
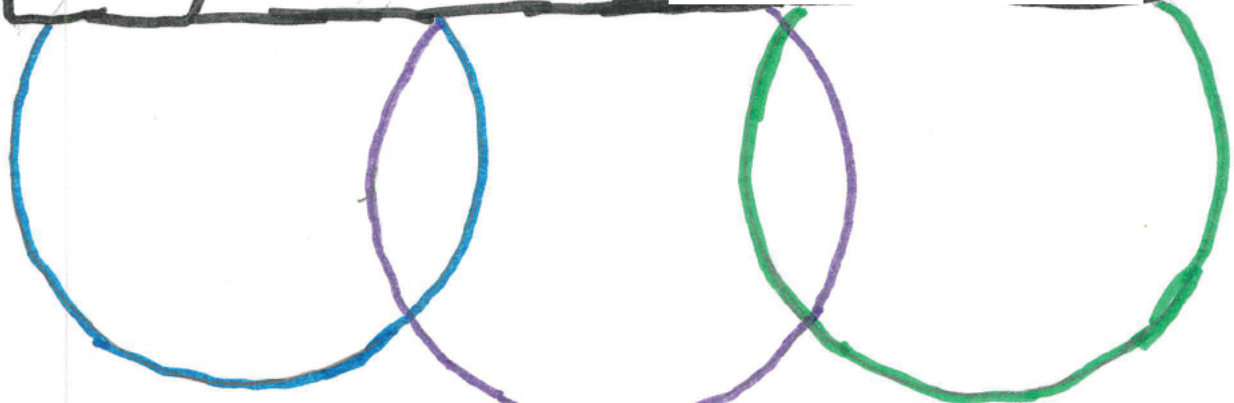
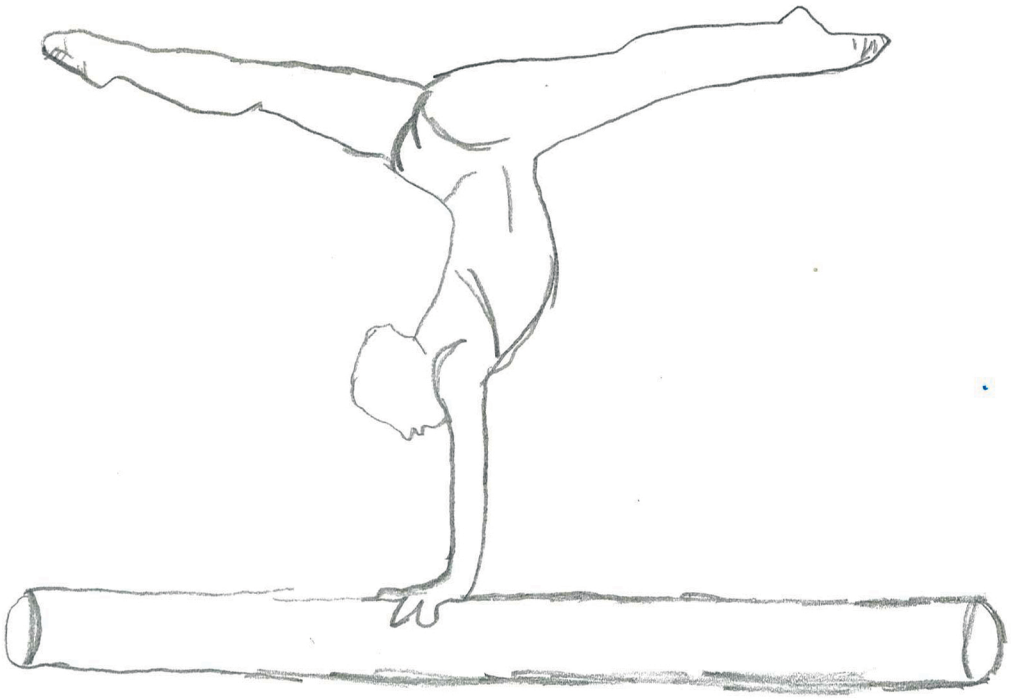
Simone The Star: All About Simone Biles

By: Flora





I love gymnastics because it requires you to be strong, brave and athletic. Simone Biles is a strong gymnast and a great athlete! Here are some things everyone should know about Simone!

Simone the Star of Childhood

Simone was born on March 14, 1997 in Ohio. Her mother was not around much and so Simone ended up in the foster care system. Simone then went to live with her grand-parents in Texas. Then, Simone got adopted by her grandma and grandpa and called them 'mom' and 'dad'! This was the start of her better life.

Simone the Star of Gymnastics

Simone is very strong and she loves to run and jump. She always loved to do flips ever since she was a kid. One day her daycare went on a fieldtrip to a farm but it rained so they went to a gymnastics gym instead. Then, she got an envelope from her coaches that went home to her parents. The letter said' you shuld sign up for gymnastics classes.' That's how she got started!

Simone the Star of the Olympics

Simone took classes and got better and better.
Then one time she was scared to do the uneven bars and she fell off and got hurt. Simone realized that she could not wish to be great, she had to work to be great. She worked hard and won the world championship in 2013 and decided to train for the 2016 Olympics instead of going to college. She ended her first Olympics with more gold medals than any girl had ever won in a single Olympics before.

Simone the Star of Now

Did you know Simone has been on the show Dancing with the Stars? She also did the Olympics in 2020 and 2024. In 2022 she went to the White House and was given the Presidential Medal of Freedom.

Conclusion

Simone is strong, brave, and athletic. Did you know that Simone has 11 medals total from the Olympics? Simone is a star of gymnastics!
