I totally disagree and quite frankly feel insulted by the many false statements in the filing. The only reason I am here is because of out of care and mercy for my & wife about to be & wife, because she knows full well in our culture and religion we do not need a marriage certificate to be husband and wife the only reason we are here is because I applied for a marriage certificate to help her become a legal resident of the United States and later become a citizen. Why I am brought here is incomprehensible, since she has taken the kids out of their school without my consent, as of now I have no idea where the kids are, she doesn't even allow me to talk to them on the phone let alone see them, if she drops dead right now I wouldn't know where to find the kids and she knows very well she is emotionally damaging the kids, my boys love me to death. I only object to her lying reason for divorce otherwise I have no problem whatsoever having her out of my life but the
