Making North America: Human

The epic three-part series “Making North America: Human” unfolds in a forgotten world that existed long before our own, crossed by long-lost mountain ranges, deserts the size of Africa, and vast inland seas spanning the length of the continent.

Mighty, elemental forces molded North America—fiery eruptions, titanic floods, the grinding of great ice sheets, and massive impacts from space all shaped our homeland. “Making North America” reveals the incredible story of a majestic continent.

JANE ADDAMS TOGETHER WE RISE:

Jane Addams, born into wealth and privilege, had been intrigued by social reform since a visit to a settlement house in London’s impoverished East End. An inheritance made it possible for her to bring that concept to Chicago with the creation of Hull House. American Stories profiles this Nobel Peace Prize-winning activist and the cadre of indefatigable women who joined her to enrich the lives of thousands of immigrant women and children, inspiring others around the world to follow their lead.

MaryLand

“MaryLand” follows two estranged sisters who reunite to unearth the truth about their mother’s sudden death and her double life on the Isle of Man.

Arriving in a place they’ve never visited and with no idea why their mother was there, these polar opposite sisters begin to unravel the long-held secrets of a woman they thought they knew, while keeping their own secrets from each other.

This is not so much a murder mystery as a compelling tale of two siblings opening up to each other as they work out a string of family secrets.

Pompeii: THE NEW DIG

Pompeii: The New Dig documents the most extensive archaeological excavation in Pompeii for a generation, revealing secrets and unsolved mysteries that have been hidden beneath volcanic ash. Nearly two years in the making, with exclusive access to the dig and the all-Italian team of archaeologists, the three-part series follows the excavation of an entire city block, unearthing what life was like in Pompeii before the eruption and the horror faced by the victims, and those who survived, when Vesuvius erupted in AD 79.

In a remarkable find, archaeologists unearthed a fresco resembling a pizza, dating back 2,000 years, near Naples, the birthplace of pizza. Discovered adorning a wall, potentially linked to a bakery’s corridor, this artwork adds a tantalizing layer to the city’s culinary history.

“The Riot Report”

When Black neighborhoods of American cities erupted in violence during the summer of 1967, President Lyndon Johnson appointed the National Advisory Commission on Civil Disorders - informally known as the Kerner Commission.

“The Riot Report” explores a pivotal moment in our nation’s history and the fraught social dynamics that simultaneously spurred the commission’s investigation and doomed its findings to political oblivion.

Holocaust Warnings: American Antisemitism and Extremism

WVIA, in partnership with Misericordia University, presents a multi-part project with world-renowned scholars that will help to educate our regional audience about the importance and weight of words in civil discourse.

The Holocaust began with hateful words aimed at Jews, and others. Words matter.
Can the Holocaust provide a template for understanding and confronting extremism today?

Grizzly 399: Queen of the Tetons

The most famous bear in Grand Teton National Park, Grizzly 399, has an exceptional litter of four cubs to raise. Every day, the family must contend with threats to their survival in bear country.

Now the stakes are higher than ever as Wyoming, Idaho, and Montana seek to remove grizzlies from the endangered species list—which would make it legal to hunt them.

399 makes increasingly unexpected and consequential choices to protect her family, crowning her as a hopeful symbol of the survival and preservation of wildlife.
