Dear Public Radio 90 Members,

Thank you for your continued support of WNMU, Public Radio 90.

I want to take a moment to honor all of our members who have been giving through their IRA funds, created a new legacy gift for Public Radio 90, or are giving an additional gift of support. You recognize the value that Public Radio 90 brings to our communities every day and your gifts will help this station operate under the highest standards far into the future. Your incredibly thoughtful gifts to Public Radio 90 make you all Public Radio 90 heroes and we are very grateful for your lasting support.

If you haven't thought about planned gifts, bequests, or a lasting contribution to the Public Radio 90 endowment fund, and you have questions, please reach out to your financial planner, or attorney. Of course, Public Radio 90 and the NMU Foundation are always available to help guide you through the process if you should need assistance. Thanks to all who are considering a lasting legacy gift.

Our February on-air fundraising campaign, called Friend-raiser 2026, is set for February 10-18 and we need your help to raise at least $35,000 and we might just have a challenge, which we hope you will take advantage of! It doesn't matter how much you give, because every dollar makes a difference. A donation of $10 a month will help pay for one hour of programming during the year. It's easy to give using our secure online pledge site at wnmufm.org. Just click on the Pledge Now button at the top of the page. You can also drop a check in the mail to WNMU-FM, 1401 Presque Isle Ave, Marquette, MI 49855, or call us at 906-227-2600.

One final thought... all of us here at Public Radio 90 are beyond grateful for your continued support. Our listener/donor support is more critical than ever before and so many of you have stepped-up to this funding challenge. Also, your kind words of support have helped to sustain our staff through a very challenging and uncertain time and we thank you for that.

Again, grateful thanks to every single member for your gifts. You make Public Radio 90 possible.

Tammy Wixtrom Johnson, WNMU-FM Manager

Step into the sweltering, jazz-soaked streets of New Orleans, where the air hangs thick with secrets and every word crackles with tension. In Tennessee Williams' Pulitzer Prize-winning masterpiece, faded Southern belle Blanche DuBois arrives uninvited at her sister Stella's run-down apartment, clutching fading dreams and fragile illusions.

A Streetcar Named Desire is a bold, heart-breaking portrait of a woman pushed to the edge, a man who refuses to yield, and a society cracking beneath the weight of its own contradictions. Raw, lyrical, and unflinchingly human, this is Tennessee Williams at his most electrifying.

Monday-Friday 9 amChapter-A-Day on WNNM-FM

Friday, February 6 through Friday, February 20, Martha White reads Walk With Me: A Biography of Fannie Lou Hamer by Kate Clifford Larson. She was born the 20th child in a family that had lived in the Mississippi Delta for generations. She left school at 12 to pick cotton. She was subjected without her consent to an operation that deprived her of children. And she was denied the most basic of all American rights: the right to cast a ballot. And so Fannie Lou Hamer lifted up her voice. Kate Clifford Larson's biography of Fannie Lou Hamer is the most complete ever written, drawing on recently declassified sources on both Hamer and the civil rights movement. Walk with Me does justice to Hamer's life, capturing the voice that led the fight for freedom and equality in America.

Monday, February 23 through Friday, March 13, Norman Gilliland reads The Great Gatsby by F. Scott Fitzgerald, which stands as the supreme achievement of his career. The story of the mysteriously wealthy Jay Gatsby and his love for the beautiful Daisy Buchanan, of lavish parties on Long Island at a time when The New York Times noted "gin was the national drink and sex the national obsession," it is an exquisitely crafted tale of America in the 1920s.
