Turn: Washington's Spies

*10-part series begins
Sunday, August 24, at 6:55 pm*

A DRAMA SET DURING THE Revolutionary War takes viewers behind the battlefield to a covert struggle fought by everyday heroes.

At the start of the Revolutionary War, insurgents and loyalists engaged in a shadow war, where friends and neighbors were forced to choose sides and keep their heroics a secret. This clandestine world of espionage unfolds in the character-driven drama series Turn: Washington's Spies.

The program is based on Alexander Rose's book "Washington's Spies: The Story of America's First Spy Ring." It revolves around Abe Woodhull (Jamie Bell), a young farmer torn between loyalty to his Tory background and respect for those who fight for the patriot cause. Living on British-occupied Long Island, Abe joins a group of his childhood friends to form what becomes known as the Culper Ring, a spy network charged with sniffing out British military strategy.

The daring efforts of the rebels revolutionized the art of espionage, giving birth to modern methods as we know it today, along with all the moral complexity that entails. Together, they risked their lives and honor, and turned against family and king, for a fight they believed in passionately, ultimately helping George Washington turn the tide of the Revolutionary War in favor of the rebels. ■

Program Notes...

Our delightful Maine summer continues as we move into August, and despite the slower, Vacationland pace of life, Maine Public is here to offer a treasure trove of programming for you to enjoy in your down time.

We have just launched our Essential Salt podcast, a collection of richly reported stories about living and working in Maine – a state that is a microcosm of the most pressing challenges facing the U.S. From tensions between rural and urban values, to how we make sense of the past in a way that builds toward a strong future, stories about Maine have a lot to teach us about what it means to belong to a place and a community. Essential Salt is available where you get your podcasts and at mainepublic.org.

On television, our Maine Public Film Series brings us Voices From the Barrens: Native People, Blueberries and Sovereignty, on Thursday evening, August 7th. The film captures the wild blueberry harvest of the Wabanaki People from the U.S. and Canada as the tribes are challenged to balance blueberry hand raking traditions with the economics of the world market. And on Tuesday, August 12th, the series brings us Vanish – Disappearing Icons of a Rural America. This picturesque documentary follows photographer Jim Westphalen as he captures striking images of America's past, rural structures that are quickly disappearing. Also on August 12th, we'll see a special preview of The American Revolution, an epic new film from Ken Burns, Sarah Botstein and David Schmidt, that explores the country's founding struggle and its eight-year War for Independence. The complete six-part, 12-hour series will premiere in November, a cornerstone in our America@250 commemoration.

This year also marks the 250th anniversary of Jane Austen's birth, and we are excited to celebrate this milestone with encore presentations of some of the most renowned BBC adaptations of Austen's works. Our celebration gets underway on Sunday evening, August 10th, with Pride & Prejudice, the epic six-hour series featuring Colin Firth and Jennifer Ehle. Later in the fall, we'll bring you two more Austen classics from the BBC: Emma and Sense & Sensibility.

– Susan Tran, Chief Programming Officer

Pride & Prejudice marathon!

Andrew Davies' multi-award-winning adaptation of Jane Austen's classic romance airs Sunday, August 10, beginning at 8:30 p.m. and August 17 at 7:00 p.m. Pride & Prejudice stars Colin Firth and Jennifer Ehle and a fabulous supporting cast. The six-part story pulsates with energy as lively, witty Elizabeth Bennet charms smoldering, haughty Darcy against a backdrop of a picture-postcard countryside, small-town assembly rooms and English stately homes. ■

Vanish – Disappearing Icons of a Rural America

Tuesday, August 12, 8:00 pm; Thursday, August 14, 9:30 pm;
Saturday, August 16, 1:30 pm

A remarkable story of past and present, Vanish chronicles the “visual preservation” adventures of fine art photographer, Jim Westphalen. He travels across the country seeking out and creating stunning imagery of America’s disappearing rural structures. The film also features deep dive interviews with preservation experts as well as the passionate people who strive and struggle to save these fading treasures, sharing their intimate stories of dreams, loss and triumphs. The film is equal parts art, history and storm chasing. Westphalen races against time and the unrelenting elements to capture the extraordinary beauty of aging barns, one room schoolhouses, grain elevators, prairie churches and all the classic structures that our country’s rural heritage was built upon.

With a groundbreaking score by Leonard Bernstein and lyrics by Stephen Sondheim, it features iconic songs like “Tonight,” “America,” and “Somewhere.” Maine State Music Theatre’s West Side Story will be performed at the Pickard Theater in Brunswick from August 6 through August 23. Go to msmt.org for all the details. ■

The new season picks up six months after the shocking finale of season 3, and the team must overcome their grief to tackle a dangerous crime wave. And, the lines between professional and personal become blurred for therapist Helena Goldberg. ■
