

ABOUT THIS POSITION - WPM REPORTER

Wyoming Public Media is a statewide network serving most of Wyoming and parts of contiguous states. It has been broadcasting for close to 60 years, and now operates 4 distinct channels, a streaming service, website, and podcasts, offering NPR programming, state news, arts & culture reporting, classical, jazz, contemporary music, podcasts, and more.

State Reporting Bureau

Our vision is to connect Wyoming through a robust and sustainable “hub-and-spokes” reporting structure. Based in Laramie/Cheyenne, we have expanded our news operation with additional reporters in areas such as Jackson, Casper, Gillette, Sheridan, and other locations. Reporters live in and maintain reportorial beats in these areas; their reports air on Wyoming Public Radio, online, and nationally where applicable. They cover state news as well as public and cultural affairs. The “hub-and-spoke” structure has been very successful in several states and regions, and it has provided WPM with content from which to build Wyoming-centric multi-platform programming.

Wyoming Public Media is made up of five services: Wyoming Public Radio, Classical Wyoming, Jazz Wyoming, Wyoming Sounds, and wyomingpublicmedia.org

Wyoming Public Radio broadcasts to over 90% of Wyoming—including Laramie, Casper, Cheyenne, Rock Springs, Green River, Evanston, Jackson, Lander, Riverton, Cody, Powell, Dubois, Gillette, Sheridan, Newcastle, and Torrington, plus numerous communities throughout the state. Wyoming Public Radio is the state's only member of National Public Radio and an affiliate of Public Radio International and American Public Media. NPR, APM, and PRI are sources of such favorites as The Thistle & Shamrock®, Morning Edition®, and All Things Considered®.
