There was a girl named Lily. She walked down the street and she saw ... LOVE!!!
She saw a girl buying food for her cat.

Lily was sleepy and getting ready for bed and she saw...LOVE!!!

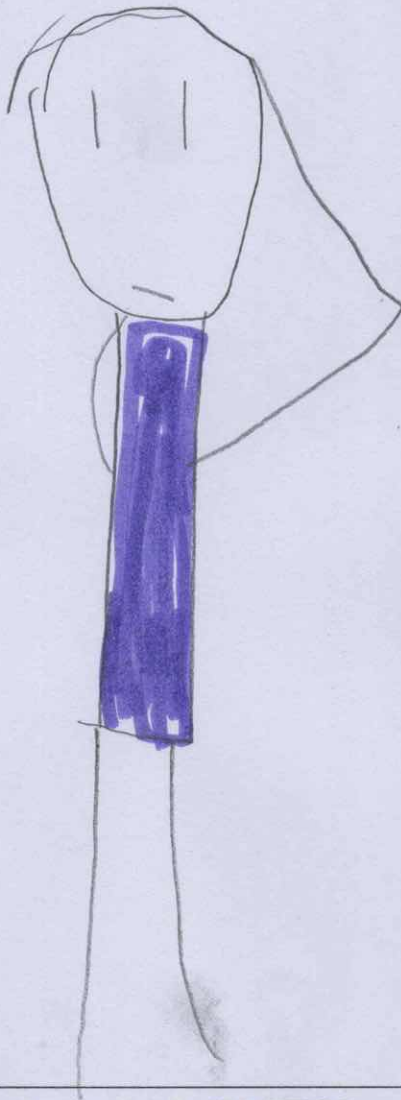

She saw her mom give her and her sister a kiss good night.

Lily woke up and went downstairs and she saw...LOVE!!!
She saw her dad making breakfast for her family. Pancakes!
Yummy!

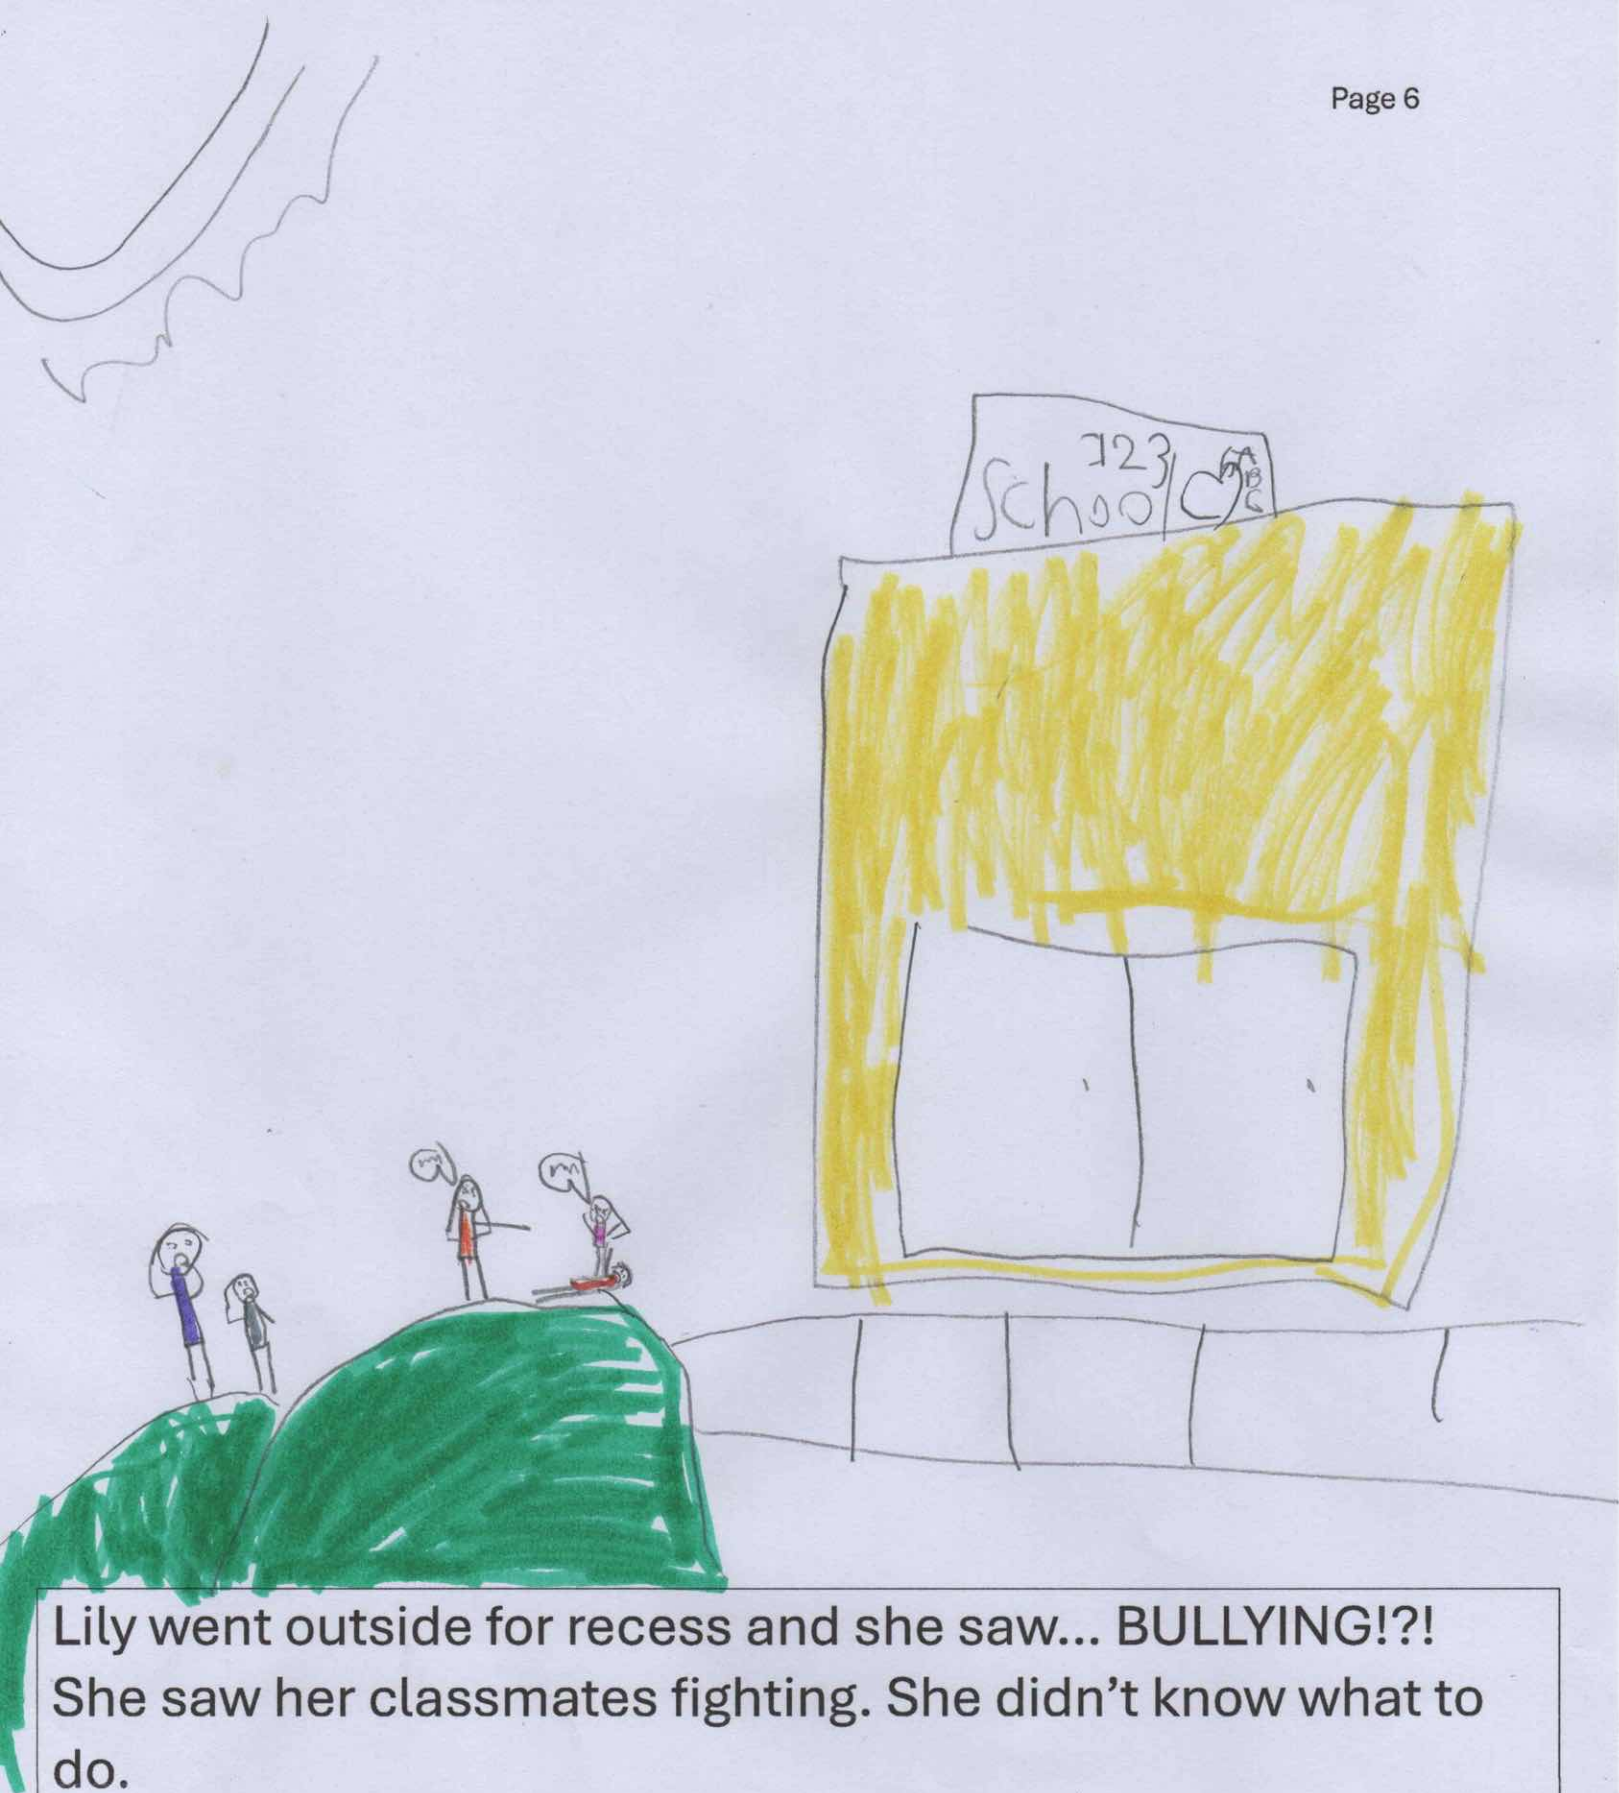

Lily went to school and she saw...LOVE!!!
She saw one of her friends give her a toy to play with.

She was wondering what is LOVE?!

She was thinking and thinking.

Lily went outside for recess and she saw... BULLYING!?!
She saw her classmates fighting. She didn't know what to do.

She Yelled

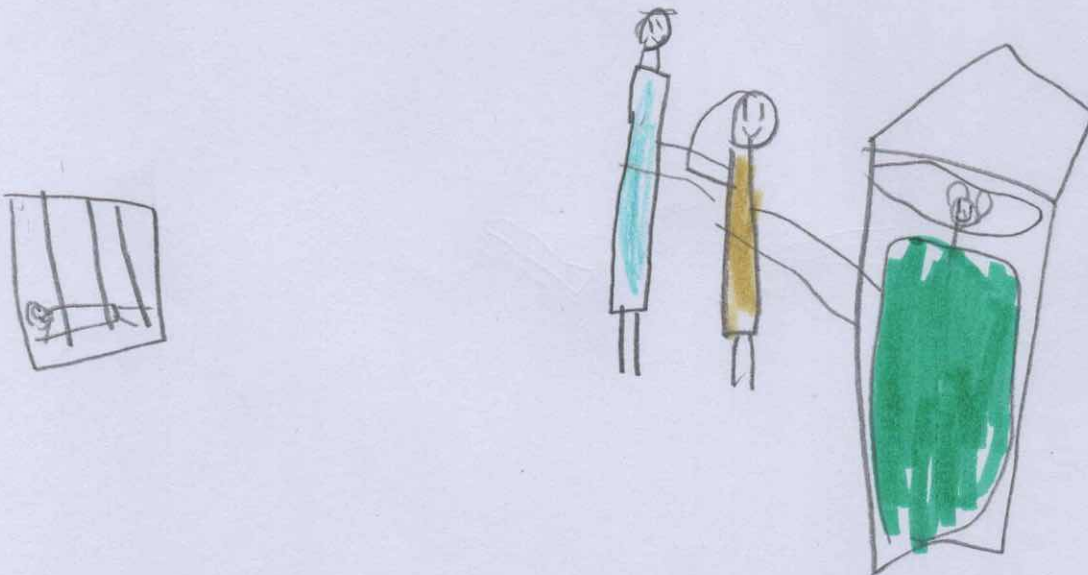

“STOP!!!! You need to be kind and love each other.” They listened and said “Sorry” to each other.

Lily got home from school and she saw ...LOVE!!!
She saw her mom and dad give her a hug and kiss.

Her mom and dad said "Good job telling your friends to LOVE!" She said "Now I know what LOVE is!"

Lily said “LOVE is kindness and helping others. It is being with people you LOVE!!!” She spread kindness and LOVE everyday”
