Endeavour - The Final Season
~ Sundays, June 18-July 2, 9:00 pm ~

The crossword will be completed, the opera’s last note will sound, and the beloved long-running detective series Endeavour on Masterpiece will come to an end in its ninth and final season. The first of its three thrilling, enigmatic, and emotional episodes premieres on Sunday, June 18, at 9:00 p.m.

The popular detective series portrays the early years of brooding, gifted Sergeant Endeavour Morse of Thames Valley police in Oxford. Shaun Evans stars in the title role, with Roger Allam as his streetwise superior, DCI Fred Thursday. In the final episodes, other central characters appear for what promises to be a poignant farewell, including Anton Lesser as by-the-book CS Reginald Bright, Sean Rigby as the good and reliable DS Jim Strange, and Sara Vickers as Joan Thursday.

It’s spring of 1972, and Morse has returned to Castle Gate after taking time away in an effort to manage his troubled relationship with alcohol. But changes coming to CID and an increasing intimacy in Joan and Strange’s friendship promise upheavals both personal and professional for Morse. From the cobbled streets of Oxford to the criminal underworld of London, mysteries and secrets unfold while unsettling ties to an old case set Morse and Thursday on a course that will propel them to the series’ end. With characters from former seasons popping up in a grand finale, Morse must resolve his professional and romantic future.

The key to the series’ appeal, besides the captivating plots, has been the emphasis on the two main characters’ personalities and how they have grown throughout many episodes. At the center of the story is the memorable partnership, both working and personal, which has evolved over the years: that of sensible DCI Fred Thursday and the multi-layered Morse.

Many critics have praised Endeavour, with Mark Lawson of The Guardian UK describing this final series as “a perfect end to one of the classiest vehicles in TV crime drama.”

Morse and the Last Endeavour
~ Sunday, June 11, 9:00 pm ~

In advance of the final season on June 18, viewers can go behind the scenes to explore the making of the series. It’s the end of an era, as the epic tale of “Inspector Morse,” the iconic Oxford detective celebrated the world over, draws to a close. From the original “Inspector Morse” (1987-2000) to the spin-off series “Lewis” (2006-2015) to a decade of the detective’s backstory in Endeavour, the Oxford universe of crime has continued to fascinate viewers and enjoy enormous global appeal. Morse and the Last Endeavour features interviews with the main cast members, who reflect on the popularity of the series set in 1960s Britain. It also looks at the filming of Endeavour’s last season, as decades of interconnecting plots are tied together. Actress Abigail Thaw, daughter of original Morse star John Thaw, reveals how she became a regular member of the cast. Kevin Whately, who starred as Sergeant Lewis reflects on the tremendous effect the hit detective series had on his career, and Endeavour star Shaun Evans traces his journey from acting to directing episodes of the series.
A fun and uplifting cooking competition that celebrates the multiculturalism that makes American food unique and iconic is back for season 2. The Great American Recipe brings together a new group of inventive home cooks who compete to wow the judges with their beloved signature dishes. This season, the cooks traveled from all over the country to share their stories and most treasured recipes, from Native American bison short ribs, to Hawaiian loco moco, to Guyanese chicken curry. From family favorites passed down through generations to internationally influenced recipes, the series mixes camaraderie with competition, revealing rich personal stories and the inspiration behind the contestants’ favorite recipes. Alejandra Ramos hosts the series, while judges Leah Cohen, Tiffany Derry and Graham Elliot bring their deep culinary knowledge to encourage and support the contestants along the way.

Time to start in on the next book club selection! The Midcoast by Adam White has been described by The New York Times as “Brimming with keen observation, not just of the landscape but of dialect and class distinctions and all the tiny, vital particularities that make a place real in fiction, The Midcoast is an absorbing look at small-town Maine and the thwarted dreams of a family trying to transcend it.”

The Midcoast book club event will take place on Thursday, June 22, at 7:00 p.m. Have a question about this novel? Send us a note to fun@mainepublic.org and host Bill Nemitz will do his best to get it answered. You can also email us a question or two during the event itself.

Keep in mind that you can always pick up a copy of any featured book club selection at one of the many Bull Moose locations or any of our other bookstore partners listed on our website. Not a Book Club member yet? Why not? Sign up on our website! It’s fun, free, and a great way to connect with your favorite authors! Ongoing THANKS to Bull Moose and Coffee By Design for supporting this wonderful program.

In the Spotlight!

Xavier Riddle and the Secret Museum features Xavier Riddle with his sister Yadina, and their friends Brad and Berby. In each episode, they solve problems by going to the Secret Museum to time travel to the past to observe, interact, and learn from the historical heroes they meet. They then return to the present and use their experiences to make things better!

Titanic all this month at the Pickard Theater

Maine Public is very pleased to be a media sponsor of the upcoming season of wonderful performances at the Maine State Music Theatre. First up is Titanic! This is a really special production. The sinking of the Titanic in the early hours of April 15, 1912, remains the quintessential disaster of the twentieth century. A total of 1,517 souls – men, women, and children – lost their lives (only 711 survived). The musical Titanic examines causes, conditions, and characters involved in this ever-fascinating drama. This is the factual story of that ship – of her officers, crew, and passengers – but she will not serve as merely the background against which fictional narratives are recounted. The central character of this production is the Titanic herself.

Performances take place from June 7 to June 24 at the Pickard Theater on the Bowdoin College Campus in Brunswick. Go to mainepublic.org and click on EVENTS to learn more about Titanic and a special ticket discount for Maine Public Members. You’ll not want to miss this experience!
Enchanted Hills: Legacy of an Art Colony – Thursday, June 1, 9:00 pm: At the turn of the 20th century, artists, writers, musicians and conservationists created public monuments, landscape architecture, bird sanctuaries, and much more (pictured).

Seven Mornings in Maine – Thursday, June 15, 9:00 pm; Saturday, June 17, 2:00 pm: A quiet, meditative piece, with music accompaniment, highlights mornings in Maine filmed over 10 years, from the coast to Aroostook County.

Atmospheres – Thursday, June 22, 9:00 pm; Saturday, June 24, 2:00 pm: Eric Hopkins “collects clouds” with the goal of interpreting those atmospheres through painting, sculpture and glass.

Over the South Coast of Maine – Thursday, June 29, 9:00 pm; Saturday, July 1, 2:00 pm: An aerial tour reveals that Maine’s southern coast is a ribbon of sandy beaches dotted with intermittent outcroppings and tidal estuaries.

Insider’s Guide to Maine Adventure!

We’ve partnered with our audience this spring, asked them for their insights into the best ways to enjoy Maine this summer, and have created the ultimate Maine adventure guide! What’s inside? Hints and tips around ten adventure categories to make this one memorable summer. What are some of Maine’s prime beach day locations? Coolest campgrounds? Top picnic spots? This info and more await you in our Insider’s Guide to Maine Adventure.

We’ve also included a little additional bit of fun in the Insider’s Guide experience! Snap a selfie at any of our Insider’s Guide recommended stops, tag @mainepublic on your Instagram or Facebook post, and include #MainePublicFun in the caption and you’ll be entered into a drawing for the chance to win one of ten amazing Maine Public Sea Bag and Beach Blanket combos or the grand prize of an L.L.Bean stand-up paddle board. The more photos and posts you make, the more entries you’ll have in the drawing. (Not a social media participant? No problem! Send an entry to us with your name and contact information to Maine Public Fun, 1450 Lisbon Street, Lewiston, Maine, 04240.)

So when and how do you get a copy of the Insider’s Guide to Maine Adventure? They will be available for free at every Maine Public Studio, Maine Turnpike Service Plaza, and Maine Office of Tourism Center from mid-June through the Common Ground Country Fair in September. You can request a copy by emailing us at fun@mainepublic.org or by writing to us at 1450 Lisbon Street, Lewiston, Maine, 04240.

Shout out to the Maine Office of Tourism, Treehouse Toys of Portland and Portsmouth, L.L.Bean, and the Maine Turnpike Authority for partnering with us on creating this summer guide to Maine fun!

Maine Public receives Boston/New England Emmy Award Nominations

Maine Public is really fortunate to have a bevy of talented producers, videographers, and storytellers creating educational and entertaining content. You see their work almost every day on Maine Public Television – from Assignment: Maine video segments to full-scale productions like High School Quiz Show Maine and coverage of the Maine Principals’ Association Basketball Championships.

Recently the 46th Annual Boston-New England Emmy Nominees were announced and several of Maine Public’s staff and programs were included! Congratulations to Brian Bechard, Jennifer Rooks, Nick Woodward, Rebecca Conley, and Nick Godfrey for nominations in multiple categories. The documentary A Solemn Promise (pictured), a feature presentation called Outdoors for All, and a composite of Assignment: Maine segments are all in the running for these special awards.
