

WUSF Public Media

Florida Matters Public Affairs Show

News Stories

Jan. 1 – March 31, 2026

FLORIDA MATTERS – FIRST QUARTER, 2026

Florida Matters Quarterly report Jan. 1- March 31, 2026

Time aired: Daily at noon – 1 p.m. on WUSF 89.7 FM; Sundays at 6:30 p.m. on WSMR 89.1 FM

March 31, 2026

Are you ready to rocket? Plus, a lawsuit for the birds, Zested interest, strange Florida fiction

By Wednesday night, astronauts may be rocketing out to the moon for the first time in 53 years. On “Live & Local,” we get the latest on the Artemis II mission. Plus, the Florida scrub jay faces a legal challenge, and we chat with The Zest’s Dalia Colón. (science, environment, food)

March 30, 2026

Fighting for street-legal art, blue-night specials, a low-water mark, recipes lost and found

Florida muralists are challenging the state over removed sidewalk artwork. Ideas to survive the drought. A culinary anthropologist's hobby. And a new social media segment on politics. (Art, politics, social media, environment)

Mar 26, 2026

Birth plan on trial, tariffs on tap, SRQ flies through shutdown, Century Club equestrian

A Florida woman says her own birth plan was overridden when a hospital sought legal intervention. The case was argued before a judge over Zoom – while she was in labor. (Health, women's issues, government)

Mar 25, 2026

HIV patients get temporary relief, school vaccines and protests, New College film, Betty Castor

Gov. Ron DeSantis signed a measure to keep funding going for lifesaving medication. But the coverage runs out in July. Hence, the legal back-and-forth over the AIDS Drug Assistance Program continues. (Health, education, politics)

Mar 24, 2026

Work to do in Tally, Tampa's gold medalist, questioning St. Pete's boom, Pilates pop-ups

Despite passing a slate of high-profile bills, Florida lawmakers couldn't resolve some of their biggest disagreements. Where do things stand and what's up tap with special sessions planned for next month? (Politics, government, growth, health)

Mar 23, 2026

Red-light cameras on trial, turning a new reef, sea for yourself, learning and living outdoors

A recent court ruling is reigniting debate over red-light cameras in Florida. Critics say the fines unfairly target vehicle owners, while supporters argue they save lives. (Transportation, environment, education)

Mar 19, 2026

Burdens of proof for voters, terror labels, power pole honor roll, a local centennial

"Florida Matters Live & Local" takes a closer look at a pair of controversial bills heading to the governor's desk. One covers voter ID and the other allows the state to label what groups are terrorist organizations. (Civic engagement, politics)

Mar 18, 2026

Data centers of attention, deportation distortions, Bulls chasing titles

Why are plans for enormous AI data centers raising alarms with residents who may have to learn nearby? And Sheriff Grady Judd wants some "common sense" used when it comes to immigration enforcement. (Environment, technology, human rights, immigration)

Mar 18, 2026

Travelers' turbulence, Rays the roof cost, Sun worshippers wanted

Spring breakers are hitting the skies as fuel costs surge and economic uncertainty grows. Airline expert Darryl Jenkins warns he can't confidently predict where fares are headed. (Tourism, sports, economy)

Mar 16, 2026

Spicing up the mayor's race, sports engineering, Legislative lookback, a real piece of quirk

Anthony Gilbert is best known online as a food influencer exploring hidden culinary spots. Now he's bringing a full plate of ideas to local politics. We get a taste of his plans. (Politics, sports)

Mar 12, 2026

Talking with Lt. Gov. Collins, Dalí news that will melt your clocks, Cocoa's Car-uso

Lt. Gov. Jay Collins dials into "Florida Matters Live & Local" to talk about why he's running for governor and review some of his legislative priorities. We'll also hear about the Dalí Museum's expansion and an opera singer who sells cars. (Politics, arts, music, business)

Mar 11, 2026

AG candidate José Javier Rodríguez, ICE and H-1B visas, a World Cup love letter

Former state lawmaker José Javier Rodríguez wants to be Florida's Attorney General. He faces steep odds in a very red state. On "Live & Local," he makes his pitch. (Politics, law and order, immigration, sports)

Mar 10, 2026

Playing us for fuel, chilly reaction to H-1B freeze, getting away Scot-free

In just a week, gas prices have shot up to almost $4 for a gallon for regular unleaded. "Live & Local" takes a closer look at what's driving up the cost and how you are dealing with it. (Transportation, economy, immigration)

Mar 9, 2026

A Juul casket, Councilor Naya Young, educational mermaids, cram job at the Capitol

Hillsborough schools are rolling out smart sensors that detect vape clouds, the Legislature's last week, meeting a Tampa City Council member and taking a dive at an aquarium in Lecanto. (Education, health, politics)

Mar 5, 2026

Jolt for Lakeland residents, bill deletion, response to Welch, risky med cuts, women take field

Lakeland residents face higher electric bills, while a Senate bill transferring USF Sarasota-Manatee land to New College vanishes — leaving both energy costs and campus plans in uncertainty. (Economy, health, women's sports)

Mar 4, 2026

St. Pete mayor looks ahead, nonprofits and citizenship checks, Jackson House rebirth

"Florida Matters Live & Local" sits down with Mayor Ken Welch, examines how immigration verification rules would reshape local services in Manatee County, and explores efforts to restore a historic Tampa landmark. (Local politics, immigration, history)

Mar 3, 2026

Lessons in school change, Tampa's role in Iran, a new teen curfew, postpartum psychosis

"Live & Local" jumps into four controversial issues: school closures in Pinellas, war planning at MacDill, the new teen curfew in Palmetto and treatment gaps for maternal mental health. (Education, military, teen issues, mental health)

Mar 2, 2026

The Iran attack's many layers, fight for student journalists, Legislature at the stretch

University of South Florida Middle East specialist Arman Mahmoudian weighs in on the bombings in Iran and retaliatory strikes. (World affairs, politics, journalism)

Feb 26, 2026

Buildings with a pinkish hue, solving cold cases, a very fast learner

"Florida Matters: Live & Local" brings you stories of art, justice and hometown pride this week. (Art, justice, LGBTQ)

Feb 25, 2026

A conversation with USF's new president, and a look at kitchen-table economics

So what goes on during the workday of a university president during his second week on campus? Moez Limayem is here to talk about the challenges ahead. (Higher education, economics)

Feb 24, 2026

Fresh approach to hunger, urchin care for reefs, growth reality check, prison to prevention

From expanding fresh food access and restoring reef ecosystems to measuring regional growth and mentoring youth, "Florida Matters Live & Local" explores solutions shaping Tampa Bay's future. (Food, environment, growth, incarceration)

Feb 23, 2026

Swiftie Lit 101, Tampa Bay eyes on Iran, Black History Month reprises

From "Folklore" to "Tortured Poets," USF students can take a classical look at Taylor Swift's lyrics. "Florida Matters Live & Local" signs up for a closer look. (Popular music, black history, world affairs)

Feb 19, 2026

Tigers in their town, fair days in Hardee, sweet strawberries

Florida hosts 15 baseball teams for spring training, but no town has been "all in" and for so long as Lakeland, where the Detroit Tigers have stuck around since 1934. (Spring training, agriculture)

Feb 18, 2026

'Ought to be' an e-bike law, down on the freezing farm, an NFL journey goes full circle

The death of a classmate in an e-bike accident leads teens to help draft a bill on helmet safety with a state representative. Plus, how growers dealt with the recent cold and a new career for a former Baltimore Raven. (Transportation, agriculture, sports)

Feb 17, 2026

Protecting our wildways, Capital earmarking, online threats, punky-glory in Gainesville

Polk County recently rejected a planned truck refueling stop near a key wildlife corridor crossing over Interstate 4. It's a pretty big deal for animal and environmental advocates. (Environment, online issues)

Feb 16, 2026

Counties coping with potential cuts, grading Florida's gun laws, in a shriveled state

With the elimination of property taxes still on tap in Tallahassee, a study shows billions of dollars in potential losses, with some counties standing to lose more than others. (Politics, growth, gun control, economy)

Feb 12, 2026

[Sarasota's Super conductor, saving the Everglades, measles go viral, adore !\[\]\(d0a1791f26d167e866e44ebbf83efebe_img.jpg\) explore](#)

The Sarasota Orchestra's music director had the time of his life during Bad Bunny's Spanish-language Super Bowl halftime, plus segments on Everglades preservation, measles and Valentine's Day fun. (Culture, sports, environment)

Feb 11, 2026

New College, Phillippi Creek, 2 launch stories, campus hunger, raptor rescues

A couple of college challenges are in the spotlight. We get an update on the New College-USF controversy and learn about the growing concern of student food insecurity. (Higher education, environment, space, food issues)

Feb 10, 2026

A look at the Gas Plant District's past and future, student walkouts, trail praisers

It's hard to have a conversation about what a place can be without talking about the way it was. Such is the case with the current Tropicana Field site. (History, politics, sports)

Feb 9, 2026

English-only testing, touching base in Tally, a Was pause, shaping Tampa's Black story

Will the state's English-only driver's tests make roads safer? We look into the rule change on "Florida Matters Live & Local." (Immigration, music, black history)

Feb 5, 2026

Death penalty in focus, 'granny flats,' Bad Bunny's halftime, Super Bowl yummys

The conversation starters for "Florida Matters Live & Local" include Florida's execution pace and some Super Bowl talk that has nothing to do with Seahawks and Patriots. (Law and order, sports, music)

Feb 4, 2026

Welcoming Mayor Castor, cold hands and green thumbs, Tampa Bay's 'Timeline'

Tampa Mayor Jane Castor sits down for a wide-ranging conversation, tackling everything from the Rays stadium talks and public safety to immigration, transportation, and the city's future. (Immigration, transportation, growth issues, sports)

Feb 3, 2026

The smoking alarm, cleaning up beads, Ybor City safety, capybaras and friends

From Florida's failing tobacco policies to giant rodents munching lettuce, we cover the state's public health challenges, community cleanups, street safety, and a cafe that's more about animal education than lattes. (Health, law and order, environment)

Feb 2, 2026

Shooting for the moon, inside lawmaking, an app for that, sweet tradition

You may not have noticed, but NASA is about to launch a crewed mission to the moon. Let's catch up on the latest Artemis mission, which could lift off as soon as this weekend. (Space, food)

Jan 29, 2026

Charters and closures, both sides of the tax, glacial recognition, Tampa's gold star

Florida lawmakers have big choices to make: How to handle charter takeovers through the Schools of Hope program and what to do with property taxes. (Education, politics)

Jan 28, 2026

Understanding grief attacks, looking up at heroes, Ybor safety, Black romance on silver screens

It's more than just depression. It's exponential bereavement that can feel like a panic attack, bringing deep sadness and a feeling of losing control. Let's learn about grief attacks. (Mental health, law and order, black history)

Jan 27, 2026

Twin Cities' toll on Floridians, and a treasured tradition

On "Florida Matters Live & Local," we discuss how immigration raids in Minneapolis have captured national attention — stirring questions and fears around the country — including the Tampa Bay area. (Immigration, law and order, politics)

Jan 26, 2026

Drilling instruction, a Capitol update, novels from the sin bin, kicking ice in Tampa

Florida leaders from both parties are urging President Trump to keep the offshore drilling moratorium in place, warning of risks to the Gulf's environment, wildlife and coastal communities. (Government, politics, environment)

Jan 22, 2026

Rough seas for port proposal? Plus, avoiding immigration scams and a long to-do list

An idea for a cruise terminal near the Skyway is drawing early resistance as environmental groups question whether the promised benefits outweigh the risks to one of Tampa Bay's most fragile coastal areas. (Growth, environment, politics)

Jan 21, 2026

Sarasota schools, immigration and fear; Hillsborough College will play ball with Rays

Sarasota's school board vote to reaffirm cooperation with ICE sparked intense debate over student safety and learning, while Hillsborough College and the Rays take a step forward on a stadium plan. (Education, immigration, sports)

Jan 20, 2026

Renner makes his case, fallout of data dousing, digging in the past, a teacher to remember

Former House Speaker Paul Renner is running for the Republican nomination to be Florida's governor. He talks about his plans with "Florida Matters Live & Local" host Matthew Peddie. (Politics, economy, education)

Jan 19, 2026

On MLK Day: Reflecting on Black pioneers who carried the dream

"Florida Matters Live & Local" spends the hour looking at the lives and legacies of lawmakers John Lewis and Arthenia Joyner, author Zora Neale Hurston, and the enduring words of the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. (Black history)

Jan 15, 2026

The Rays and Tampa, Plant City's No. 1 advocate, fair sharing, celebrating MLK

The Rays may be closer than ever to a new stadium in Tampa as Hillsborough College explores renovating its North Dale Mabry Campus into a mixed-use development. We catch you up. (Sports, black history)

Jan 14, 2026

Keeping St. Armands above water, another view on State of the State, art without a home

Sarasota has the money to improve coastal flooding protection. However, the funding comes with questions about what improvements can be made and will they solve the problem as sea levels rise. (Environment, climate change, politics, art)

Jan 13, 2026

Instant analysis of Gov. DeSantis' State of the State address

The conversation features insights from longtime local political journalist William March, PolitiFact Florida government reporter Sam Putterman and WUSF politics/environment reporter Steve Newborn. (Politics, government, health, environment)

Jan 12, 2026

ACA clock is ticking, drop in international students, USF athletics success

A high-stakes debate in Congress will likely determine whether Affordable Care Act premiums stay affordable. Will there be a resolution before this year's final enrollment deadline on Thursday? (Health, education, sports)

Jan 8, 2026

Sky's the limit for airport boss, recalling Tampa lunch counter sit-ins, musicians band together

We learn plenty from Tampa International Airport CEO Michael Stephens during a special interview on "Florida Matters Live & Local." Also, a bit of local history you may not know about. (Transportation, history, music)

Jan 7, 2026

Behind our Everglades report, Rauschenberg's Florida, bird's-eye views, snow and tell

From a decades-old environmental clash to a centennial art celebration, a quirky state bird debate and a frosty escape, "Florida Matters Live & Local" guests touch on our state's history, culture and more. (Environment, Your Florida, history)

Jan 6, 2026

Protecting endangered wildlife, a literary legacy, sculpture culture, surviving in sync

On "Florida Matters Live & Local" with guest host Cathy Carter, changes to the Endangered Species Act, the enduring wit of Mark Twain, massive soaring artwork and a dragon boat team of breast cancer survivors. (Environment, literature, arts, health)

Jan 5, 2026

Freedom and stability are within Venezuelans' grip, SOS for RSV, a memoir of survival

Freedoms, fevers and family secrets lead "Florida Matters Live & Local" into the new year, with discussions on Venezuela, children's health and a revealing family memoir. (Health, international issues, mental health)

