the decision and the reasons for the denial. If the director does not issue or deny the permit within thirty business days of the director's receipt of the department of police's report, the application will be deemed denied. The director may approve the issuance of a permit upon determining that:

1. The proposed use for the requested bicycle tour, route, or hours of operation is in the best interest of the general public.

2. A scheduling conflict does not exist with another permitted commercial bicycle tour.

3. In previously operating a bicycle tour business, the applicant has not:

a. Received a citation within the previous year related to or associated with a commercial bicycle tour;

b. Conducted a commercial bicycle tour without a valid permit; or

c. Violated any applicable federal, state, or county laws or regulations.

F. An applicant must notify the director within five business days of a change to any information required to be included in the application after the application is submitted for approval or after the permit has been issued. Failure to comply may result in denial, suspension, or revocation of the permit.

5.22.025 Commercial bicycle tours operating in the Makawao-Pukalani-Kula and Pā'ia-Ha'ikū community plan areas.

A. Businesses may conduct guided and unguided commercial bicycle tours for individuals over the age of 15, from sunrise to sunset, only on Haleakala Crater Road (State Highway 378) from mile marker 3.0 to mile marker 9.5, seven days a week. Guided and unguided bicycle tours may not operate on all other areas of Haleakala Crater Road, Haleakala Highway (State Highway 377), and Kekaulike Avenue (State Highway 377).

B. Businesses may conduct guided and unguided commercial bicycle tours for individuals over the age of 15 from 8:00 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. on Baldwin Avenue, except on Wednesdays, King Kamehameha Day, Prince Kūhiō Day, and Lā Ho'ihō'i Ea.

C. No more than 10 bicycle riders per guided commercial bicycle tour are allowed, excluding employee guides.

D. Employee guides must ride at the front of tour groups.

E. Permitholders must require riders to sign the Bike Pono Pledge, which states: "I will bike pono, with awareness of my surroundings, attention to my bike speed, and utmost safety for myself and the cars that share the roads."

5.22.030 [Term of permit.] Permit term; suspension; revocation. A. Any permit issued [pursuant to] in accordance with this chapter [shall,] will, unless suspended or revoked, continue for one year from the date of issuance[.], and expires automatically, without notice to the permit holder, on the date specified on the permit.

B. The director may suspend or revoke any permit issued in accordance with this chapter if the permit holder has violated any rule, ordinance, or statute related to commercial bicycle tours.

5.22.040 Nontransferable. No permit issued under this chapter [shall be] is transferable, and each permit [shall authorize] authorizes only the named [permit] permittee and no other person or business.

5.22.050 Inspection of permit. Any person or business issued a permit under this chapter must at all times keep the permit in a prominent place, convenient for inspection, while engaging in commercial bicycle tour activities. [Any person failing to comply with the requirement of this section will be fined not less than $20 nor more than $100.] All permit numbers must be legibly displayed on a bicycle tour business's electronic and print advertising.

5.22.060 [Unlawful bicycle tour operations—penalty—forfeiture.] Violation; penalty. A. Any [business or] person who [engages in bicycle tour activities without first obtaining a permit issued in conformity with] violates [this chapter] sections 5.22.020(A), 5.22.025, and 5.22.050 [will be ordered to discontinue the bicycle tour business and fined not less than $200 nor more than $1,000.] will be guilty of a petty misdemeanor and subject to a fine, imprisonment up to thirty days, or both.

B. Any person who violates section 5.22.020(A) will be subject to a fine not less than $1,000, imprisonment up to thirty days, or both.

C. Any person who violates section 5.22.025 will be subject to a fine not less than $500 for a first offense and not less than $1,000 for any subsequent offense within twelve months, imprisonment up to thirty days, or both.

D. Any person who violates section 5.22.050 will be subject to a fine not less than $20 nor more than $100, imprisonment up to thirty days, or both.

5.22.061 Prima facie evidence. Advertising that offers commercial bicycle tours will constitute prima facie evidence of the operation of a commercial bicycle tour business and is subject to enforcement if not legally permitted to operate under section 5.22.020.

5.22.062 Citations. A. Police officers, park security officers, and other authorized personnel may issue citations for violations of this chapter.

B. The content and form of the citation will be as adopted or prescribed by the administrative judge of the district courts of the second circuit and will be designed to include all necessary information to make the citation valid within the laws of the State. In every case when a citation is issued, the original of the citation will be given to the violator.

C. Every citation must be consecutively numbered and each copy will bear the number of its respective original.

5.22.065 Appeals. Any person aggrieved by a decision or order of the director may file an appeal with the director. On appeal, the director may reverse or modify any decision of the director in whole or in part, provided that the director finds that the decision or order was:

A. Based on a clearly erroneous finding of material fact or erroneous application of the law;

B. Arbitrary and capricious in its application; or

C. A clearly unwarranted abuse of discretion.

5.22.070 Other requirements. Any and all other permits and licenses necessary to conduct a bicycle tour [shall] must be secured by the person or business conducting the tour. A granting of a license [hereunder shall] under this chapter does not relieve the applicant of the responsibility of complying with the laws of the federal, [State] state, and [County] county governments applicable to the applicant's business.

5.22.080 Rules. The director may adopt rules to implement this chapter.”

SECTION 2. Material to be repealed is bracketed. New material is underscored. In printing this bill, the County Clerk need not include the brackets, the bracketed material, or the underscoring.

SECTION 3. This Ordinance takes effect on February 1, 2023.
