MASTERPIECE

The Intrepid Crime Fighters Are Back!

~ Two new Masterpiece seasons begin September 6 ~

8:00 pm | The Marlow Murder Club

RETIRED ARCHAEOLOGIST AND CROSSWORD SETTER Judith Potts (Samantha Bond), professional dog walker Suzie Harris (Jo Martin), and the proper vicar's wife Becks Starling (Cara Horgan), are back sleuthing, bringing their unconventional methods of crime solving to a series of murders. Season 3 finds the women hired as official civilian advisors to DI Tanika Malik's investigative team. Having proved that their unusual approach to solving crimes can bring about arrests, the amateur detectives face a string of high-profile murders.

As per cozy mystery protocol, The Marlow Murder Club delights viewers with humor, idiosyncratic secondary characters, and a close-knit community where everyone knows everyone. The series not only has the required amateur sleuth, it has three! Set in the idyllic village of Marlow on a stunning stretch of the Thames, the series features ingenious murder mysteries, multiple red herrings, engaging characters, faithful animal sidekicks, twist-filled investigations, and the potential for a happy ending. As the three women from different worlds come to rely on each other's strengths to bring killers to justice, the newly-promoted police sergeant (Natalie Dew as DI Malik) is determined to impress her male colleagues. She has come to respect and rely on the instincts of Judith, Suzie and Becks and their successful way of finding clues and criminals.

9:00 pm | Marble Hall Murders

FOLLOWING UP ON THE TWO PREVIOUS OFFERINGS, "Magpie Murders" and "Moonflower Murders," Marble Hall Murders is the third and final Susan Ryeland mystery adaptation from bestselling author Anthony Horowitz. Like the other series, the story cleverly splits its narrative between a contemporary England and a fictional 1950s' mystery novel. It offers a wonderfully imaginative set of characters, plotlines, locations, and of course, an intriguing mystery. Beguiling mysteries-within-mysteries, each story revolves around the character of book editor Susan Ryeland who reluctantly takes on the role of amateur sleuth when she finds herself involved in a murder case. Lesley Manville returns as Susan and Tim McMullan portrays world-famous fictional detective Atticus Pünd.

Just when she thinks she is done with solving crimes, Susan is pulled into a new literary puzzle when she's hired to work on a continuation novel in the Atticus Pünd series, penned by a troubled young writer. When a murder occurs, Susan believes that the identity of the real killer is hidden in the book. But when the assignment draws her into another very real murder case, Susan soon finds herself cast as a suspect. Meanwhile, within the world of the novel, the enigmatic detective Atticus Pünd travels to the Isle of Corfu where he becomes embroiled in the murder of Lady Margaret Chalfont, whose family he investigates with the assistance of a Greek detective. ■

Thursdays 9:00 pm & Saturdays 2:00 pm

Freedom & Unity: The Vermont Movie

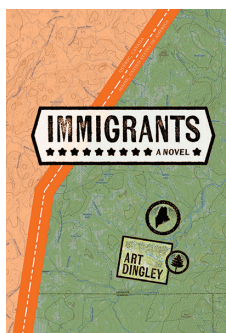

Begins Thursday, September 24, 9:00 pm; Friday, September 25, 1:00 am;
Saturday, September 26, 2:00 pm

One state. Many visions. In a six-part series, Vermonters past and present – from Abenakis and early settlers, runaway slaves, farmers, historians, politicians, activists, and newcomers moving “back to the land” – tell how one small state has made a very big difference. The series is a collaboration of over two dozen Vermont filmmakers, led by award-winning filmmaker Nora Jacobson. The films probe under Vermont’s bucolic surface to reveal stories of class, race, labor, education, culture, the environment, and much more. Using cinema vérité, personal stories, rare footage, compelling interviews and original re-enactments, Freedom & Unity is a living testament that explores the history and contemporary culture of the Green Mountain State.

This conversation will be released over Maine Public’s YouTube Channel and on our website, mainepublic.org, after 5:00 p.m. on September 15.

Looking ahead to October, the book club will explore The Islanders with author Lewis Robinson.
