

Erie Craft Beer Festival

April 13, 4-7 p.m.

Prepare your taste buds for the Erie Craft Beer Festival on Saturday, April 13, 2024, at the Brewerrie at Union Station. Get ready to groove with the upbeat atmosphere as General Admission kicks off from 4-7 p.m. For those seeking an extra hour of excitement, VIP Admission grants early access to the festivities and a commemorative pint glass.

Experience the symphony of suds from over 20 local craft breweries, teasing your taste buds with diverse and flavorful samples. Amidst the brews, engage with local vendors showcasing their unique offerings, then take a break with some tasty grub served by our friends at the Brewerrie. Knowing that a portion of the proceeds will benefit WQLN PBS NPR, supporting the Erie community and quality educational programming, makes this festival even more uplifting.

Feel the buzz of excitement and secure your spot with early bird General Admission tickets, available at a discounted price until March 1, 2024, exclusively at www.ErieBeerFest.com. Join us to celebrate craft beer and community spirit and contribute to a good cause.

Steamroller – The James Taylor Tribute

One Night Only! Monday, March 11, at 9 p.m.

Last fall Erie was home to a spectacular show! "Steamroller" swept audiences away with a tribute to classic James Taylor tunes led by local artist Sam Hyman and his eight-piece band. WQLN members were VIPs at the show! Our members were treated to a pre-show cocktail reception where they mingled with the band before taking a front-row seat at Erie's iconic Warner Theatre. WQLN membership has its benefits!

And now, for one night only, you can catch all the magic from that blissful evening. Tune in to the concert on WQLN PBS on Monday, March 11, at 9 p.m., and recapture the evening's magic. As a WQLN member, you can relive the unforgettable experience anytime on WQLN PBS Passport. Stream it on demand at www.WQLN.org/Passport. It's a show you won't want to miss!

Celebrate Women's History Month

This March, we're bringing you a stellar lineup of programs that highlight the stories, achievements, and impact of women across history. Here's what's coming up: "In A Different Key" on March 1 at 3 p.m., exploring the lives of women on the autism spectrum; "Great Performances: Now Hear This: Amy Beach: American Romantic" on March 6 at 2 p.m., showcasing the legacy of a groundbreaking American composer; "If Everyone Knew" on March 15 at 4:30 p.m., revealing the role of women in addressing global issues; "Groundbreakers" on March 22 at 3 p.m., celebrating trailblazing women in various fields; "Finding Your Roots: Secret Lives" on March 26 at 8 p.m., uncovering hidden matriarchal histories; and "No Evidence of Disease" on March 29 at 3 p.m., focusing on women doctors' extraordinary contributions. Stream these inspiring stories anytime, anywhere, on the WQLN app.

GREAT THINGS HAPPEN AT WQLN

WQLN Road Trips Presents 'MJ The Musical'

The music. The moves. The icon. "MJ," the multi-Tony Award-winning new musical, is centered around the making of Michael Jackson's 1992 Dangerous World Tour. The show highlights his incredible dance moves and signature sound and offers a rare glimpse at the creative and inventive mind that made Michael Jackson incomparable. So, join us on a Road Trip to see "MJ the Musical" in July. Visit www.WQLN.org/RoadTrips for more information.

Engineering Tragedy: The Ashtabula Train Disaster

On December 29, 1876, the Ashtabula Bridge collapsed during a blizzard and brought down Train #5, the Pacific Express, due to flaws in the bridge design. The horrible crash and fire that killed 95 and injured 75 was the "Titanic" of its day. It became the backdrop for a national debate over public safety and the relationship between big business, government, and the public. Don't miss "Engineering Tragedy: The Ashtabula Train Disaster" on WQLN PBS on March 21 & 28 at 2 p.m.

All New Sunday Dramas on WQLN PBS

Lucky season 13 of "Call the Midwife" begins March 17 at 8 p.m., as Nonnatus House kicks off a new pupil midwife training. Then on the new series "Nolly," at the height of her fame, British soap opera star Noele "Nolly" Gordon is fired from her hit series. But why? Lastly, in the premiere of "Alice & Jack," when the eponymous characters meet, they are bound by a seemingly unbreakable connection, but past traumas bring complications.

The Only Constant Is Change

Discover changemakers past and present, on WQLN PBS. March 26 at 9 p.m. American Experience presents "The Cancer Detectives," the story of three people whose work had an astonishing influence on reducing the rate of cervical cancer deaths. On March 27, NOVA explores the promise and perils of Artificial Intelligence tools like ChatGPT that seem to think, speak, and create like humans. And on March 29, American Masters looks at the life of politician and diplomat Daniel Patrick Moynihan.

Introducing "Lyla in the Loop!"

PBS KIDS introduces "Lyla in the Loop," a new animated series for children ages 4-8. Lyla, a curious and adventurous seven-year-old, loves tinkering—just for fun! She embarks on thrilling adventures in the big city with her close-knit family and is incredibly optimistic and outgoing. "Lyla in the Loop" not only entertains but introduces and explores foundational computational thinking concepts that lead to a few humorous mishaps. Lyla will ask the viewer questions, utilize AI technology to understand what the viewer says, and respond accordingly. With its vibrant animation and positive messages, the show is designed to inspire children to embrace curiosity, celebrate diversity, and navigate the world with confidence. For more information, contact Kathy at (814) 217-6001.
