General Manager’s Newsletter | April 2022

YOUR EMAIL NAME

Dear email reader,

We are writing to thank you for your support of Wyoming Public Media. Your contributions make all that we do possible.

WPM is proud of the music, stories, and news we are able to bring to the people of Wyoming. The support of our community is what makes all of this possible.

Music is a powerful way to express emotion. Santana talked with Wyoming Public Media Program Director Grady Kirkpatrick about his beginnings in music.

Thank you for your loyalty and support!

Sakun, Brent Renaud, Oleksandra Kuvshynova, Pierre Zakrzewski, Oksana Baulina, and Maksym Levin. It’s an unconfirmed number of journalists have been killed. Here are five who have been confirmed to date: Yevhenii Sakun, Brent Renaud, Oleksandra Kuvshynova, Pierre Zakrzewski, Oksana Baulina, and Maksym Levin.

In closing, we remember fellow war correspondents who died covering the war in Ukraine since 2022, and who were unable to share their stories.

Looking ahead, we will visit Cheyenne during Frontier Days in July. Though only during the planning, this visit is a part of the history of the Military Family project, which provides a platform for veterans, service members, and military families to share their stories. The project honors their voices and experiences and brings their stories to national attention. If you or someone you know has a story to share, please contact us.

The world’s 1st national park celebrated its 150th anniversary on March 1st as WPR reporters covered the festivities. Listen to their findings on the WPM Yellowstone page.

Wyoming Public Media is a service of the University of Wyoming. Copyright © 2022 Wyoming Public Media. All rights reserved.

General Manager’s Newsletter | April 2022