9pm North to Freedom (WSKG)

North to Freedom explores the compelling and often misunderstood history of the Underground Railroad, looking beyond the myths to uncover the stories of those who risk everything for freedom. Focusing on Upstate New York, this film highlights the contributions of Black leaders, allies like Jermain Loguen, John W. Jones, and Gerrit Smith, and the towns that played pivotal roles. Rather than secret rooms and tunnels, North to Freedom reveals a vast network built on courage, trust, and resistance. With a blend of personal narratives, historian insights, and vivid storytelling, the film redefines our understanding of a movement that shaped the course of American history.
